No. 1416 Medl.—The 13th July 1912.—The following report is published for general information.

H. L. STEPHENSON,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Dated Darjeeling, the 1st April 1912.

From—LIEUT.-COL. BEN. H. DEARE, I.M.S., Superintendent, Eden Sanitarium and Hospital, Darjeeling,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Financial and Medical Departments, Calcutta.

(Through the Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals, Bengal.)

I HAVE the honour to submit the following report on the working of the Eden Sanitarium and Hospital for the year 1911. Major R. H. Maddox, I.M.S., was in charge from the 1st to 13th January 1911 and Lieutenant-Colonel B. H. Deare, I.M.S., from 14th January to the end of the year.

2. The Sanitarium was opened on the 20th March 1911 and closed on the 12th November 1911.

3. The Hospital remained open throughout the year, but was not occupied during the months of January and February, and since the closing of the institution on the 12th November has been in the hands of the Public Works Department to carry out the construction of the Baker Ward and alterations to No. 5 room. Three rooms, however, were kept in readiness in the Sanitarium for any cases requiring admission during the off season. There were no cases admitted.

4. The following table shows the number of each class of patients and friends admitted into the Sanitarium and Hospital during the last six years :—

ADMISSION.	1906.	1907.	1908.	1909.	1910.	1911.
First class ...	72	65	96	104	146	56
Intermediate class ...	107	73	65	73	78	126

Third class ...	108	122	151	107	136	110
Total ...	494	490	545	472	566	531

The following tables show the number of patients and their relatives and friends admitted during each of the last six years together with the daily average sick :—

Patients.

Relatives and Friends.

Total number ...	150	139	114	83	139	138

Males.	Females.	CHILDREN.		Total.	Cured.	Relieved.	Died.
		Males.	Females.
160	155	46	32	393	379	9	5

The total number of admissions to the Sanitarium and Hospital does not fall far short of the previous year. It has been said that Darjeeling in general has been rather empty this year in comparison with former years as many houses have been "to let" which formerly were always occupied. Again, too, the falling off no doubt was due to a comparatively cool April in the plains; for up to the 17th April of this year there were only 37 admissions compared with 69 to the same date of last year.

The most noticeable feature in the foregoing figures is the wide variations in the totals of the first and intermediate class admissions, the former being 56, the lowest figure for several years past, while the latter has reached 126, the maximum yet attained. It is difficult to ascribe any definite cause for these fluctuations.

The daily average number of residents for the whole year works out to 32, though for the period the Sanitarium was opened it is 48 compared with 35 and 52 respectively for the previous year. The average stay of each resident is 22 days. The localities from which residents were admitted are given in table "D." Calcutta and Darjeeling heading the list as usual. But it is of interest to note that patients have been drawn from such far away places as Lahore, Delhi, Singapore, Rajamundy, Bilaspur, Tinnevely, Nagpore and Allahabad.

All residents expressed general satisfaction with the arrangements.

5. The free beds of the Medical College and Presidency General Hospitals were occupied for the greater part of the season at a cost of Rs. 672 reckoned at third class rates.

The Superintendent's free-bed was availed of in seven cases at a cost of Rs. 284. The names of persons who received the benefits of the free-beds are given in table "C."

During the year under report 19 patients were treated in "free-beds" as against 19 in the previous year. The Children's Ministering League of Darjeeling provided accommodation for seven children and two children received the benefits of the Theo Beryl Cot; that is nine children were treated in these "free beds" as against five in the previous year 1910.

6. Donations and subscriptions amounting to Rs. 455-10 were received during the year from the following sources:—

	Rs. A.
The Manager, Tukvar Co., Ltd. ...	100 0
Messrs. Hamilton & Co. ...	25 0
" Mackintosh Burn & Co. ...	25 0
The General Manager, D.-H. Railway ...	100 0
Messrs. R. Knight & Sons ...	25 0
" Ranken & Co. ...	25 0
" Cooke & Kelvey ...	25 0
" T. E. Thomson & Co. ...	25 0
Collections for Hospital } Father Peal, S.J. ...	32 0
on Sunday } The Chaplain of Darjeel-	73 10
(Miscellaneous receipt) } ing.
Total ...	455 10

The total expenditure on free beds amounts to Rs. 956, whereas donations and subscriptions amount to Rs. 455-10, leaving a balance of Rs. 500-6, to be met from other sources.

7. The rule whereby European Government servants on receipt of Rs. 400 or less can obtain first class accommodation, etc., by paying intermediate class rates was not availed of in a single case.

No advantage was taken of the rule, granting a reduction in the rates to European assistants in Commercial firms, Banks, etc., who are annual subscribers.

8. The diseases for which patients were admitted are shown in table A.*

(1) There were ten cases of enteric fever compared with eight during the year 1910. Of these four developed symptoms of the disease within three weeks of their arrival in the station, one was admitted from a neighbouring tea garden 17 miles from Darjeeling, while the remaining five were children, from one of the schools at West Point. It is satisfactory to note that all recovered though several cases were of a serious type.

(2) There were 8 cases of malarial fever compared with 11 during the previous year. They call for no special comment.

(3) There were 69 operations performed during the year against 39 in 1910. There have not been so many during a season for several years past; some of which were of an important character.

It has been brought to notice that the number of operations had been steadily decreasing since 1906, and that this might possibly be attributed to payments being made for such operations (vide Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals, Bengal's No. 972D., dated 5th June 1911). In view of the satisfactory increase this season it is probable that payments for operations only influence the number in a very small degree, if at all.

(4) There were 17 confinements and 2 cases of induction of abortion during the year against 19 confinements during 1910. There has been a steady increase in this branch of the work during the past three years, and several applicants from the plains were declined during the season as nurses were not available.

(5) There were five deaths during the year against six the previous year. The causes were:—one acute miliary tuberculosis, one septicæmia, one after total pan-hysterectomy for carcinoma of uterus, one from acute suppression of urine following operation for suppurating appendicitis, and one from sloughing appendicitis with peritonitis. The death-rate has been the lowest for several years.

9. Income and expenditure.—For details see table "F."* The total income in 1911 amounted to Rs. 48,784-11-3 as compared with Rs. 55,668-3-6 in the previous year.

The daily cost of diet for inmates not including the staff was Re. 1-8-9 as compared with Re. 1-10-6 the year before.

The accounts were audited by Messrs. Lovelock and Lewes, whose letter giving result of audit and statements showing the financial position are attached.

10. General remarks.—Military Assistant Surgeon W. J. Marshall was Resident Medical Officer from 1st January to 6th November 1911. He gave great satisfaction, is professionally very sound, works well, is tactful, and the Committee are sorry to lose his services. He won the gratitude of all inmates by his care and kindness. I am indebted to him for much valuable assistance.

Military Assistant Surgeon H. L. O. Fleming took over the duties of Resident Medical Officer on the 7th November 1911. Has only just joined after the season, and remarks cannot be therefore made.

Mr. H. Richardson has fully upheld his good reputation, and has not only done his legitimate duties excellently, but has thrown himself enthusiastically in all movements for increasing the popularity of the institution.

Babu Sidheswar Dey was appointed Accountant from the 1st January 1911. Although a new man has worked well and hard and has given satisfaction. Should be a very valuable accountant.

The nursing arrangements and linen were under the supervision of two of the Clewer Sisters from Calcutta. I am much indebted to them for their valuable assistance. Sister Pauline very kindly took charge of the Library, which has been much improved.

The new plan of making a small charge for the use of the Library has proved a great success: the subscription has been paid readily. The books can now be easily kept in good repair and new ones have been added. Owing to some kind gifts new book-cases have been made without expense to the General Fund.

The Library financial statement is given herewith:—

The customary annual repairs to the buildings were carried out during the closed season under the supervision of the Public Works Department. The present shingled roof, which has been on since the building was constructed in 1883, will sooner or later require to be replaced by corrugated iron.

* Not printed.

The leaks were a constant source of annoyance to residents, and the Public Works Department authorities were frequently requisitioned to remedy the defects, but in spite of all their endeavours practically no improvement was effected. The Committee have been in communication with the Public Works Department on the subject, and the Superintending Engineer informed that the cost will be Rs. 10,000 and will be an original work for which funds will have to be provided. The Committee are not in a financial position to meet such an outlay—however necessary the need may be—and our only hope is that Government, which has so generously aided us in the past, will see its way to help in this matter.

The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, at his visit to the institution in May, made a grant of Rs. 5,000 for certain alterations and improvements which are now being carried out by the Public Works Department as follows:—

- (1) Improvements to the meat and vegetable larders by providing stone and marble shelves and Indian patent stone flooring. (b) Providing a new glazed earthenware sink in the kitchen and demolishing the present washing-up place which has always been most difficult to keep neat and clean.
- (2) Removal of the hot-water-shed and apparatus to a new site more remote from the building and consequently less disturbing to the residents by the clattering of tins and chopping of wood.
- (3) Removal of the servants' latrine from its present position to a more convenient site. This will obviate the difficulties now encountered by servants using the hillside instead of the latrine where it now stands.
- (4) Improvements to No. 5 room of the Hospital by reflooring it with teakwood and filling the walls to a height of 5 feet with glass minton tiles, the remaining portion of the walls being done with "Paripan."
- (5) Provision of electric lights to the Resident Medical officer and Steward's quarters, also constructing an additional bathroom for the Steward's quarters.

Regarding the Baker Memorial Ward, referred to in the report for 1910, it was not found feasible to construct an additional room to the ground floor of the hospital for want of sufficient space and without in some way or other interfering with the light and ventilation of other rooms or spoiling the symmetry of the building. Several suggestions were made, but after due consideration it was finally resolved to take up the present sterilizing room and a portion of the operation room, which is unnecessarily large, for the Baker Ward and to reconstruct the sterilizing room over the dressing rooms to the west of the building. These rooms will be ready for occupation when the Institution re-opens.

The equipment for the Baker Ward will be supplied from private sources, the Hon'ble Lieutenant-Colonel G. Grant-Gordon, C.I.E., having presented a surgical bed, while Mrs. Peter West, widow of the late Mr. Peter West, has endowed a bed for the use of planters and presented a bed, invalid furniture and such other necessities as may be required for the comfort of the sick.

The late Mr. John White, of Darjeeling, bequeathed the sum of Rs. 20,000 for the benefit of necessitous patients. A scheme is in course of preparation for carrying out the wishes of the donor. This money has been paid in by the executors, and the improvements carried out by this bequest will be fully dealt with in the next report.

A new kitchen range was purchased for Rs. 800.

The east bank of the Sanitarium grounds facing the station presented an unsightly appearance. The Municipality very kindly revetted the lower part of the bank, and the hillside was then evenly sloped, turfed and planted with ornamental shrubs by the Darjeeling Improvement Fund. Our thanks are due to Mr. Cave, Curator, Botanical Gardens, for taking this in hand.

REGULATIONS FOR MAINTAINING DISCIPLINE.SANCTIONED BY GOVERNMENT IN PURSUANCE OF SECTION 27 (g) OF THE INDIAN MERCHANT SHIPPING ACT, V OF 1883.

These Regulations are distinct from, and in addition to, those contained in the Act, and are sanctioned, but not universally required by law. All or any of them may be adopted by agreement between a Master and his crew, and thereupon the offences specified in such of them as are so adopted will be legally punishable by the appropriate fines or punishments.

These regulations are all numbered, and the numbers of such of them as are adopted must be inserted in the space left for that purpose in the agreement, page 1, and the following copy of these regulations must be made to correspond with the agreement by erasing such of the regulations as are not adopted. If the agreement is made before the Superintendent of a Mercantile Marine Office, his signature or initials must be placed opposite such of the regulations as are adopted.

For the purpose of legally enforcing any of the following penalties, the same steps must be adopted as in the case of other offences punishable under the Act, that is to say, a statement of the offence must immediately, after its commission, be entered in the official log-book by the direction of the Master, and must, at the same time, be attested to be true by the signatures of the Master and the Mate, or one of the crew; and a copy of such entry must be furnished, or the same must be read over, to the offender, before the ship reaches any port or departs from the port at which she is, and an entry that the same has been so furnished or read over, and of the reply, if any, of the offender, must be made and signed in the same manner as the entry of the offence. These entries must, upon discharge of the offender, be shown to the Superintendent of a Mercantile Marine Office before whom the offender is discharged; and if he is satisfied that the offence is proved, and that the entries have been properly made, the fine must be deducted from the offender's wages and paid over to the Superintendent.

If, in consequence of subsequent good conduct, the Master thinks fit to remit or reduce any fine upon any member of his crew which has been entered in the official log, and signifies the same to the Superintendent, the fine shall be remitted or reduced accordingly. If wages are contracted for by the voyage or by share, amount of the fines is to be ascertained in the manner in which the amount of forfeiture is ascertained in similar cases under section 92 of Act I of 1859.

INSTRUCTIONS TO MASTERS.

The Master of every foreign-going ship of which the crew has been engaged before a Shipping Master shall, before finally leaving India, sign and send to the nearest Shipping Master a full and accurate statement, in a form sanctioned by the Governor-General of India in Council, of every change which takes place in his crew before finally leaving India, and in default shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees; and such statement shall be admissible in evidence subject to all just exceptions.

In the case of substitutes engaged in the place of seamen who have duly signed the Agreement, and whose services are lost within twenty-four hours of the ship's putting to sea by death, desertion, or other unforeseen cause, the engagement shall, when practicable, be made before some Shipping Master duly appointed in the manner hereinbefore specified; and whenever such last-mentioned engagement cannot be so made, the Master shall, before the ship puts to sea if practicable, and if not, as soon afterwards as possible, cause the Agreement to be read over and explained to the seamen; and the seamen shall thereupon sign the same in the presence of a witness, who shall attest their signatures.

The Master of a British ship shall not leave a seaman behind at any place out of India (except where the seaman is discharged in accordance with the Merchant Shipping Act), unless he previously obtains, endorsed on the Agreement with the crew, the certificate of the proper authority stating the cause of the seaman being left behind, whether the cause be unfitness or inability to proceed to sea, desertion, or disappearance or otherwise; the presence or absence of this certificate largely determines the owner's liability for the expenses incurred should the seaman fall in distress.

Deductions for fines, forfeitures, etc., which are sought to be made from the wages of seamen, must be proved by proper entries in the Official Log Book.

Upon paying off or discharging any seaman the Master is required to enter in the Official Log Book a statement of conduct, character and qualification or a statement that he declines to give an opinion on such particulars.

Whenever a seaman or apprentice, on a voyage which is to terminate at any port in India, dies during such voyage, the Master shall take charge of all money, clothes, and effects which he leaves on board, and shall enter in the Official Log Book a statement of the amount of money and a description of the effects left by the deceased, and in case of a sale of such effects, the sum received for each article sold.

The Master shall, within forty-eight hours after his arrival at his port of destination in India, deliver any such effects as aforesaid, and pay any money which he has taken charge of or received, and also the wages due to deceased, to the Shipping Master at such port, and shall give to such Shipping Master an account of the effects, money and wages so to be delivered and paid, and no deductions claimed in such account shall be allowed unless verified, if there is an Official Log Book, by the entry therein hereinbefore required, and also by such other vouchers (if any) as may be reasonably required by the Shipping Master, to whom the account is rendered.

If the Master fails to take such charge of the money or other effects of a seaman or apprentice dying during a voyage, or to make such entries in respect thereof, or to make such payment or delivery, or to give such account as hereinbefore respectively directed, he shall be accountable for the money, wages and effects of the seaman or apprentice to the Shipping Master as aforesaid, and shall pay and deliver the same accordingly; and such Master shall in addition incur a penalty not exceeding treble the value of the money or effects, or if such value is not ascertained, not exceeding five hundred rupees. All money, wages and effects of any seaman or apprentice dying during a voyage shall be recoverable in the same Courts and by the same modes of proceeding by which seamen are hereby enabled to recover wages due to them.

LAWS REGULATING THE TRANSFER OF LASCARS FROM ONE SHIP TO ANOTHER.

Section 29 of Act V of 1883.

1. Whenever it is agreed that the service of any lascar or other native seaman shall end at any port not in British India, the agreement shall, in addition to the particulars specified in section twenty-seven, contain a stipulation that fit employment shall be provided for him on board some other ship bound to the port at which he was shipped or such other port in British India as may be agreed on, or that a passage shall be provided for him to some port in British India free of charge or on such other terms as may be agreed on.
2. Every such stipulation shall be signed by the Owner of the ship or by the Master on his behalf.
3. In this section the word "seaman" shall include also any native of British India carried to sea from any port in British India as one of the crew of a ship.

Section 125 of the English Merchant Shipping Act of 1894.

Agreements with lascars.

125. (1) The Master or Owner of any ship or his Agent may enter into an agreement with a lascar or any native of India, binding him to proceed either as a seaman or a passenger—

- (a) to any port in the United Kingdom, and there to enter into a further agreement to serve as a seaman in any ship which may happen to be to there, and to be bound to, any port in British India; or
- (b) to any port in the Australian Colonies, and there to enter into a further agreement to serve as a seaman in any ship which may happen to be there, and to be bound to the United Kingdom or to any other part of His Majesty's dominions.

(2) The original agreement shall be made in such form and contain such provisions, and be executed in such manner and contain such conditions for securing the return of the lascar or native to his own country and for other purposes, as the Governor-General of India in Council or the Governor in Council of any Indian Presidency in which the agreement is made may direct.

(3) Where any lascar or native bound by the original agreement is, on arriving in the United Kingdom or one of the said colonies, as the case may be, required to enter into such further agreement as aforesaid, some officer appointed for the purpose in the United Kingdom by a Secretary of State in Council of India, or in any such colony by the Governor of the colony, may, on the payment of such fee not exceeding ten shillings, as a Secretary of State in Council of India or the Governor may direct, certify—

- (a) that the further agreement is a proper agreement in all respects for the lascar or native to make, and is in accordance with the original agreement, and
- (b) that the ship to which the further agreement relates is in all respects a proper ship for the lascar or native to serve in and also where the ship is in one of the said Australian colonies, that it is properly supplied with provisions; and
- (c) that there is not, in his opinion, any objection to the full performance of the original agreement; and thereupon the lascar or native shall be deemed to be engaged under the further agreement and to be for all purposes one of the crew of the ship to which it relates, and the lascar or native shall, notwithstanding a refusal to enter into the further agreement, be liable to the same consequences, and be dealt with in all respects in the same manner, as if he had voluntarily entered into the same.

(4) The Master of every ship arriving at a port in the United Kingdom, which has or during any part of her voyage has had on board a lascar or any native of India either as one of her crew or otherwise shall exhibit to the officer of customs, or to such person as the Board of Trade may authorise in that behalf, a statement containing a list and description of all lascars or natives of India, who are, or have been, so on board, and an account of what has become of any lascar or native of India who at any time during the voyage has been, but is not then on board, and the ship shall not be cleared inwards, until the statement is exhibited, and if the master fails to exhibit such statement he and the owner of the ship shall be liable jointly and severally to a fine not exceeding ten pounds for every lascar or native of India in respect of whom the failure takes place.

(5) Notwithstanding this section shall affect any provisions which are unrepealed of the Act of the fourth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, chapter eighty, entitled "An Act to consolidate and amend the several laws now in force with respect to trade within the limits of the charter of the East India Company and to make further provision with respect to such trade."

J. H. KERR,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. 5458—5473-56, dated Simla, the 18th July 1912.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Department of Commerce and Industry.

WITH reference to the Resolution of the Government of India, No. 3284—3302-56, dated the 26th April 1912, the following papers showing that the immigration of British Indians into the Argentine Republic is not regarded with favour by the Republican authorities, are published for general information. Intending emigrants are again warned of the risk they incur in proceeding to that country.

Translation of a letter from the Director-General of Immigration, Buenos Aires, dated the 29th January 1912, to the Acting British Consul.

I have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your letter in which you ask me to allow 59 Hindoos, who came by the S.S. Savoia, to enter the Immigrants' Hotel, and to permit them to prepare their food in accordance with their religious rites.

In reply, I have to inform you that, in respect to such Asiatic immigration, the National Constitution in Article 35 (sic) provides that the State should encourage European immigration, and in conformity with this article, the Immigration Law was drawn up, which is at present in force, and which only grants facilities to immigration from Europe.

A short time ago Dr. de la Plaza, the Vice-President of the Nation, received a letter from the Punjab (India) asking what facilities were accorded to Hindoos who desired to come to the Republic. The Vice-President was good enough to send the letter on to me, and I answered it by quoting the above-mentioned article of the Constitution, which is very explicit as to the kind of immigration which the Republic should encourage. Dr. de la Plaza, whose legal attainments and thorough knowledge of the Constitution are known to everybody, approved the answer given to the enquirer, and this approval, in view of the high position which he occupies, reflects the opinion of the Government in this matter.

Dr. Lobos, at that time Minister of Agriculture, also gave his approval to the answer, which is doubtless also in accordance with the views of Dr. Mujica, the present Minister.

For these reasons this Directorate regrets that it is impossible to extend the benefits of the Immigration Law to the said Hindoos.

Letter from the Minister of Agriculture, dated the 1st February 1912, to the Minister for Foreign Affairs and Public Worship, Buenos Aires.

In reply to Your Excellency's request, I have the pleasure to inform you that the 59 Sikhs (natives of British India) who arrived on the 28th instant by the S.S. Savoia have been landed, and are at present, according to the report of the Directorate of Immigration, at San Martin, in the province of Buenos Aires.

Had it not been for this circumstance, the Ministry under my charge, desires of deferring to the request put forward by the British Minister, would have ordered the admission of those passengers to the Immigrants' Hotel, but nevertheless putting on record that such order did not constitute a precedent.

The observations contained in the note addressed to Your Excellency by the British Minister cannot, in the opinion of this Department, be accepted by the Argentine Government in view of the considerations which I will briefly place before Your Excellency.

Our Immigration Law is but the regulations based on the Article of the Constitution which charges the Federal Government with the duty of fostering European immigration. The provisions of the said law must, therefore, be interpreted in conjunction with the fundamental injunction upon which they were based, the more so when that injunction concerns questions of vital importance connected with the future of our national population.

The Immigrants' Hotel was established as one of the various measures for protecting and encouraging immigration, as not only is the immigrant lodged and fed therein during a stated period, but he is afforded all information which can be of use to him, work is endeavoured to be found for him, and even after he has left the establishment his questions are answered. It is evident therefore that that institution is intended for European immigration, the only kind which is to be fostered according to the constitutional injunction.

On the other hand, in the Immigration Law itself provisions exist, amongst others those of articles 4 and 18, which are in agreement with the reasons set forth above, as they refer exclusively to European places or ports as the only points, outside the American continent, which can provide the Republic with immigration susceptible of being fostered.

Further, the European immigrants, in order to enjoy the right of being admitted into the Immigrants' Hotel, must "give sufficient proof of good conduct and fitness for some industry, art, or useful work" (Article 14 of the quoted law).

It appears to me, Senor Ministro, to be unnecessary to expatiate at length on reasons tending to show the right of the Argentine Government to limit its protection and assistance to such immigration as, in their opinion, may serve the interests of the Republic. Such a right, from its very nature, is not open to discussion.

With regard to the provisions of Article II of the Treaty of Friendship, Commerce and Navigation between Great Britain and the United Provinces of the River Plate, it is evident that it is not relative to the case which gave rise to the present communication. At no moment has there been any idea on the part of this Ministry to impede the entry of the natives of British India into our territory who arrived by the S.S. Savio.

Solely for the above reasons have I thought fit not to authorise their stay at the Immigrants' Hotel, which, as I have said before, is intended for that immigration which is encouraged by the Argentine Government.

Ordered that a copy of the above Resolution be forwarded to all Local Governments and Administrations, for information and such action as may be considered necessary, and to the Home and Foreign Departments, for information.

Ordered also that a copy be published in the Gazette of India for general information.

No. 4012.—The 26th July 1912.—In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of section 4 of the Indian Factories Act, 1911 (XII of 1911), the Governor in Council is pleased to appoint Mr. D. B. Maen to be an Inspector of Factories within the limits of the Presidency of Bengal.

J. H. KERR,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 3071A.D.—The 20th August 1912.—The rules for admission into the Executive Branch of the Provincial Civil Service and into the Subordinate Civil Service in Bengal and Eastern Bengal and Assam were last revised in 1909 and were published under notifications dated the 10th June 1909. It was stated in the preamble to the notification of the Government of Bengal that the arrangements then made were sanctioned temporarily with the object of increasing the opportunities for providing qualified probationers in both services with appointments in the regular grades and of accelerating the promotion of qualified officers from the lower to the higher service. The latter object has, to a great extent, been attained; but as regards the former the result has not been all that could be desired. The difficulty of providing qualified probationers with appointments within a suitable limit of time was also apprehended by the Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam, and its annual recruitment was on this account reduced on the last occasion. The position is not altered materially by the territorial changes and the consequent redistribution of officers, as it is found that in both services in Bengal, some of the probationers appointed in 1910 are still waiting for appointments. Accordingly, the question of revising the rate of recruitment of both services has been under the consideration of Government for some time, but, for various reasons it has not been possible yet to come to a final conclusion as to the normal rate of decrement for which provision should be made. Meanwhile, as the time for the annual recruitment is drawing nigh, the Governor in Council has decided to make twelve appointments of Probationary Deputy Collectors and ten appointments of Probationary Sub-Deputy Collectors during the current year in view of the circumstances just referred to and of the fact that the strength of the Provincial Civil Service in Bengal has been reduced in consequence of the reconstitution of the Province from 354 to 299 and that of the Subordinate Civil Service from 182 to 175.

2. In revising the rules, those which were in force in Eastern Bengal and Assam have been fully considered. The rules regulating confirmation and promotion are still under consideration. The following Provisional revised rules for the recruitment of the Provincial and the Subordinate Civil Services are now published for general information:—

Provisional revised rules for the recruitment of the Executive Branch of the Provincial Civil Service.

Definition.—The Executive Branch of the Provincial Civil Service includes Deputy Collectors and Deputy Magistrates.

Rule 1.—The Governor in Council will determine from time to time what proportion of appointments to the Executive Branch of the Provincial Civil Service shall be made (1) by promotion of selected officers who are already in the Government service and (2) by selection.

Rule 2.—It is estimated that twelve appointments in all will be made annually. They will be made in accordance with the following rules.

Rule 3.—Three of these appointments will be made by the promotion of officers who are already in the Subordinate Civil Service. By the 1st October each year the Financial Secretary should forward to the Appointment Department one nomination, the Revenue Secretary two nominations, and the Board of Revenue two nominations. The nominations of the two former should be made after consulting the Heads of subordinate departments and those of the Board of Revenue after consultation with Commissioners of Divisions.

The age of an officer nominated under this rule should not exceed 40 years.

Rule 4.—The Governor in Council will retain three appointments in his own hands. Applicants for appointments under this rule should always state in their applications whether they will accept an appointment in the Subordinate Civil Service in case it is not possible to provide them with an appointment in the Provincial Civil Service.

Rule 5.—Six nominations shall be made on the 1st of October by the following officers:—

By the Commissioners of the Presidency, Bardwan and Dacca Divisions every year and the Commissioners of Rajshahi and Chittagong in alternate years beginning with Rajshahi	4
By the Syndicate of the Calcutta University	2
			Total	6

Rule 6.—The Government of India or the Local Government may, in very special cases, make direct appointments to offices in the higher grades of the Provincial Civil Service.

Rule 7.—The four appointments to be made on the nomination of Commissioners will be filled in accordance with the conditions laid down in rules 8, 9, 10 and 11.

Rule 8 (a).—The indispensable qualifications for a candidate for appointment by recruitment are (1) that he is a natural-born subject of His Majesty or of a Native State; (2) that he is not under 20 or over 25 years of age; (3) that he is of good character; (4) that he is a graduate; and (5) that he is of sound health, good physique and active habits, and free from organic defect or bodily infirmity.

Rule 8 (b).—In the case of candidates who are not natives of the Presidency, recent residence of at least three years in it should, as a general rule, be an essential condition of selection. No Barrister, Advocate or Pleader should be appointed as such unless he has been at least three years actually practising his profession in India and can speak the vernacular of the Presidency.

Rule 9.—Europeans who do not satisfy the definition of Native of India, contained in section 6, Statute 33 Victoria, Chapter 3, are not eligible for appointment to the Provincial Service without the previous sanction in each case of the Government of India. With such sanction they may be appointed, if they satisfy the conditions laid down in rule 8, (a) and (b).

Rule 10.—All candidates for appointment by recruitment must furnish satisfactory evidence that they possess a thorough knowledge of Bengali. Candidates who have not already passed some recognized examination in the subject will be required to pass a special examination before admission. The object of the examination will be to test the candidate's general knowledge of the language and his ability to write and read the written character with facility.

Rule 11(a).—Every district officer* will submit to the Commissioner, who is to nominate under rule 5, on or before a date to be fixed by the latter, the names of two or three candidates (as the Commissioner may direct), belonging to families resident or domiciled in his district, for the Provincial Civil Service. In submitting these names he will give, in Form I appended to these rules, a brief statement of the grounds of his recommendation in each case. The nominees under this rule must be non-official, but this does not exclude the nomination of Honorary Magistrates.

(b) Form I must be accompanied by a certificate of the Registrar of the University that the candidate has obtained a degree, a certificate of character and conduct from the Principal of the institution at which the candidate last studied for not less than one year, or from some responsible officer of Government, a medical certificate in Form II appended to these rules, and evidence of the candidate's age.

(c) The Commissioner and the district officers of the division will meet on a date to be fixed by the Commissioner, and will consider the claims of all the candidates nominated. They will also call the candidates before them, and see and converse with them so as to form an opinion regarding their suitability for the public service. The Commissioner will then select two names and submit them in order of preference to Government, stating his reasons for giving preference to the one first entered. With his report submitting these names the Commissioner will submit Form I for all candidates, entering in each case, in the last column of that form, his own opinion as to the suitability of the candidate.

(d) Every candidate nominated by a Commissioner must be domiciled in his division, or, if the nominee himself be resident outside the division for the purpose of education, his family must be resident or permanently domiciled in the division. In making nominations special attention should be paid to the desirability of securing a fair share of appointments to each important section of the community, to social qualifications and family status and influence, to services rendered by the candidate's father, and to distinctions obtained in the University.

Rule 12.—The Syndicate of the University will be invited annually to nominate four graduates of high character and of great academical distinction. The nominations will be made, subject to the restriction* laid down in condition V under paragraph 3 of the resolution of the Government of India, Nos. 1046—1058, dated the 19th August 1910, in accordance with the conditions laid down in rules 8, 9 and 10.

* V.—Admission to the Provincial Civil Service should usually be confined to persons who are natives of the province or have definitely settled in it; in the case of candidates who are not natives of the province recent residence of at least three years in the province should, as a general rule, be an essential condition of admission.

From amongst these or from amongst graduates previously nominated by the Syndicate and who have not passed the age of 25 years, the Governor in Council will, after enquiry, select two persons to be Probationary Deputy Magistrates.

Rule 13.—Every Probationary Deputy Collector, appointed by recruitment, must furnish, either before appointment or within a specified time after appointment, a certificate of his ability to ride, signed by a district officer or by the Joint-Magistrate in charge, or by the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Police, Calcutta.

Rule 14.—The minimum term of probation will be one year. On termination of that period appointments will be given to approved probationers as vacancies in the cadre occur. Provided that, in special cases, the local Government may declare the period of probation or training prescribed for persons appointed to the Provincial Civil Service by direct recruitment to be unnecessary. Probationers will receive a subsistence allowance of Rs. 100 per mensem. Probationers already drawing more than Rs. 100 per mensem in Government service will, however, receive an allowance equal to the salary of their former appointment or to the pay of a Deputy Collector of the lowest grade, whichever is less.

C. J. STEVENSON-MOORE,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 3388 A.D.—The 14th September 1912.—The following revised rules for the conduct of the departmental examinations, held under the direction and control of the Central Examination Committee, having been sanctioned by the Governor of Bengal in Council, are hereby published for general information.

SECTION I.—GENERAL.

1. These rules shall apply to the departmental examinations of the junior members of the Indian Civil Service, the Executive Branch of the Provincial Civil Service, Subordinate Civil Service, Police and other departments of the Public Service, to whom they may from time to time be made applicable.

2. All Assistant Magistrates, Deputy Magistrates and Collectors, Sub-Deputy Collectors, Assistant Superintendents of Police, and others (to whom these rules may be applicable), who may have been more than six months on duty, shall, and those who have been less than six months on duty, may, at their option, be subjected to half-yearly departmental examinations, and shall be required to pass according to the standard, or the standards, of examination which may be applicable to them respectively in each subject, according to the rules hereinafter set forth.

3. To direct and control these (half-yearly) departmental examinations, there shall be a Central Examination Committee appointed by Government. It shall consist of a President and of as many members (of whom one shall be Secretary) as the Government may think proper to appoint from time to time.

4. The examination for all candidates will be held at a single centre in Calcutta.

5. Each Divisional Commissioner shall report to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal the names of intending examinees. Heads of Departments will, in the same way, notify to the Chief Secretary the names of intending examinees in their respective departments.

6. The Government, after collecting all the lists, will prepare a complete list of all officers liable to appear at the examination, and forward a general list to the Secretary to the Central Examination Committee, at least three weeks before the examination.

7. The Examination Committee shall be constituted as follows:—

President	...	The Commissioner of the Presidency Division.
Members	...	The Collector of the 24-Parganas. An Indian officer to be selected by the Commissioner.

In the event of any officer being unavoidably prevented from attending, the Commissioner may appoint another civil officer to take his own place or that of the absent member.

8. The Government will, in communication with the Central Committee, fix the dates for the half-yearly examination, which shall be the same for every district. The first half-yearly examination will usually be held in the month of April or May, and the second in the month of October or November.

9. It shall be the duty of the Central Committee to prepare, previous to each half-yearly examination, sets of questions to be put to the examinees, to forward a sufficient number of copies of each of such sets to the President of the Examination Committee, in a sealed packet, to determine the order in which the examination in each paper and subject shall be held, and to arrange all other details for the conduct of the examinations. The time fixed for each paper shall be notified in the Calcutta Gazette. The Central Committee shall, from time to time, lay down such rules as may appear to them best for the guidance of the Examination Committee, in order to ensure a fair and uniform method of ascertaining the proficiency of the examinee in each subject.

10. The sealed packet of papers shall remain in the custody of the President of the Examination Committee, who shall not open it until the time of examination. The Committee shall superintend the written examination of the examinees only so far as may be necessary to ensure its being conducted with proper strictness; they shall not examine the written answers, but shall forward them to the Central Committee. Their decision in the viva voce Examination in the Vernacular shall be final.

Assistant Magistrates, Deputy Magistrates and Sub-Deputy Magistrates, undergoing a course of training, and Probationary Deputy and Sub-Deputy Magistrates, who are allowed under Appendix IXB, rule 1, to appear at any Departmental Examination, are, under the rules given in Part A of that Appendix, required to prepare a full, complete and careful record of six cases tried by a first class Magistrate, and six defended* cases tried by a Sessions Judge, to be selected for the purpose by the District Magistrate. It is required that the record of each case should be prepared during or after attendance in Court, as the trial proceeds. The District Magistrate will forward these records to the Legal Remembrancer, who will send a statement of his opinion thereon to the Central Examination Committee for consideration and submission to Government, with the result of each half-yearly Departmental Examination. If, in the opinion of the Legal Remembrancer, an officer has once prepared the records satisfactorily, he will not be required to do so again, even although he may not be adjudged to have passed in Law; but if he fails at any examination to prepare a satisfactory record, he will be adjudged to have failed in Law, although he may have gained pass marks in the papers on the Codes and the Acts. Any one, who, for good reason, has been unable to prepare the record as required by this rule, may, with the previous sanction of Government, present himself for examination, but cannot be adjudged to have passed in Law until he has submitted records to the Legal Remembrancer's satisfaction.

11. The Central Committee, after perusing the examination paper and the opinion of the Legal Remembrancer, shall report to Government the names of such officers as, in their opinion, have passed, noticing specially, in the order of their merit those who may have passed with distinction. They shall also report the names of those officers who have succeeded in some of the subjects only, and also of those who have not, in the opinion of the Legal Remembrancer, prepared the record of cases satisfactorily, or who have been allowed to appear at the examination, but have still to submit the record before they can be adjudged to have passed.

SECTION II.—OFFICERS OF THE INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE, THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH OF THE PROVINCIAL CIVIL SERVICE, AND SUBORDINATE CIVIL SERVICE.

12. The standards of examination shall be as follows:—

Law	... Lower and Higher Standards.
Bengali	... Lower and Higher Standards.
Accounts	... Higher Standard.
Hindustani	... Higher Standard by the colloquial test.

13. In Appendix V will be found the rules prescribing the text-books and the tests in the vernacular for the examination.

14. The examination in Law is divided in the following three parts:—

I.—Criminal law and the Law of Evidence, without books, for the Lower and Higher Standards.

II.—Revenue Law, without books, for the Lower and Higher Standards.

III.—General Law, with books, for the Higher Standard.

The papers in parts I and II will be the same for both Standards. Candidates for the Lower Standard must pass in Parts I and II; candidates for the Higher Standard must pass in all three parts. The Law and Regulations in which these papers will be set are enumerated in Appendices I and II.

15. Only unannotated editions of Acts or Codes will be allowed in answering paper in Part III. The questions should be confined as much as possible to cases commonly arising in the ordinary routine of the office of a Magistrate and Collector. Certain facts of probable occurrence in real practice should be stated, and the examinee required to find and apply the law applicable to the facts.

* This phrase "Defended cases tried by a Sessions Judge" should be read as including appellate cases, but three at least of the cases to be reported on should be regular sessions trials.

16. The examination in Accounts will be by the Higher Standard only. The text-books will be those detailed in Appendix III. The examination will be with the aid of those books. The questions will be set by the Accountant-General, in communication with the Central Examination Committee. They will be such as to test the practical acquaintance of the candidates with the principles and provisions of the Civil Account Code and the rules prescribed. An examinee will not be held to have passed the examination in Accounts, until the Collector of the district, to which he is attached, shall have furnished a certificate that the examinee was placed in charge of a district treasury under the general supervision of the Deputy Collector ordinarily in charge, for a period of not less than six weeks, and that he has continuously and duly attended to and satisfactorily discharged the duties of a Treasury Officer for such period.

17. An officer of the Indian Civil Service must pass in all examinations by the Higher Standard. He will be required to pass separately by the Lower and Higher Standards in Bengali, but he is permitted to present himself for examination in that vernacular by both standards at the same time. If he passes in either of the papers, he will be held to qualify for the Lower Standard, but passing marks must be obtained in both sets of papers to qualify for the Higher Standard. All other officers will be required to pass the examinations by both standards except in Accounts.

18. An officer, who succeeds in passing by either standard in any subject shall not again be required to present himself for examination by the same standard in the subject in which he was successful, but only in those in which he failed. For the purposes of this rule, the three parts of the examination in Law shall be considered as separate subjects.

19. The marks to be assigned to each branch of the examination in Law and examination in Accounts, the proportion required for passing by the different standards, and the time allowed for each paper, are set forth in Appendix IV. The same information as regards the examination in Languages will be found in Appendix V.

20. An officer who has passed according to the Lower Standard of examination, and who has exercised the powers of a Magistrate of the third class for six months, shall usually be vested with the powers of a Magistrate of the second class, described in sections 32, 33, 35 and 36 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Act V of 1898), provided he is certified by the Commissioner to be fully competent to exercise them. Assistant Magistrates will also then be vested with the powers of a Deputy Collector.

21. An officer, however, who shall have passed by the Lower Standard in Law, Part I, and in Bengali, may, on the Commissioner's recommendation, be vested with the powers of a Magistrate of the second class, provided he has had not less than six months' experience in his magisterial duties.

22. An officer, who has passed according to the Higher Standard, shall be eligible to be vested with the powers of a Magistrate of the first class, but not until he shall have exercised the powers of a Magistrate of the second class for at least six months. He shall not be entitled to any promotion or increase of pay until he has passed fully by the Higher Standard.

23. An officer, who has passed in Law, Parts I, II, and III, and in Bengali, according to the Higher Standard, may be vested with the powers of a Magistrate of the first class, subject to the condition of his having exercised the powers of a Magistrate of the second class for six months; but he shall not be entitled to any promotion or increase of pay until he has passed fully by the Higher Standard.

24. Assistant Magistrates, being members of the Indian Civil Service on first appointment, draw Rs. 400 a month. On passing the Lower Standard of examination and being invested with powers of a Magistrate of the second class, they shall be allowed an increase of Rs. 50 a month, provided they have exercised the powers of a Magistrate of the third class for six months at least; and on passing fully the Higher Standard, and being invested with the powers of a Magistrate of the first class, they will receive a second increase of Rs. 50, provided they have also exercised the powers of a Magistrate of the second class for not less than six months. No officer shall be eligible for promotion as officiating Joint Magistrate and Deputy Collector until he has passed completely by the Higher Standard. The penalty for delay in passing will ordinarily cease to operate when the officer passes. On passing, he will be placed in the same position with regard to future promotion as if he had passed in the ordinary course.

25. It is the duty of District officers to look to the practical training of the young officers placed under them, from their first entering into official life till they acquire a practical experience of their work and qualify themselves for the exercise of higher powers, by passing the prescribed examinations. District officers are expected to take active interest in the well-being of the young men placed under them, by exercising due supervision over their studies, by holding periodical examinations to test their qualifications and official knowledge, and by any other means which may seem to them to be expedient for the purpose.

SECTION III.—POLICE OFFICERS.

26. The standards of examination shall be as follows:—

Law—Lower and Higher Standards.

Bengali—Lower and Higher Standards.

Accounts—Higher Standard.

Hindustani—Higher Standard by the colloquial test.

The examination in the Languages will be the same for Police officers as for the officers to whom the rules in section II apply.

For the Lower Standard in Law there will be only one paper without books. For the Higher Standard in Law there will be the same paper without books, and a second paper with books. These papers will be set from the Acts or portions of Acts, etc., shown in Appendix X.

Only unannotated editions of Codes and Acts and the Police Manual will be allowed in answering the Higher Standard paper with books.

Probationary Assistant Superintendents of Police will be required to appear for the Lower Standard at the first half-yearly examination held after their arrival at the school, but they will not be allowed to pass in Bengali at that examination. At subsequent examinations, they will be permitted to present themselves for examination by both standards at the same time.

The marks to be assigned to the examination in Law and Accounts, the proportion required for passing by the different standards and the time allowed for each paper are set forth in Appendix IV. The same information as regards the examination in Languages will be found in Appendix V.

The text-books in Accounts will be those detailed in Appendix XI, and the examination will be with the aid of books as indicated in that Appendix. The questions will be set by the Inspector-General of Police in communication with the Central Examination Committee. They will be such as to test the practical acquaintance of the candidates with the principles and provisions of the Civil Account Code and the other books prescribed.

Deputy Superintendents of Police appointed direct will be liable to pass the same departmental examination and be subject to the same rules as Assistant Superintendents of Police.

This rule will also apply to the case of Deputy Superintendents recruited from other branches of Government service, who have not passed completely the examinations prescribed for civil officers. Officers, whose mother tongue is Bengali or Hindi will not be required to pass in those languages.

Officiating Deputy Superintendents of Police will be liable to pass in Accounts under the penalty of reverting, and they will be required to present themselves for examination in Accounts after six months' acting in that rank.

27. Police officers transferred to the Executive Service, or who desire such transfer, will be required to satisfy the same tests as those prescribed above for officers of the Executive Branch of the Provincial Civil Service, subject to the exception noted below.

28. When such an officer has already passed in Accounts or by either standard in a language, he will not be required to pass again.

29. Any officer, so transferred, who has passed in Law by the Lower Standard (as hitherto required for the Police), will be required to pass for the Lower Standard in Law Part I.

30. Such officers who have passed by the Higher Police Standard in Law will still be required to pass in all law papers prescribed in paragraph 14 above, the term "law" including Revenue and General law.

31. The Commandant of the Dacca Military Police Battalion, who, within two years of his first appointment as Commandant, passes an examination in Bengali by the Higher Standard of the Departmental Examination, will be given a reward of Rs. 500 with this proviso that an officer, who has previously received a reward in Bengali under the provisions of article 376 of the Army Regulations, India, Volume I, shall not be eligible for such a reward for passing in that language.

SECTION IV.—OFFICERS OF OTHER DEPARTMENTS TO WHOM THESE RULES HAVE BEEN MADE APPLICABLE.

32. The rules regulating the departmental examination of Cantonment Magistrates are contained in Appendix VII.

33. Officers of the Public Works Department will be examined in Law as directed in Government Resolution No. 44 T.—E., dated the 31st May 1894, vide Appendix VIII. They will also be examined in the vernacular under Appendix V, rule 9, grade II, Lower Standard (obligatory), and grade I, Higher Standard (optional).

34. For the examination of Public Works Department officers in cases, a case not being of special difficulty should be selected by the President of the Examination Committee. In selecting a case it should be remembered that officers will only exercise magisterial powers under Bengal Act III of 1876 (Bengal Irrigation Act). The Examination Committee will merely state their opinion of the merits of each candidate's judgment and not transmit this part of the proceedings. The case selected shall be in the Court vernacular of the place in which the candidate is employed.

35. Sub-Registrars should be allowed to appear at the Lower Standard of the departmental examination, and be vested with second class powers if they succeed in passing it, have previously exercised third-class powers and are otherwise fit for the exercise of such powers. They may be employed as Honorary Magistrates sitting singly with second or third class powers according as they have passed the examination or not.

SECTION V.—MISCELLANEOUS.

36. Officers attending these examinations will be allowed travelling allowance, subject to the rules laid down in Section IV, Chapter LIV, of the Civil Service Regulations.

37. No application from any junior officer liable to examination, for privilege leave or leave on private affairs will ordinarily be entertained if the following half-yearly examination takes place before the expiry of the leave applied for, unless the application specifies that the applicant will attend the examination.

38. If such leave is applied for, and the application from such an officer is submitted to Government, it should be stated that he is liable to pass an examination, and that the next examination will be held within the period of the leave applied for. This will enable the Governor in Council to decide whether, for the reasons stated, the leave should be granted; and, if so, on what conditions.

The paper should contain passages both from the prescribed text-books and from an unseen official document.

C.—A written translation from English into the vernacular—

The text-books may furnish topics for conversation.
- (ii) The examinee will be called upon to read with fair fluency and explain in English to the Examiners, three papers written by different persons in a plain running hand.

NOTE.—It is not necessary that each candidate should translate the same piece, just as it is not necessary that the viva voce examination of each should involve the same conversation.

(3) Officers other than those named in clause (1) above, who are examined under these rules, will not be examined in the prescribed text-books, but they will be required to satisfy all these four tests, and separate papers from unseen official documents will be set for them.

(5) For this examination the tests shall be the same as the above, but the papers shall be less difficult. The proportion of marks to be obtained in order to pass, and the time allowed for the papers, shall be the same as for the Higher standard above described. The principal object of this examination shall be to test the proficiency, for practical purposes, of the examinee in such language.

10. No Indian officer (these rules notwithstanding) shall be liable to examination in a language which is his own vernacular. The Commissioner or Heads of Departments submitting the lists of intending examinees under Rule 5 of the Rules, will consider each case, and, on satisfying themselves, may exempt the candidate from examination in such language, reporting their reasons for doing so to Government.

It should be understood that value will be given to notes intelligently based on annotated editions of the Criminal Procedure Code, Penal Code, Evidence Act, on Woodman's Digest, and recognised text-books.

2. The District Magistrate will forward these records to the Legal Remembrancer, who will, at any time before the date fixed for the departmental examination, send a statement of his opinion thereon to the Central Examination Committee for consideration and submission to Government with the result of each half-yearly examination.

3. If, in the opinion of the Legal Remembrancer, an officer has once prepared the record satisfactorily, he will not be required to do so again, even although he may not be adjudged to have passed in Law.

4. Assistant Magistrates also should receive a thorough training in the Tauzi Department and Collectorate record-room under the special supervision of the Collector.

B.—Rules for the Training for Probationers.

The following rules are intended to apply to Probationers of the Provincial Executive Service and of the Subordinate Civil Service :—

1. The minimum period of probation will be twelve months. Probationers shall, during their probationary service, be trained so as to get as much experience as possible in Magisterial and Revenue Courts, with a view to acquire a knowledge of official routine. During this period they should study the Codes and the Acts to enable them to go up for their departmental examinations as soon as they are allowed. For Probationers who are appointed in the ordinary way in the autumn, this will be in October or November of the succeeding year. But officers who are appointed at other times will not be allowed to go up until twelve months have elapsed from the date of their appointment.

2. The training should be arranged with reference to the work in the office to which the officer is attached. He will be trained in the Magisterial Department for three months, and in the Revenue Department, including (1) Tauzi and Government estates, (2) Land Registration, (3) English office, (4) Munshikhana Registers, (5) Certificates, (6) Record-room, (7) Cess and Revaluation, (8) Nizarat, (9) Excise and Income-tax, (10) Treasury,* for nine months.

The amount of time spent in each Revenue Department will depend on the amount of work in that department of the particular office to which the Probationer is posted.

3. Probationers should not take up Partition, Survey and Settlement, or Land Acquisition work. These departments form the subject of special training.

4. The Collector should have a register prepared showing, with reference to the work in his office, the amount of time a Probationer will spend in the different departments.

Training in Magisterial Work.

5. Probationers should, during the period of their training in the Magisterial Department, attend the Court of a first class Magistrate, selected by the District Magistrate, during the trial of criminal cases. They should be required to prepare a full, complete and careful record of the depositions of the witnesses, and a concise summary of the evidence given. They should also be required to take notes of the arguments of the pleaders, and discuss the application of the law to the facts of the cases reported by them, and to write a decision. This should be done in at least six defended cases.

* N.B.—Probationary Deputy and Sub-Deputy Collectors, while undergoing their training in Treasury work under this rule, may be placed in subordinate charge of Treasuries as heretofore under rule 16 of the Departmental Examination Rules.

5. (1) The rules in Part A will also be applicable to the cases of Probationers after the first twelve months of their probation, if they intend to appear for the departmental examination in Law by the Lower Standard before they are appointed substantively pro tempore.

6. The records of the cases prepared under rule 5 should be submitted by the Probationer to the trying Magistrate, who should examine them with a view to see that they are being intelligently prepared. He should point out any obvious mistakes. The records should also be occasionally examined by the District Magistrate or the Joint Magistrate.

7. Probationers should be deputed to examine the various registers kept in the Criminal Courts, and to submit inspection reports according to the Inspection Manual. They should also inspect the Record-room and other departments of the Magistrate's office according to the Manual. The Inspection Note should be submitted through the Deputy Magistrate in charge to the Magistrate.

Probationers might also be deputed for miscellaneous inquiries in regard to criminal cases when the inspection of a locality or other matter is important, and they might be examined in Court as to their reports. They might also conduct inquiries in chaukidari or other simple matters.

Training in Revenue Work.

8. Probationers should not be required to work as clerks, or to write up registers; they should, however, prepare notes or précis of cases and draft letters. They should see all the papers which go up to the Deputy Collector, and the Deputy Collector should utilize their services in any way that he can in connection with the cases. The Deputy Collector should, at the same time, see that the Probationer makes himself acquainted with the law and rules on the subject, and should from time to time require him to prepare a note explaining the procedure or the reason for any action taken in a particular case. In departments the work of which involves the keeping of accounts or registers, Probationers should check and initial entries made in registers, check the accounts, and examine the preparation of returns. They should also inspect each department according to the Inspection Manual, and the Collector might utilize their notes of inspection for his own inspection. They should also attend inspections by the senior officers.

9. At the end of the probationary period in any department, or under any Deputy Collector, the Deputy Collector should record a note in the register referred to in rule 4, stating how the Probationer has attended to his duties and a general opinion of his industry and ability. This should be shown to the Collector.

10. Probationers should keep a diary, and record briefly the work done by them day by day. The diary should be submitted to the Deputy Collector under whom they are working for the time, and should be seen by the Collector.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

POLICE.

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 4978 P.—The 24th September 1912.—The following revised rules for the recruitment of Sub-Inspectors of Police, which have been provisionally sanctioned by Government in supersession of all previous rules on the subject, are published for general information :—

RULES FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF SUB-INSPECTORS OF POLICE, BENGAL.

A.—BY DIRECT APPOINTMENT.

1. Every Superintendent of Police will maintain a list of candidates for direct recruitment as Sub-Inspectors.
2. The list will comprise the names of all candidates recommended by—
 - (1) The Divisional Commissioner.
 - (2) The District Magistrate.
 - (3) The District Judge.
 - (4) The Inspector-General of Police.
 - (5) The Deputy Inspector-General of Police.
 - (6) The Superintendent of Police.
 - (7) The Director of Public Instruction.
 - (8) Inspectors of Schools.
 - (9) Principals of Government Colleges.

3. These officers may recommend only persons resident or domiciled within their respective jurisdictions. The province will be considered as the jurisdiction of the Deputy Inspector-General in charge of the Criminal Investigation Department, and Railway and River Police. Principals of colleges may recommend only past or present students of their colleges.

Persons who have not passed the Matriculation Examination may be recommended, provided they have a fair working knowledge of English and are otherwise specially qualified (vide rule 20).

4. Such recommendations may be made at any time. They should be submitted in the form of the nomination roll (form of application) appended to these rules.

On receipt of the roll, if it is in order, the Superintendent will file it and enter the name of the nominee in the list.

5. In August each year, the Inspector-General of Police will intimate to each Range Deputy Inspector-General of Police and Superintendent of Police the number of nominations required from each district, and any limitation to be observed in the number to be selected from any particular section of the population.

6. The Range Deputy Inspector-General will thereupon instruct each Superintendent of Police to publish freely in his district a notice inviting applications for the post of Sub-Inspector of Police. The notice should be sent to local associations, heads of schools, colleges, etc., and should also state that applications will be received by the Superintendent of Police up to the end of August, that printed application forms can be obtained from the office of the Superintendent of Police, free of cost, that candidates must possess the qualifications specified in rule 20; and that after filling in the application form, he must appear with it and his certificates, if any, before the Superintendent of Police, by whom he will be measured. The Superintendent of Police will then issue a verification roll and it shall be verified by an officer of rank not below that of Inspector. The Superintendent of Police will, if satisfied with the result of the verification and the candidate's physical and educational qualifications, send the candidate to the District Magistrate, and with his approval enter his name in the list of candidates as eligible.

7. The Range Deputy Inspector-General will communicate a similar notice to any reputable local newspaper, and freely seek the help and interest of heads of schools and colleges in securing candidates of a good class.

8. A list of candidates will be kept by the Superintendent of Police and the names of all candidates will be entered in it. Against those who are not passed as eligible, the word "Rejected" will be clearly written, and they will be debarred from presenting themselves again for selection and should be informed accordingly.

9. Those candidates who are considered eligible will be warned that they will have to appear before the Nomination Committee, consisting of the District Magistrate and Superintendent of Police, on a date in October or November to be subsequently fixed and communicated to them.

10. Selection in districts will be made by the Superintendent of Police and District Magistrate, who will call up the eligible candidates and will select the number for whom nominations have been called for under rule 5.

The District Committee will ordinarily nominate only candidates domiciled in its own district. Hindus and Muhammadans shall be selected, if eligible candidates are available, in the proportion which each class bears to the total population of the district. The Superintendent shall require selected candidates to produce health certificates in the form attached from the Civil Surgeon on payment of a fee of Rs. 4, and shall then submit to the Range Deputy Inspector-General a list of candidates selected, in order of selection, stating against each their qualifications and grounds of selection, and with this list, which should bear the District Magistrate's counter-signature, he will also send—

- (i) The list of candidates.
- (ii) The applications of candidates with their certificates and testimonials and recommendations in original.
- (iii) The verification rolls of candidates.
- (iv) The health certificates of candidates.

11. On receipt of the list of nominees, the Range Deputy Inspector-General shall examine the papers and see that the rules have been observed. He will then, after interviewing the candidates of his range at convenient centres, on dates which should be duly notified, nominate such candidates as he may think fit for admission into the Training School. He may also nominate candidates other than those chosen by the District Magistrates and Superintendents. If the number of candidates in any district falls short of requirements, he may make good the deficiency by selection among candidates of other districts.

12. The Range Deputy Inspector-General will then prepare a list of candidates nominated by him and forward it to the Inspector-General of Police not later than the 15th November each year, together with all the papers received by him from the District Magistrates and Superintendents of Police and also the application forms of candidates chosen by him other than those chosen by the District Magistrates and Superintendents.

13. The nomination of candidates to fill vacancies in the Railway and River Police will be made by the Superintendents of Railway and River Police, respectively, in consultation with the Magistrates of the districts to which the candidates belong, and the nomination rolls submitted by them to the Deputy Inspector-General in charge of the C. I. D., Railway and River Police. Except that the candidates may be residents of any districts in the province, the remaining rules will apply mutis mutandis to the appointments of Sub-Inspectors of the Railway and River Police.

14. The final selection will be made by the Inspector-General of Police, who may accept the nominations made by the Deputy Inspector-General of Police or may call for fresh nominations or may select candidates other than those nominated by the Deputy Inspectors-General, District Magistrates and Superintendents of Police.

15. The candidates selected will undergo a course of instruction at the Police Training School.

A detailed list of such candidates will be sent to the Principal, Police Training School, together with their nomination and verification rolls and health certificates. These rolls will form part of the cadet's appointment papers, and will be sent to the Superintendents of Police of the districts to which the cadets are subsequently posted. The health certificates will be attached to the first pay bill.

16. Each selected candidate must be revaccinated before joining the Police Training School and must produce before the Principal a certificate from a Civil Surgeon showing the date on which this has been done.

(NOTE.—The Civil Surgeon should give the certificate of revaccination after the operation has been performed without fee.)

17. During the period of instruction they will be subject to the rules and regulations of the school and will receive Rs. 25 a month as salary. On being passed out of the Training School they will receive the full salary of the grade to which they are appointed.

18. The name of no candidate shall remain on the Superintendent's list for more than two years, unless the District Magistrate and Superintendent, when making their annual selection, consider that any particular candidate may be allowed to compete for a third year.

19. At their annual selection, the District Magistrate and the Superintendent should strike off the name of any candidate whose chance of success is hopeless, and such candidates shall not be again nominated.

20. The qualifications which a candidate for direct appointment must possess are the following:—

(a) He must be of good social standing and respectable parentage, and must ordinarily be a native of the division.

(b) He must be of good moral character.

(c) He must be over 21 and under 25 years of age on the 1st September.

(d) He must have passed the Entrance or Matriculation Examination of an Indian University or the Final B or C class examination of a zilla or high school. He must have a fluent knowledge of English.

(NOTE.—Preference will be given to graduates and under-graduates. A limited number of applicants who have obtained the B. L. degree will be appointed to a higher grade, and if they subsequently give proof of special aptitude for conducting prosecutions, may look for special promotion to the rank of Court Inspector. Of the candidates selected 5 per cent. will ordinarily be appointed in higher grades for special reasons, such as exceptional education or social status or for standing first in the final examination.)

(e) He must be free from disease, constitutional affection or bodily infirmity unfitting him or likely to unfit him for Police duties.

(NOTE.—Stuttering or stammering is a defect which renders an applicant ineligible.)

(f) He must be not less than 5 feet 3 inches in height and 30 inches round the chest, and must have been vaccinated.

B.—BY PROMOTION OF HEAD-CONSTABLES.

21. Not more than 15 per cent. of the appointments of Sub-Inspectors made each year, exclusive of those of the Armed Reserve, may be filled by promotion from the rank of head-constables. The officers selected for promotion will ordinarily go through the prescribed course at the Training School along with the cadets who have been appointed direct, and will, during the period of training, receive Rs. 25 a month as salary. The appointment of Sub-Inspectors of the Armed Reserve will ordinarily be made by promotion from amongst head-constables.

22. On the 1st January each Superintendent will submit to the Deputy Inspector-General of the Range, the names of not more than two head-constables serving in his district, whom he recommends for promotion to the rank of Sub-Inspector.

23. The Deputy Inspector-General of Police, when inspecting districts, will interview the head-constables thus recommended for promotion and will examine their Service Sheets and the District Orders concerning each.

He will then make a list of those whom he considers qualified for such promotion.

24. In August the Inspector-General of Police will intimate to the Deputy Inspector-General of each Range the number of promotions to be made in his Range, and the latter will submit the requisite number of recommendations before the 15th November.

The Inspector-General of Police may accept the recommendation of the Deputy Inspectors-General or may call for fresh nominations.

25. Head-constables recommended for promotion should ordinarily be over 30 and under 40 years of age. They must have served with credit for three full years in the department, and except in the case of Sub-Inspectors, required for the Armed Reserve or except for other special reasons, they must be sufficiently well educated to profit by the instruction given at the Training School.

RESOLUTION—By the Govt. of India, Dept. of Commerce and Industry.

WITH the approval of the Secretary of State for India the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct that the rules for the supply of articles for the public service appended to this Resolution shall be substituted for the rules promulgated with the Resolution in this Department No. 4941-4988-102, dated the 14th July 1909, as amended from time to time.

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be communicated to all Departments of the Government of India, to all Local Governments and Administrations, to all Accountants-General and Comptrollers (including the Comptroller and Auditor-General), to all Heads of Departments subordinate to this Department, and to the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency the Viceroy.

Ordered, also, that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India for general information.

RULES FOR THE SUPPLY OF ARTICLES FOR THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

Subject to the provisions of the General Rules specified below, and to any instructions regarding specific articles which have been, or may be, issued by the Government of India from time to time (e.g., those relating to the supply of stationery), the following are the rules relating to the supply of articles required for the public service :—

RULE 1.—Articles manufactured in India from Indian materials.

All articles which are produced in India in the form of raw material, or are manufactured in India from materials produced in India, should, by preference, be purchased locally, provided that the quality is sufficiently good for the purpose, and the price not unfavourable.

RULE 2.—Articles manufactured in India from imported materials.

All articles manufactured in India from imported materials should, by preference, be purchased in India, subject, however, to the following conditions :—

- (a) That a substantial part of the process of manufacture of the articles purchased has been performed in India.
- (b) That the price is as low as that at which articles of similar quality can be obtained through the India Office.
- (c) That the materials employed are subjected to such inspection and tests as may be prescribed by the Government of India.

RULE 3.—Articles which are not manufactured in India.

Articles which are not manufactured in India should be obtained by indent upon the Store Department of the India Office, except in the following cases :—

- (a) When the articles are already in India at the time of order, and their price and quality are not unfavourable as compared with those at which similar articles could be obtained through the India Office, and the cost of the supply does not exceed the limits prescribed at the end of Rule 13.
- (b) In the case of important construction works let out on contract, articles not manufactured in India required for the construction of such works may be supplied by the contracting firm, subject to the following conditions :—
 - (i) That the firm is approved by the Government of India and is included in the list of firms so approved.
 - (ii) That the materials are subject to the current specifications and tests prescribed by the Government of India.

RULE 4.—Articles which may be purchased in India.

The following articles, whether manufactured or produced in India or not, may be purchased in India, provided that the quality required is obtainable :—

- (a) Those of a perishable nature.
- (b) Explosives.
- (c) Block tin.
- (d) Wines and spirits and English bottled beer for the use of Government hospitals in India.
- (e) Kerosine oil.
- (f) Plant and materials for electric installations intended to take current from existing centres. The local purchase of electric power plant and lighting plant which involve the provision of generators and cables for distribution is not, however, permissible under this clause.
- (g) Australian timber.
- (h) Australian copper.
- (i) Italian marble.
- (j) Such other classes of articles as may from time to time be prescribed by the Government of India. All such cases should be reported to the Secretary of State for his information.

RULE 5.—Special purchases in India.

When serious inconvenience to the public service would be caused by waiting to obtain an article from England through the Director-General of Stores, or when, owing to the greater promptitude of supply, an economy can be effected by purchasing in India articles which, under the foregoing rules, should be obtained through the Store Department, the purchase may be made in India, subject to Rule 13, provided that the articles are already in India at the time of order; but in such cases, if the value of the articles exceeds Rs. 750, the sanctioning officer should place on record the reasons which make the local purchase desirable. This record shall be available for the inspection of the Examiner of Accounts or the Supervising Officer when required.

RULE 6.—Inter-departmental purchases.

Nothing in the rules is to be deemed to prohibit the purchase of stores of European manufacture by one Department or Railway from another.

RULE 7.—Method of obtaining Stores not purchased in India.

All articles which under the foregoing rules are not to be bought in India should be obtained by indent on the Store Department of the India Office, except any which the Secretary of State may have specially authorised the Government of India or its officers to purchase direct outside India. Such purchase is at present permissible in the case of the following articles:—

- (i) Seeds.
- (ii) Cinchona bark.
- (iii) Articles for experimental or research purposes required by officers approved by the Government of India from time to time. A list of the officers thus approved is given in Appendix A.
- (iv) Excise instruments and apparatus required by Provincial Excise Departments for experimental or research purposes.
- (v) China, glass, cutlery, plate and crockery for the residences of Heads of Provinces.
- (vi) Australian timber.

- (viii) Such articles as Superintendents of Vaccine Depôts may require for the preparation of vaccine lymph (e.g., lanoline and glycerine).

Note.—Payments for stores purchased under this rule should be made direct to the suppliers by the purchasing officers.

GENERAL RULES.RULE 8.—*Forecast of Requirements.

Every effort should be made to foresee requirements so that there may be ample time to send forward indents for such articles as should under the rules be obtained from the India Office. Persistent failure of any officer to make such efforts should be brought to notice by the Local Government or other authority, which may, at its discretion, cancel or reduce the powers of sanction entrusted to the officer at fault.

RULE 9.—Time required to obtain Stores from England.

It may be assumed that the time required from the transmission of an indent upon the Secretary of State to the receipt of the stores is:—

Urgent telegraphic indents, not less than three months.

Ordinary indents, six to ten months, according to the article demanded.

For special stores, e.g., large girders, rolling stock, &c., up to one year in ordinary times.

RULE 10.—Method of compraining Prices.

In all cases in which the selection of source of supply depends upon comparison of prices, the procedure to be adopted for such a comparison is as follows :—

- (i) A reference should be made to Home prices as shown in the Rate Lists, and freight should be added at the lowest rates paid by the India Office together with 13s. 4d. per 100l. for interest, 2s. 2d. per 100l. for insurance, and 3d. per ton for freight brokerage.
- (ii) In cases of important contracts, the prices ruling in the English market should be ascertained by telegraphic reference to the Director-General of Stores.
- (iii) In cases where the necessary information as to Home prices is not available from the Rate Lists, the purchase in India shall be subject to the condition that the price is not unfavourable.
- (iv) In order to arrive at the market value at an Indian port of the article imported from England the following charges shall be included :—
 - (a) Landing, wharfage, and port charges as shown in the Rate Lists.
 - (b) Customs duty, as shown in the Tariff to be applicable to the article in question, to be calculated on its cost plus the additional charges mentioned in the earlier part of this rule.
- (v) The cost of carriage to site from port or place of manufacture, as the case may be, shall be taken into account.

RULE 11.—Tests.

Any articles purchased in India which should be tested are liable to the specifications laid down from time to time by competent authority, with the approval of the Secretary of State in Council, and should be required to pass the tests prescribed for such articles.

RULE 12.—Firms from which iron and steel may be bought in India.

Important iron and steel work, if purchased in India, should only be obtained from firms approved by the Local Government or Administration and entered in a Schedule as corrected from time to time by the Government of India. A list of approved firms is given in Appendix B.

Rules.

Definitions.

1. In these rules—

“the Act” means the Indian Treasure-trove Act, 1878, and “section” means a section of the Act.

2. Every notification under section 5 (a) shall be published at the Collector's cutcherry, subdivisional cutcherry, Munsiff's cutcherry and police-station within the jurisdiction of which the treasure was found, and also at some conspicuous spot in the village in which it was found.

3. On receipt of any notice under section 4, or on receipt of information from any person other than the finder, that treasure has been found, the Collector shall report the fact direct to Government and to the Superintendent, Archæological Survey, Eastern Circle, stating—

- (1) the name of the finder;
- (2) the nature of the treasure and the number of coins (if any);
- (3) the approximate value of the treasure;
- (4) the date of the finding of the treasure;
- (5) the origin, surroundings and exact nature of the find; and
- (6) whether, in the case of treasure consisting of coin, it is recommended—

(a) that Government should acquire the whole of such treasure, or

(b) that for any special reasons, such as the largeness of the quantity found or the coins being known to be of merely metal value, Government should not acquire the whole of such treasure, but only a portion thereof, or

(c) that Government should not acquire any portion of the treasure.

In the event of such recommendation being made, if the find is small, all the coins shall be submitted to Government. In the case of large finds, only a few specimens of each type shall be submitted. The expert who examines the coins may correspond direct with the Collector, and request that in the case of large finds all the coins, or such number of them as he may require, be submitted to him.

4. If the information of the finding of treasure is given by a person other than the finder and the Collector is satisfied that the information so given is substantially correct, he shall, in addition to the notice required under section 5, serve a notice on the finder to show cause why he should not be prosecuted under section 20. The Collector may also serve a notice on the owner to show cause why he should not be prosecuted under section 21 if he has reason to believe that an offence under that section has been committed by the owner. After the service of such notice or notices, as the case may be, the Collector shall take such further proceedings in the matter as may be deemed expedient.

5. All notices issued under section 5 (b), or in pursuance of any rules framed under the Act, shall be served at the cost of Government.

6. The acquisition, under section 16 of the whole or any part of the treasure by the Collector, whether such treasure consists of coins or not, shall be subject to the orders of Government.

7. Coins submitted to Government by Collectors shall be sent for examination to experts, who shall submit their reports to Government, in Forms A and B appended to these rules, stating the number and nature of the coins and their probable numismatic value. They shall also advise Government whether the coins or any part of them should be acquired. Ordinarily all coins pronounced by the experts to be rare specimens shall be acquired by Government. Copies of the reports thus received shall be forwarded to the Superintendent, Archaeological Survey, Eastern Circle, for inclusion in the summary referred to in rule 15.

8. (1) In the case of treasure not consisting entirely of coins, it shall be the duty of the Superintendent, Archaeological Survey, Eastern Circle, on receiving the report mentioned in rule 3 above, to arrange for an inspection of the treasure either by himself or by a Deputy, whenever it appears to him, from the report in question, that such inspection is desirable; and in any case to advise Government without delay as to the desirability of acquiring the treasure under section 16, in the event of an ultimate declaration by the Collector under section 9.

(2) If Government decide to acquire such treasure, whether on the report of the Superintendent, Archaeological Survey, Eastern Circle, or otherwise, Government shall so inform the Collector, who, after making the said declaration and complying with the provisions of section 16, shall, as soon as possible, forward the treasure so acquired either to the Indian Museum in Calcutta or to any other centre which Government may direct.

9. All Collectors are empowered to purchase, otherwise than when proceeding under the provisions of the Act, any coins, whether gold, silver, or copper, which appear to be old and not of British mintage, when they are less than Rs. 10 in value, on payment of a sum equal to the value of the materials of the coins, together with one-fifth of such value. Coins so purchased shall be submitted to Government in the General Department for distribution in the manner prescribed in rule 12.

Explanation.—Such coins include, for example, coins struck at Calcutta, Murshidabad, Benares, Surat or Arcot in the name of the Emperor Shah Alam, dated 19th Juloos.

10. (1) All fines levied under the Act shall be credited to the head "Treasure Trove," subordinate to head XXV—Miscellaneous, and any treasure which vests in Government under section 20 or section 21 shall, unless it be such as it is thought advisable for Government to retain, be sold in the manner described in sub-rule (2) with reference to the sale of surplus coins, and the proceeds shall be credited to the above head.

(2) Any surplus coins which it is considered desirable to retain, after the distribution prescribed in rules 12 and 14, shall be sent to the Indian Museum and there kept for sale. Notices containing particulars thereof shall be published quarterly in the local Gazette and the Gazette of India, copies of the notices being sent to the Asiatic Society and to the other institutions mentioned in rule 12. If any coins so kept for sale remain unsold, Government may, at the end of each year, pass orders for the sale thereof by public auction.

11. All Collectors shall append a paragraph to their Land Revenue Annual Reports, stating whether, during the year under report, any notices have been presented under section 4 or any proceedings taken before the Magistrate under section 20 or section 21 or any action taken under rule 9. All Commissioners shall, in their own reports, mention the results of the working of the Act as reported by Collectors.

INDIAN FOREST SERVICE.

REGULATIONS AS TO THE APPOINTMENT OF PROBATIONERS, 1913.

1. Appointments.—The Secretary of State for India in Council will, in the summer of 1913, make not less than five appointments of Probationers for the Indian Forest Service, provided that so many candidates are considered to be in all respects qualified.

In making these appointments, he will act with the advice of a Selection Committee.

2. Applications for Appointment.—Applications for appointment must be made on a printed form to be obtained from the Secretary, Revenue Department, India Office, Whitehall, London, S.W., and to be returned to him not later than Tuesday, the 1st July 1913. Candidates must be prepared, if called upon, to attend at the India Office, at their own expense, for a personal interview with the Selection Committee within three weeks from that date.

3. Age Limit.—Candidates must be not less than 19 but under 23 years of age on the 1st July 1913.

NOTE.—The Secretary of State, in modification of the notice given in the 1912 Regulations, has decided to retain for 1913 the age limits which have hitherto been in force. For the recruitment of 1914 and following years the age limits will, in accordance with the aforesaid notice, be 19 and 22 years on the 1st January of the year in which the selection is made.

4. Nationality, &c.—Every candidate must be a natural-born subject of His Majesty. He must be prepared to give an undertaking, if selected, that he will not marry before he reaches India. If he does so, he will forfeit his appointment. He must be of good physique, and must produce evidence of character, to satisfy the Secretary of State for India in Council that he is suited for the Indian Forest Service.

5. Qualifications.—Candidates must have obtained a degree with Honours in some branch of Natural Science* in a University of England, Wales, or Ireland, or have passed the Final Bachelor of Science Examination in Pure Science in one of the Universities of Scotland. A degree in Applied Science will not be considered as fulfilling these conditions. Candidates will be required to produce evidence that they have a fair knowledge of either German or French.

NOTE.—Applications for appointment will be accepted from candidates who on the 1st July 1913 have already sat at an examination for a degree as mentioned above, but have not learned the result of the examination.

6. Should there be more candidates considered to be qualified in every respect than vacancies to be filled, the Secretary of State reserves the right to require them to pass a competitive examination conducted by the Civil Service Commissioners, on the results of which their final selection would depend. Particulars of this examination, which would be held in August, will be found in Appendix I.

7. Medical Examination.—Selected candidates will be required to undergo a strict examination by a Medical Board at the India Office, at which particular stress will be laid on good vision and hearing, and to satisfy the Secretary of State for India that they are physically fit for service in the Indian Forest Department (see Appendix V).

Candidates who do not satisfy the Secretary of State for India that they are physically fit for appointment to the Indian Forest Service will not be admitted to the competitive examination mentioned in Regulation 6.

8. Period of Probation.—The ordinary period of probation will be two years. During that time probationers will be required to pass through the Forestry course at one of the Universities named in the margin,* becoming members of that University if not so already; to obtain the Degree or Diploma in Forestry which it grants; and to satisfy such other tests of

* Oxford, Cambridge, or (subject to the arrangement of a suitable course) Edinburgh.

* A Moderators'hip in Natural Science or in Experimental Science at the University of Dublin will be considered as fulfilling these conditions.

proficiency as may be deemed necessary. The case of students who have already obtained such degree or diploma at any of the above-named Universities will be specially considered in each case.

During the vacations the probationers will, under the direction and supervision of the Director of Indian Forest Studies appointed by the Secretary of State for India in Council, receive practical instruction in such British and Continental forests as may be selected for the purpose.

9. Charges.—The probationers will be required to defray all expenses of lodging, board, tuition, and excursions, while at the University, and on practical instruction in Britain and on the Continent, with the exception of fees payable to local forest officers in Britain and on the Continent.

10. Allowances.—The Secretary of State for India in Council will make payments to each probationer at the rate of 120*l.* annually, not exceeding a total of 240*l.* (besides the fees to local officers mentioned above). These payments will ordinarily be made on the following dates in each year:—

On the 1st December	30
On the 1st March	30
On the 1st June	60

The cases of probationers whose probation does not extend over the full two years will be specially considered.

The grant of the allowances is subject to the following conditions:—

- (a) that the progress of the probationer in his studies is satisfactory;
- (b) that the probationer gives security to refund the payments in case he fails to join the Indian Forest Service at the end of the period of probation.

11. Conduct.—Every probationer will be required to conduct himself during the period of probation in a manner satisfactory to the Secretary of State, and to give evidence of satisfactory progress in his studies in such a manner as may be required, failing which, or in the event of serious misconduct, he will be liable to have his name removed from the list of probationers.

12. Appointment and Seniority.—Probationers who obtain a Degree or Diploma in Forestry, and also satisfy such other tests of proficiency as may be prescribed, will be appointed Assistant Conservators in the Indian Forest Department, provided they are of sound constitution and free from physical defects which would render them unsuitable for employment in the Indian Forest Service. Their position in the provincial Forest Lists will be determined by the Secretary of State for India in Council on the report of the Director of Indian Forest Studies; but in making selections for the post of Conservator, officers joining the service in the same year are reckoned as equal in seniority unless the Secretary of State for India in Council shall for special reasons have directed otherwise in any particular case or cases.

Probationers will be allowed at the end of the period of probation to state their preference in respect to the Provinces to which they desire to be allotted; but the distribution will be made to the several Provinces according to the needs of the public service, at the discretion of the Secretary of State for India in Council. Officers are, however, at all times liable to be transferred from one Province to another at the pleasure of the Government of India.

13. Riding.—Every probationer, before proceeding to India, will be required to satisfy the Secretary of State, in such manner as may be determined, of his ability to ride.

14. Articles of Agreement.—Within a month of his nomination as Assistant Conservator, each nominee must sign articles of agreement describing the terms and conditions of his appointment; he must embark for India when required to do so by the Secretary of State, and must engage his own passage. Failure to embark at the stated time will, in the absence of satisfactory explanation, lead to forfeiture of appointment.

15. Passage Allowance.—An allowance on account of passage to India will be paid to each probationer on appointment to the Indian Forest Service, to the amount of 37*l.* 10*s.* for passage to Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, and 43*l.* for passage to Rangoon.

NOTE.—The above is the normal rate of passage allowance. In consequence of the surtax of 10 per cent. at present charged by shipping companies in respect of passages to India the above rates of passage allowance have been raised to 41*l.* 5*s.* and 46*l.* 5*s.* respectively.

Should this surtax be removed, these rates will be reduced to those given in paragraph 15.

16. Salary.—An Assistant Conservator of Forests will draw pay at the rate of Rs. 380 a month (equivalent to 304*l.* a year, when the rupee is at 1*s.* 4*d.*) from the date of his reporting his arrival in India.

17. Promotion, Leave, Pension, and Provident Fund.—Promotion, leave, and pension will be governed by the Regulations laid down by the Government of India, and applicable to Forest officers, such regulations being subject to any modifications or alterations which may be made in them from time to time by the Government of India, and their interpretation in case of any doubt arising being left to that Government. A copy of the existing regulations can be seen on application at the India Office.

Certain information regarding appointments in the upper controlling staff of the Indian Forest Service, the pay of which has been recently improved, will be found in Appendix II; a summary of information regarding leave is contained in Appendix III; and regarding Pensions and the Provident Fund in Appendix IV.

INDIA OFFICE, September 1912.

APPENDIX III.

LEAVE.

1. The following is a summary of the principal regulations relating to the leave admissible to officers appointed to the Indian Forest Service by the Secretary of State from the United Kingdom.

Long Leave.

2. Furlough and special leave with allowances (see paragraph 6) are admissible to an aggregate maximum amount of six years during an officer's service. The amount of furlough "earned" is one-fourth of an officer's active service, and the amount "due" is that amount less any enjoyed.

3. Furlough without medical certificate can, if due, be generally taken after eight years' active service, and again after intervals of not less than three years' continuous service. It is limited to two years at a time.

4. Furlough on medical certificate may be granted (a) to an officer who has rendered three years' continuous service, for not more than two years, but capable of extension up to three years; and (b) to an officer who has not rendered three years' continuous service, up to one year in any case, and up to such longer period, if any (but not exceeding two years in all), as the officer may have furlough "due" to him.

5. The allowances admissible during furlough are :—

- (1) During the first two years of furlough without medical certificate and during so much of furlough with medical certificate as may be "due"—half average salary, subject to certain maximum and minimum limits.
- (2) After the expiration of the period for which the foregoing allowances are admissible—one quarter of average salary, subject to certain maximum and minimum limits.

6. Special leave may be granted at any time for not more than six months, with intervals of six years' service; allowances, calculated as during furlough, are given during the first six months only, whether taken in one or more instalments.

Short Leave.

7. Privilege Leave is a holiday which may be granted to the extent of one-eleventh part of the time that an officer has been on duty without interruption; and it may be accumulated up to three months, earned by 33 months' duty. During privilege leave, the officer retains a lien on his appointment, and receives the salary which he would have received if on duty. An interval of not less than six months must elapse between two periods of absence on privilege leave.

Privilege leave may be prefixed to furlough, special leave, or extraordinary leave without allowances. The whole period of leave thus taken in combination is known as combined leave. Combined leave may not be granted for a period of less duration than six months, nor, except on medical certificate, may it be extended beyond two years.

8. Subsidiary leave in India for a minimum of 10 days, usually with half average salary, is granted to an officer proceeding on or returning from leave out of India, or, on retirement, to enable him to reach the port of embarkation or to rejoin his appointment. It is admissible only at the end and not at the beginning of combined leave.

9. Short leave is also granted to enable officers to appear at examinations, &c.

10. Extraordinary leave without allowances may be granted in case of necessity, and except in certain specified cases, only when no other kind of leave is by rule admissible. It may be granted in continuation of other leave.

General Rules.

11. Leave of absence can never be claimed as of right, and is given or refused at the discretion of Government.

12. After five years' continuous absence from duty, an officer is considered to be out of the employment of Government.

13. When leave allowances other than privilege leave pay are paid at the Home Treasury, or in a Colony where the standard of currency is gold, rupees are converted into sterling at the rate of exchange fixed for the time being for the adjustment of financial transactions between the Imperial and Indian Treasuries, unless any other rate has been exceptionally authorised. But for the present the rate of conversion is subject to a minimum of 1s. 6d. to the rupee. Privilege leave pay when issued from the Home Treasury (this is only admissible when privilege leave is combined with other leave) is converted at 1s. 4d. to the rupee.

APPENDIX IV.

PENSIONS AND PROVIDENT FUND.

1. The following is a summary of the principal pension rules applicable to officers of the Indian Forest Service appointed by the Secretary of State from the United Kingdom.

An officer of the Indian Forest Service is eligible for a pension on voluntary retirement after completing 20 years' qualifying service or attaining the age of 55 years. If at an earlier date he is compelled to retire from the service through ill-health, not occasioned by irregular or intemperate habits, he becomes eligible for an invalid pension or a gratuity according to the length of his service.

The amount of pension or gratuity is regulated as follows:—

After a service of less than 10 years, an invalid gratuity not exceeding one month's emoluments for each completed year of service.

After a service of not less than 10 years an invalid pension not exceeding the following amounts:—

Years of completed service.	Maximum limit of pension.
	Rs.
10	1,000 a year.
16

After a service of not less than 20 years, a retiring pension not exceeding the following amounts:—

Years of completed service.	Scale of pension.	Maximum limit of pension.
	Sixtieths of average emoluments.	Rs.
20 to 24	30	{ 4,000 a year.
25 and above		{ 5,000 "

Officers who have shown special energy and efficiency during an effective service of three years as Inspector-General of Forests or Conservator may, at the discretion of the Government of India, be allowed an additional pension of Rs. 1,000 a year, subject to the condition that the officer must not retire voluntarily before the completion of a total qualifying service of 28 years.

Subject to certain prescribed conditions, rupee pensions are now issued to pensioners residing in countries where the Indian rupee is not legal tender at the rate of exchange of 1s. 9d. the rupee.

2. A General Provident Fund has also been established on the following basis:—

- The contribution is compulsory up to 6½ per cent. on salaries, with voluntary contributions of not more than a further 6½ per cent. Subscriptions on leave of any kind are optional.
- Compound interest on such payments is annually credited by Government to each officer subscribing, the rate being at present 4 per cent. per annum.
- The sum which will thus accumulate to the credit of an officer to be his absolute property, to be handed over to him unconditionally on quitting the service; or, in the event of his death before retirement, to his legal representatives.
- Other forms of life insurance will, however, if they fulfil certain conditions, be accepted in lieu of the contributions in (a).

APPENDIX V.

GENERAL PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS.

NOTE.—These Regulations are published for the convenience of candidates and in order to enable them to ascertain the probability of their coming up to the required physical standard. But it must be clearly understood that the Secretary of State reserves to himself an absolute discretion to reject as unfit any candidate whom he may consider, after hearing the opinion of his medical advisers, to be physically disqualified for the public service; and that his discretion is in no respect limited by these Regulations.

1. A candidate must be in good mental and bodily health, and free from any physical defect likely to interfere with efficient performance of duty.

2. In the examination of candidates the Medical Board will apply the following table of correlation of age, height and chest girth:—

Age.	Height without shoes.	CHEST.
		Girth when expanded.	Range of expansion.
19 to 20 ...	Inches.	Inches.	Inches.
	62½ and under 65 ...	35	2
	66 " 68 ...	35	2
	68 " 70 ...	35½	2
	70 " 72 ...	36	2
	72 and upwards ...	36½	2½
21 and upwards ...	62½ and under 65 ...	35	2
	66 " 68 ...	35½	2
	68 " 70 ...	36	2
	70 " 72 ...	36½	2½
	72 and upwards ...	37	2½

3. Measurement of Height.—The candidate will be placed against the standard with his feet together, and the weight thrown on the heels, and not on the toes or outside of the feet. He will stand erect without rigidity, and with the heels, calves, buttocks, and shoulders touching the standard; the chain will be depressed to bring the vertex of the head level under the horizontal bar, and the height will be noted in parts of an inch to eighths. No fixed limit of height is imposed.

4. Measurement of Chest.—The candidate will be made to stand erect with his feet together, and to raise his hands above his head. The tape will be carefully adjusted round the chest, the posterior upper edge touching the inferior angles of the shoulder blades, and its anterior lower edge the upper part of the nipples. The arms will then be lowered to hang loosely by the side, and care will be taken that the shoulders are not thrown upwards or backwards so as to displace the tape. The candidate will then be directed to empty his chest of air as much as possible. This is best done by continuous whistling with the lips as long as sound can be produced. The tape is carefully gathered in during the process, and when the minimum measurement is reached it is recorded. The candidate will then be directed to inflate his chest to its utmost capacity. This maximum measurement will likewise be noted. The girth with the chest fully expanded and the range of expansion between the minimum and the maximum will then be recorded.

5. The hearing must be good.

6. The speech without impediment.

7. The teeth in good order, i.e., decayed or broken teeth must be properly stopped or crowned, and deficient teeth replaced by artificial teeth where necessary for effective mastication.

8. The chest must be well formed, the lungs and heart sound.

9. Rupture, hydrocele, varicocele, varicose veins in a severe degree, or other condition likely to cause inefficiency will disqualify a candidate, unless such condition is cured by operation.

10. The limbs, feet and toes must be well formed and developed, with free and perfect motion of all the joints.

11. A candidate must have no congenital malformation or defect likely to interfere with efficiency.

12. A candidate must not be the subject of chronic skin disease.

13. Evidence of previous acute or chronic disease pointing to an impaired constitution will disqualify.

14. Candidates may, not more than two years before they are qualified to compete for an appointment, undergo a preliminary examination by the Medical Board, which meets at the India Office every Tuesday, under the following conditions:—

(a) Applications must be addressed to the Under-Secretary of State, India Office, Whitehall, London, accompanied by a fee of two guineas, and a statement of the candidate's age.

(b) Candidates must pay their travelling expenses.

(c) Candidates considered to be unfit by the Medical Board at this preliminary examination are not bound to accept its opinion, but may, at their own risk, continue their studies, with the knowledge that they will have to submit themselves for a final medical examination by the Medical Board, prior to their appointment.

(d) On the other hand, it must be distinctly understood that the preliminary examination by the Medical Board is held solely for the candidate's information, and that, if after that examination he is reported to be apparently fit, he has not on that account any claim to be accepted as physically fit when he presents himself for the final Medical Examination, upon which alone his acceptance or rejection will depend. Candidates may be considered fit for the service, at the preliminary examination, but may be found at the final examination to be unfit, either on account of some physical defect which did not exist or passed undetected at the preliminary examination or for other reasons.

REGULATIONS AS TO THE STANDARD OF VISION FOR THE INDIAN FOREST SERVICE.

1. If myopia in one or both eyes exists, a candidate may be passed, provided the ametropia does not exceed 2.5 D, and if with correcting glasses, not exceeding 2.5 D, the acuteness of vision in one eye equals $\frac{1}{4}$ and in the other $\frac{1}{5}$, there being normal range of accommodation with the glasses.
2. Myopic astigmatism does not disqualify a candidate for service, provided the lens or the combined spherical and cylindrical lenses required to correct the error of refraction do not exceed—2.5 D; the acuteness of vision in one eye, when corrected, being equal to $\frac{1}{4}$, and in the other eye $\frac{1}{5}$, together with normal range of accommodation with the correcting glasses, there being no evidence of progressive disease in the choroid or retina.
3. A candidate having total hypermetropia not exceeding 4 D is not disqualified, provided the sight in one eye (when under the influence of atropine) equals $\frac{1}{5}$, and in the other eye equals $\frac{1}{4}$ with + 4 D or any lower power.
4. Hypermetropic astigmatism does not disqualify a candidate for the service, provided the lens or combined lenses required to cover the error of refraction do not exceed 4 D, and that the sight of one eye equals $\frac{1}{5}$ and of the other $\frac{1}{4}$, with or without such lens or lenses.
5. A candidate having a defect of vision arising from nebula of the cornea is disqualified if the sight of one eye be less than $\frac{1}{5}$. In such a case the better eye must be emmetropic. Defects of vision arising from pathological or other changes in the deeper structures of either eye, which are not referred to in the above rules, may exclude a candidate for admission into the service.
6. Squint, or any morbid condition, subject to the risk of aggravation or recurrence, in either eye, may cause the rejection of a candidate. The existence of imperfection of colour sense will be noted on the candidate's papers.

No. 6045.—The 29th October 1912.—The following revised Rules for admission to the Government Weaving Institute, Serampore, are published for general information.

J. H. KERR,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

RULES FOR ADMISSION TO THE GOVERNMENT WEAVING INSTITUTE, SERAMPORE.OBJECT FOR WHICH THE SCHOOL IS ESTABLISHED.

THE Weaving Institute at Serampore has been established with the object of giving technical instruction in the best and latest methods of hand-weaving, of extending a knowledge of the mechanical improvements which make the modern hand-loom so vastly more effective an instrument than the primitive looms still widely used by native weavers in Bengal, and so of strengthening and reviving the weaving industry in this country.

With these objects in view two quite distinct grades of instruction are given, forming higher and lower classes—

- (1) to young men of a fair degree of education who may be trained as teachers, managers and organizers of the weaving industry. These form the higher classes;
- (2) to actual hand-loom weavers, from Serampore and other places. These form the lower or artizan classes.

The school at Serampore is staffed and administered by the Bengal Government. It is managed by the Principal under the general control of the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

RULES FOR THE HIGHER CLASSES.

1. The number of admissions to these classes in each year is limited to 75.
2. Candidates for admission must have passed the B Class final or the University Matriculation examination or have been trained in one of the technical schools affiliated in the Sub-Overseer course to the Joint Technical Examination Board.

3. The session begins in the third week of November. All applications for admission should be made to the Principal in the first week of November and should furnish the following particulars:—

- (a) Name and address, and occupation of father or guardian.
- (b) Race and religion.
- (c) An attested certificate of age of the candidate.
- (d) A certificate of good moral character from the last Head Master or Principal.

4. Twenty Government scholarships of Rs. 15 a month, tenable for two years, will be offered to students of the higher class.

5. Students to whom scholarships have been awarded will not be allowed to hold their scholarships for the second year if they fail to pass the first year's annual examination.

6. Students joining the higher class will have to sign an undertaking to the effect that they intend to make weaving their profession after the completion of their training.

7. The course of study in these classes extends to two years. Students are required to attend 75 per cent. of the working days.

8. Students who pass the annual examination on the first year's course will be promoted to the second year's course.

9. Students who pass an examination at the end of the second year's course will receive certificates from the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

10. The course of studies for the two years is given in detail below:—

First year's course.

RULES FOR THE LOWER CLASSES.

1. These lower classes are primarily intended for the benefit of weavers from Serampore and its neighbourhood, both adult weavers and their sons, but up-country weavers and weavers from other provinces will also be admitted to them.

2. Applications for admission will ordinarily be received in the month of January, and at other times at the discretion of the Principal.

3. The number of admissions to the lower class is limited to 50.

4. Twenty scholarships of Rs. 6 per mensem and twenty of Rs. 4 per mensem, tenable from four months to one year, are provided for these classes. These scholarships are not expected to suffice for the entire maintenance of the pupils; and District Boards, Municipalities and other public bodies when sending pupils should supplement the scholarships provided so as to bring them up to at least Rs. 10 a month, which is roughly estimated as the cost of maintenance. The exact amount required at any time may be ascertained from the Principal on enquiry.

5. Applications for admission should be made to the Principal through the authorities of the District Boards, Municipalities, Industrial schools or other bodies or institutions which provide the applicants with scholarships.

6. The course of study in these classes will extend from six months to one year and instruction will be given through the medium of the vernacular.

7. The course of studies is given in detail below:—

The following rules are published for general information:—

I.—The following are entitled to attend His Excellency the Governor's Levee:—

All gentlemen, whether European or Indian, who have been presented at the Court of St. James, or at the Viceregal Court, or at the Courts of the Governors of Madras and Bombay.

II.—The following are eligible for presentation at His Excellency's Levee, whether European or Indian:—

- (a) All Ruling Chiefs.

- (c) All Gazetted Officers of the first class in Government employ.
- (d) All gentlemen who have received titles of honour from His Majesty the King-Emperor, or His Excellency the Viceroy.

III.—Admission to Government House will be by ticket only. Applications for tickets should be submitted to the Military Secretary's Office not later than 10th December, after which date no applications will be received. These same tickets will be made use of by the Military Secretary when reading the names to His Excellency the Governor and must consequently be brought to the Levee room. No other name cards will be required.

This rule will not apply to gentlemen who have the privilege of Private Entree, but they are requested to bring with them cards on which their names are typed or very clearly hand-printed.

IV.—Gentlemen, whether European or Indian, who have not already been presented at the Court of St. James or at the Viceregal Court or at the Courts of Governors of Madras and Bombay and who desire to be presented at His Excellency's Levee, should submit their applications through the gentlemen proposing to present them. The latter will apply to the Military Secretary to the Governor for a "form of presentation" which, after the necessary particulars have been filled in by the presenter, will be returned to the Military Secretary not later than Saturday, 7th December, in order that the names may be submitted to His Excellency, when, if they are approved, tickets of admission will be issued.

Gentlemen who present others must themselves attend the Levee.

In the case of all Government officials or gentlemen engaged in business, the presenter should ordinarily be the Head of the Department or Firm.

V.—Only those persons who are declared eligible on account of their social status will be permitted to attend.

VI.—Gentlemen who are entitled ex-officio to attend Provincial Durbars may be presented at His Excellency the Governor's Levee by the Heads of their Departments. This will not confer upon them the privilege of attending Levees after they have ceased to hold the position which made them eligible for presentation, nor will it entitle them to present other gentlemen.

VII.—Dress:—

- (a) Civil and Military Officers—Levee dress (helmets will not be taken to the Levee).
- (b) Clergymen being University Graduates and other gentlemen entitled to wear robes or gowns on account of Judicial or Academical office or status and not entitled to wear uniform will appear in such robes or gowns.

- (g) Indian gentlemen who do not appear in the dress prescribed in (a), (b) or (c) should not remove their head dress when they pass His Excellency.

At the Governor's Court only patent leather boots or shoes of an English pattern are allowed to be worn, except in the case of Indian Military Officers who wear the particular style of boots or shoes, which forms part of their uniform.

N.H.—Gentlemen who had intended to be present but have found themselves unable to do so, should submit an explanatory letter to the Military Secretary to the Governor before, or as soon as possible after, the Levee.

By order,

MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

SANITATION.

DARJEELING, THE 28TH OCTOBER 1912.

RESOLUTION—No. 2342 San.

READ—

Government of India Resolution No. 921-36, dated 23rd May 1912.

Read also—

A report from the Sanitary Commissioner and Sanitary Engineer, Bengal, dated the 29th September 1912, regarding the course of training suitable for Health Officers of the 2nd class and Sanitary Inspectors.

THE Government of India Resolution draws attention to the weakness of the executive establishment of provincial sanitary services and the inadequacy of the staff of trained officers of health, and formulates proposals for a trained sanitary service, chiefly for employment in municipal towns, consisting of two grades of Health Officers and one or more grades of Sanitary Inspectors. The details of the nature of the service, the training and qualifications of candidates and the steps to be taken to ensure their employment in municipalities, have now to be determined.

2. Section 46 of the Bengal Municipal Act leaves the decision as to whether a Health Officer is necessary in a municipality to the Commissioners in meeting, but the advance in public opinion in regard to matters of sanitation and the importance of their bearing on the general prosperity of the province, render it desirable that the Local Government should be empowered to insist, where necessary, on municipalities realizing their responsibilities in the matter. It is proposed, therefore, to amend the Municipal Act so as to enable Government, after due notification, to require a municipality to appoint a Health Officer where this is shown to be necessary, and the offer of the Government of India to provide half the salary of such an officer obviates the possibility of any undue hardship on individual municipalities. The circumstances of municipalities differ widely, and the case of each will be dealt with on its own merits, but it is proposed as a broad rule that every municipality with a population of over 50,000 shall be required to appoint a Health Officer of the first class, and that where the population is over 16,000 and the municipal income is more than Rs. 40,000 a Health Officer of the second class shall be appointed. Municipalities of the second class will, however, be at liberty to appoint a Health Officer of the first class should they wish to do so, and in that case Government will still contribute half the cost of his salary.

3. A candidate to be qualified as Health Officer of the first class must have a registrable medical qualification and, for the present, a British diploma in public health, and it is suggested that the pay of such an officer should ordinarily be Rs. 300—20—500, though it will be open to individual municipalities to offer a higher pay than this, should circumstances in their opinion demand it. It is not intended to form Health Officers into a provincial service or to make their service pensionable; each municipality will be left to appoint its own officer, subject to the conditions that he is fully qualified under the rules, that he is allowed to join the Municipal Provident Fund and that his appointment and removal are subject to the sanction of the Commissioner of the Division under section 61(b) of the Municipal Act. There will probably be no lack of qualified candidates immediately available for appointment as first class Health Officers, and His Excellency in Council trusts that all municipalities with a population of over 50,000, and such others as desire to do so, will at once take steps to appoint Health Officers of the first class.

Provided these officers are fully qualified and the conditions set forth above are complied with, Government will be prepared to make a grant equivalent to half their salary for the remainder of the current year, and this promise is equally applicable to those municipalities who already employ fully qualified Health Officers.

4. The Government of India have defined the main qualifications for second class Health Officers to be a good general education supplemented by a course of training in public health. A medical qualification will not, therefore, be essential, but in view of the fact that it is part of the duties of a Health Officer to deal with disease conditions, and that in regard to the rest of his duties and more particularly the duty of prosecuting offenders against municipal health regulations, his opinion is likely to carry more weight with the public if he is a medical man, His Excellency in Council regards a medical qualification as eminently desirable even in the case of second class Health Officers. It is proposed that ordinarily the pay of such officers will be Rs. 150—10—300 and candidates, unless they possess a diploma in public health, will be required to undergo a training of 12 months, of which two months will be spent in inspecting the working of institutions in Calcutta, one month working with a Municipal Health Officer, two months in the laboratory of the Sanitary Commissioner, and seven months working with a Deputy Sanitary Commissioner. The training will thus be entirely practical, and will be under the direct supervision of the Sanitary Commissioner. If candidates are sent by a municipality for this training no charge will be made, but the candidate's eventual confirmation as a Health Officer will be subject to his obtaining a certificate of competency from the Sanitary Commissioner. In other cases a fee of Rs. 50 will be charged to candidates to cover expenses. Applications to join the training class should be submitted to the Sanitary Commissioner, Bengal, and arrangements will be made to start the training as soon as such applications are received, and a list of candidates who have obtained certificates of competency will be kept by the Sanitary Commissioner for the use of municipalities who are required to appoint Health Officers of the second class. Meanwhile, such municipalities can appoint second class Health Officers if they can obtain qualified candidates on the same conditions as those prescribed above for the appointment of first class Health Officers.

5. As regards Sanitary Inspectors, section 91 of the Local Self-Government Act III of 1885, as amended by Act V of 1908, requires District Boards to appoint properly qualified persons as Sanitary Inspectors unless they are specifically exempted by order of the Local Government, and under section 138 of the same Act the Local Government can prescribe the qualifications of such Sanitary Inspectors, but there are no corresponding provisions in the Municipal Act. It is now intended to extend these provisions to municipalities; as in the case of Health Officers, the circumstances of each municipality will be considered separately, but as a rough working guide it is proposed that all towns with a population of 10,000 shall have one Sanitary Inspector, while two will be necessary where the population is 30,000, and at least three where the population is over 50,000, and in order to prevent undue hardship the Local Government will be prepared to give some assistance towards the cost of these officers in cases where the Commissioner of the Division reports that the municipalities are really unable to bear the increased expenditure.

6. There will be two grades of Sanitary Inspectors, one on a pay of Rs. 50—5—100 and the other on Rs. 100—5—150, and the higher grade will be recruited partly direct and partly by promotion from the lower. As in the case of Health Officers, there will be no provincial service, but each municipality or District Board will recruit for themselves and will admit Sanitary Inspectors to the benefits of their provident funds. The qualifications of a Sanitary Inspector will be mainly character, tact and driving power; his work will be entirely practical, and as it is undesirable that he should regard himself as either an unqualified medical man or a partially trained engineer, theoretical instruction will be avoided except in so far as it is necessary to a full understanding of the practical course. Candidates for the lower grade must have passed the matriculation or the middle vernacular examination, and must produce certificates of good character and a medical certificate of fitness from a qualified medical practitioner. Applications should be made to the Sanitary Commissioner, and if the applicants are admitted as candidates, they will be required to undergo an eight months' course in practical hygiene and minor Sanitary Engineering under the direct supervision of the Sanitary Commissioner and Sanitary Engineer. The course will consist of :—

I. Hygiene—

- (a) a course of hygiene ;
- (b) a short course, with demonstrations, on the manufacture and preservation of calf vaccine ;
- (c) a course of ten lectures and demonstrations on the common skin diseases and infectious diseases of animals ;
- (d) a short course, with demonstrations, on the theory and practice of disinfection.

II. Minor Sanitary Engineering—

- (a) drawing office and simple surveying ;
- (b) latrines, trenching-grounds, etc. ;
- (c) elementary principles of building construction ;
- (d) elementary principles of water-supply ;
- (e) elementary principles of drainage ;
- (f) practical demonstration of Sanitary Engineering works in Calcutta and neighbouring municipalities.

Instruction will be given in the vernacular. The vaccination class will be held at Entally and the lectures on the infectious diseases of animals will be given at Belgachia. The Hygiene course will be given by a specially selected Assistant Surgeon, while the Sanitary Engineering instruction will be imparted by the Assistant Sanitary Engineer. The major portion of the work will consist of practical demonstrations in and around Calcutta, but arrangements will be made to place at the disposal of the Sanitary Commissioner and Sanitary Engineer, a room for the purpose of such lectures as are absolutely necessary. As the course is mainly practical, it is essential that the classes should be strictly limited in numbers and each class will therefore be restricted to 30. At the end of the course there will be written and oral examinations, and as far as possible practical examinations conducted by the Sanitary Commissioner and Sanitary Engineer, and the list of successful candidates will be published in the Calcutta Gazette. The classes will be started as soon as sufficient applications have been received, and candidates will be required to pay a fee of Rs. 30 for the course.

It is intended that a separate examination, and possibly a further course, shall be prescribed for certificates entitling a Sanitary Inspector of the lower grade to promotion to the higher grade, but it is desired to obtain some experience of the working of the present rules before taking steps to this end. Meanwhile, the Sanitary Commissioner has a list of 10 or 12 young men who have taken courses in England laid down by the Royal Sanitary Institute. These will be most suitable for the higher grade of Sanitary Inspectors, and it is unnecessary to require any further training from them. His Excellency in Council trusts that some of the larger municipalities will take the opportunity of securing at once the services of these men if they are available.

ORDER—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be communicated to all Commissioners of Divisions, Sanitary Commissioner, Bengal, Sanitary Engineer and Secretary to the Sanitary Board, Bengal, Director of Agriculture, Bengal, and Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals, Bengal, for information and guidance, and that a copy be submitted to the Government of India for information.

Ordered also that a copy be published in the Calcutta Gazette for general information.

Gentlemen who present others must themselves attend the Levee.

In the case of all Government officials or gentlemen engaged in business, the presenter should ordinarily be the Head of the Department or Firm.

V.—Only those persons who are declared eligible on account of their social status will be permitted to attend.

Gentlemen who are entitled as officers or retired Provincial Durbars may be presented at His Excellency the Governor's Levee by the Heads of their Departments. They will be permitted to present other gentlemen.

VII.—Dress

- (a) Civil and Military Officers—Levee dress (helmets will not be taken to the Levee).

At the Governor's Court only patent leather boots or shoes of an English pattern are allowed to be worn, except in the case of Indian Military Officers who wear the particular style of boots or shoes which forms part of their uniform.

1. In these rules, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context—

(1) "the Act" means the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886;

(2) "section" means a section of the Act;

(3) "schedule" means a schedule to these rules; and

(4) "Registrar-General" and "Registrar" mean, respectively, the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages, Bengal, and a Registrar of Births and Deaths appointed under the Act.

2. Notices of births and deaths shall be in the forms set forth in Schedule A and Schedule B, respectively.

3. Every notice of a birth or death shall be signed by the person giving it, and shall specify the capacity in which such person claims to be authorized to give it.

4. (1) Any person giving notice of the birth of a legitimate child or of a death who wishes to be excused from personal attendance before the Registrar for the purpose of signing the register, may submit an application for the registration of such birth or death to the Registrar for the local area in which the birth or death occurred. Such applications shall be in the forms set forth in Schedules C and D respectively, and shall be submitted on a printed copy thereof, which may be obtained free of charge on application to the Registrar or to the Subdivisional Officer.

(2) The said forms shall be filled in and signed by the person giving notice and shall be forwarded to the Registrar. Provided that if the signature of such person is not known to the said Registrar, the same shall be attested by a respectable witness.

(3) On receipt of an application specified in sub-rule (1), the Registrar shall if he is personally acquainted with the signature of the applicant, or if such signature has been attested by a respectable witness under sub-rule (2), register the birth or death, and shall, in the column of the Register of Births or the Register of Deaths set apart for the signature of the person giving notice, make the following entry in lieu of such signature:—
"Registered under the provisions of section 22 (1) proviso, of Act VI of 1886."

The registration of the birth or death shall thereupon be deemed to be valid for the purposes of the Act.

(4) All applications submitted for the registration of births and deaths under this rule shall be filed in the office of the Registrar and preserved in perpetuity.

5. Every notice of a birth or death shall ordinarily be presented or sent to the Registrar for the local area in which the birth or death occurred within six months of the date of such birth or death, as the case may be:

Provided that the Registrar may, of his own authority, for any reason which he considers sufficient, accept notice of a birth or death at any time within one year from the date of its occurrence, and with the special sanction in writing of the Registrar-General after that time.

6. (1) When a birth or death has occurred during a journey, or when the person giving notice of a birth or death was compelled by duty, or urgent necessity, or unavoidable accident, to leave the local area in which such birth or death occurred so soon after its occurrence that he was unable to give the prescribed notice to the Registrar for that local area, any Registrar may receive notice of such birth or death and register the same as if it were a birth or death which had occurred within the local area for which he has been appointed.

(2) The provisions of rule 5 as to the time within which notice of a birth or death must be given, shall apply to every notice of a birth or death given under the circumstances described in this rule.

(3) In every case of a birth or death admitted to registration under this rule the Registrar to whom the notice of the birth or death is given shall record in his register the reason why the notice was not given to the Registrar of the local area within which the birth or death occurred, and shall within one week from the date of the registration of such birth or death forward to the Registrar-General, and to the Registrar for the local area within which the birth or death occurred, a copy of the entry in the register relating to the birth or death.

(4) Every Registrar shall paste into a book to be kept by him for the purpose all copies of entries received by him under sub-rule 3, and preserve them in perpetuity, and such book shall be, at all reasonable times, open to inspection by any person desiring to inspect it.

7. The Registrar for any local area including a port may register any birth or death, which has occurred on the high seas on board any ship arriving at such port:

Provided that notice of the birth or death is given to such Registrar within sixty days after the arrival of the ship.

In the notice of such birth or death, and in the entry thereof in the register, there shall be specified, in lieu of the name of the place of occurrence, the name of the ship on which the event occurred, the name of the Commander of the ship and the approximate latitude and longitude of the ship's position at the time of the birth or death.

8. An appeal against an order of a Registrar refusing to register a birth or death on any other ground than that referred to in proviso (a) to section 19 shall lie to the Registrar-General, who may, in his discretion, either confirm the order of the Registrar or direct him to register the birth or death.

9. Registers of births and deaths shall be kept in the forms set forth in Schedule E and Schedule F, respectively.

10. (1) Every certificate of registration of a birth or death given by a Registrar under section 23 shall be in the form set forth in Schedule G.

(2) Every Registrar shall keep, in the form set forth in Schedule H, a register of all such certificates and of copies of entries given by him under section 25.

(3) The Registrar-General shall keep a register in a similar form of all copies given by him of entries in the certified copies of the registers sent to his office under section 24.

11. At the foot of every copy of an entry given under section 8 or section 25 of the Act there shall be written a certificate, dated and subscribed by the Registrar-General or the officer authorised under section 9, or by the Registrar, as the case may be, that the copy is a true copy of the entry.

NOTE.—(a) Every Registrar who registers births of the children of European members of the Baptist community shall, while sending to the Registrar-General certified copies of entries of such births in the Register of Births kept under section 24(1), note the words "to be forwarded to England" against such entries and shall submit the same in duplicate.

(b) The Registrar-General on receiving certified copies of such entries in duplicate shall deal with one copy as provided in section 7, and forward the other copy to India Office, London.

12. The copies of entries of births and deaths which Registrars are required by section 24 to send to the Registrar-General shall be certified in the form set forth in Schedule I, and shall be sent at intervals of three months, on or as soon as possible after the 1st January, April, July and October in each year.

Should no entries be made in a register during any such interval of three months, a certificate to this effect shall be sent to the Registrar-General.

13. (1) The indexes which are required by section 7 to be made of the certified copies of registers of births, deaths and marriages sent to the office of the Registrar-General shall be in the forms set forth in Schedule J, Schedule K and Schedule L respectively.

(2) Every entry in an index shall be made alphabetically with reference to the initial letter of the name of the person indicated by the entry.

(3) In the index of certified copies of entries of marriages, the names of both the husband and the wife shall be indexed.

(4) In the case of a person of European or Armenian descent, the initial letter shall be the first letter of the surname, and in the case of any other person, the first letter of his name, and not that of his rank, title or class.

14. A Registrar may, of his own motion, correct, in the manner provided in section 28, any error in form made in an entry of a birth or death in a register kept by him under the Act.

In every case in which an entry is corrected under this rule, intimation thereof shall (if practicable) be communicated, within one week from the date of such correction, to the person who gave the notice of the birth or death.

15. (1) When an error in substance in any entry of a birth or death in a register kept by him is alleged to have been made, the Registrar may correct the error, in the manner provided in section 28 on application made in writing and signed in the presence of two witnesses attesting the signature, by any person authorised under section 20 or section 21, as the case may be, to give notice of the birth or death to which the entry relates:

Provided that the Registrar is satisfied that the application is well founded.

(2) An appeal against an order of a Registrar under this rule refusing to correct an alleged error in an entry in a register shall lie to the Registrar-General, who may, in his discretion, either confirm the order of the Registrar or direct him to correct the error.

16. Without the special sanction in writing of the Registrar-General, an application for the correction of an entry in a register of births or register of deaths shall not be entertained by the Registrar after the expiration of one year from the date on which the notice of the birth or death to which the entry relates was given.

17. Fees payable under the Act shall be paid as specified in Schedule M:

Provided that all seamen, non-commissioned officers and men of His Majesty's Regular Forces and members of the Indian Military Police Force shall be exempted from the payment of any fees mentioned in Part I of the said schedule and also from the payment of the fees mentioned in Part II thereof when such fees are payable to the Registrar-General or a Government servant who is not a minister of religion.

The Registrar-General and every Registrar who is a Government servant and not a minister of religion shall keep a register in the form set forth in Schedule N, of all fees realized under Part I of Schedule M and shall remit such fees at the end of each month to the nearest treasury to be credited to Government. The Treasury officer shall give to each Registrar who remits such fees a certificate of the amount so credited and the Registrar shall send a copy of the certificate to the Registrar-General. Registrars who are not Government servants or who are ministers of religion may retain for their own use any fees which they realize under these rules.

19. When fees payable under section 35 are received by the Registrar-General or any person being a Government servant and not a minister of religion, having the custody of any such registers or records as are specified in Part II of Schedule M, such fees shall be entered in a register mentioned in the foregoing rule, and otherwise treated as if they were fees realized under sections 8, 23 and 25 of the Act (Part I of the same schedule). When such fees are realized by any other person, they may be retained by such person.

EXAMINATION OF MASTERS AND MATES.Instructions to Examiners and Notice to Candidates.

No. 120 Marine.—Notification.—The Government of Bengal desire to draw the attention of candidates to the fact that for all certificates of competency as Master or Mate in the Mercantile Marine, the qualifying service usually required is service performed in ordinary trading vessels. While the regulations relating to the examination of Masters and Mates provide for the acceptance in part of certain kinds of non-trading service (e.g., that performed in fishing boats, yachts, pilot vessels, &c.), non-trading service not specially provided for in the Regulations cannot be accepted as qualifying service unless it has been submitted to the Government of Bengal and their sanction obtained.

Service performed in War Department or Naval Ordnance vessels employed outside partially smooth water limits (see paragraph 125 of the Regulations) may be accepted as sea service to qualify a candidate for a Mate's or Master's Certificate for Home Trade Passenger Ships only. The service cannot be accepted towards qualifying a candidate for a Foreign-going Certificate unless there should be some very exceptional circumstances, when the case, together with all the candidate's papers, should be submitted to the Government of Bengal for their consideration.

Examiners are reminded that they should not allow any candidate to proceed with his examination until his service qualifications have been properly considered.

3. (a) Government reserves to itself the right to alter the quantity and class of opium to be offered for sale in each month. No reduction in the quantities to be sold, however, will be made without three months' previous notice.

(b) The chests sold for China will be marked in a distinguishing manner and covered by a special permit to be granted by Government.

(c) All chests of certified opium sold for export to China must be shipped from Calcutta, on or before the 15th of December 1913, and if they are not so shipped, the option will be cancelled, and permits for their export to China will not be given either in 1913 or at any future time.

4. The following are the conditions of sale. Government reserves to itself the right of altering all or any of these conditions after giving three months' previous notice, and power is reserved to vary the upset prices referred to in condition (ii) at any time without such previous notice:—

(i) The opium will be sold for exportation by sea only, and no certificate will be granted except to cover such export.

(ii) The opium will be ordinarily offered for sale at an upset price of Rs. 2,000 per chest of certified opium and of Rs. 1,200 per chest of uncertified opium and will be sold to the highest bidder above these prices except under the circumstances for which provision is made by clause xiii of these conditions of sale. The bids must advance by Rs. 5 at a time.

(iii) The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of Government, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Government may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

(iv) Each lot shall contain five chests.

(v) A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale

DEPOSIT.

When the amount bid is less than Rs. 1,200 per chest, Rs. 200 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,200 and upwards, but less than Rs. 1,600 per chest, Rs. 300 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,600 and upwards, but less than Rs. 2,000 per chest, Rs. 400 per chest.

And so on, Rs. 100 being added to the deposit for every bid additional to the extent of Rs. 400.

the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as Government shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

(vi) The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

(vii) The Promissory Notes taken on the day of sale under the fifth condition, if remaining unredeemed at 3-30 P.M. of the fifth day following the day of sale, or 1-30 P.M., if the last day falls on a Saturday, will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

(viii) No tender of money, Bank of Bengal receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause (v) on the fifth day following the day of sale, will be afterwards accepted: Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. (v) and No. (vi).

(ix) The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and, in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as Government shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

(x) Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests ordinarily required to be included in each certificate or order.

(xi) No deposit of public securities under the fifth of the present conditions will be received in this office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the sale-book, or his authorized agent. The receipt for deposit of public securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

(xii) The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand render at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal receipts, or Government securities, a sum equal to the amount for which a Promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

(xiii) With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually by Rs. 5 at a time until a bid is obtained; and the first bona fide bidder for a lot, after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum prices of Rs. 2,000 and Rs. 1,200 specified in the second of these conditions.

(xiv) The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether fifteen lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said fifteen.

(xv) In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

(5) The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the office of the Government of Bengal:—

No. 1—Certificate of the opium advertised for sale.

No. 2—Report of the examination of such opium.

(6) The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazipur Factory, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug, when packed at the Patna and Ghazipur Factories, and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the office of the Government of Bengal.

(7) Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the office of the Government of Bengal. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Government entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

3. (a) Government reserves to itself the right to alter the quantity and class of opium to be offered for sale in each month. No reduction in the quantities to be sold, however, will be made without three months' previous notice.

(v) The chests sold for China will be marked in a distinguishing manner and covered by a special permit to be granted by Government.

(c) All chests of certified opium sold for export to China must be shipped from Calcutta, on or before the 15th of December 1913, and if they are not so shipped, the option will be cancelled, and permits for their export to China will not be given either in 1913 or at any future time.

4. The following are the conditions of sale. Government reserves to itself the right of altering all or any of these conditions after giving three months' previous notice, and power is reserved to vary the upset prices referred to in condition (ii) at any time without such previous notice:—

(i) The opium will be sold for exportation by sea only, and no certificate will be granted except to cover such export.

(ii) The opium will be ordinarily offered for sale at an upset price of Rs. 2,000 per chest of certified opium and of Rs. 1,200 per chest of uncertified opium and will be sold to the highest bidder above these prices except under the circumstances for which provision is made by clause xiii of these conditions of sale. The bids must advance by Rs. 5 at a time.

(iii) The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of Government, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Government may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

(iv) Each lot shall contain five chests.

(v) A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale

DEPOSIT.

When the amount bid is less than Rs. 1,200 per chest, Rs. 200 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,200 and upwards, but less than Rs. 1,600 per chest, Rs. 300 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,600 and upwards, but less than Rs. 2,000 per chest, Rs. 400 per chest.

And so on, Rs. 100 being added to the deposit for every bid additional to the extent of Rs. 400

noted in the margin, shall be taken as a deposit on each lot from the purchaser in the sale-room and before the lot is registered in the sale-book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this office by Bank of Bengal receipts, or by substitution of other public securities of the Government of India, on or before 3-30 P.M., in the afternoon of the fifth day after the sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as Government shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

(vi) The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

(vii) The Promissory Notes taken on the day of sale under the fifth condition, if remaining unredeemed at 3-30 P.M. of the fifth day following the day of sale, or 1-30 P.M., if the last day falls on a Saturday, will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

(viii) No tender of money, Bank of Bengal receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause (v) on the fifth day following the day of sale, will be afterwards accepted: Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. (v) and No. (vi).

(ix) The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and, in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as Government shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

(x) Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests ordinarily required to be included in each certificate or order.

(xi) No deposit of public securities under the fifth of the present conditions will be received in this office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the sale-book, or his authorized agent. The receipt for deposit of public securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

(xii) The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand render at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal receipts, or Government securities, a sum equal to the amount for which a Promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

(xiii) With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually by Rs. 5 at a time until a bid is obtained; and the first bona fide bidder for a lot, after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum prices of Rs. 2,000 and Rs. 1,200 specified in the second of these conditions.

(xiv) The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether fifteen lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said fifteen.

(xv) In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

(5) The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the office of the Government of Bengal:—

- No. 1—Certificate of the opium advertised for sale.
- No. 2—Report of the examination of such opium.

(6) The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazipur Factory, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug, when packed at the Patna and Ghazipur Factories, and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the office of the Government of Bengal.

(7) Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the office of the Government of Bengal. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Government entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

By order of the Governor in Council,

J. DONALD,

Offg. Secretary.

Definitions.

1. These rules may be called the Bengal Legislative (Financial Statement) Rules, 1912.

2. In these rules—

(1) "Draft Financial Statement" means the preliminary financial proposals of the Local Government for the financial year next following ;

(3) "Revised Financial Statement" means the Amended Draft Financial Statement as revised by the Local Government in accordance with the instructions of the Government of India ;

(4) "Budget" means the Financial Statement as finally sanctioned by the Government of India after amendment with reference to resolutions passed in Council and accepted by the Local Government or to any special circumstances not previously foreseen ;

(5) "Finance Committee" means the Committee of the Council constituted under rules 3 and 4 ;

- (6) "Finance Member" means the Member of the Council appointed by the Governor to perform the functions of the Finance Member under these rules;
- (7) "Member in charge," with regard to any subject under discussion, means the Member of the Council appointed by the Governor to perform the functions of the Member in charge under these rules in respect of the business of the Department of the Local Government to which the subject under discussion pertains, and includes any Member to whom such Member in charge may delegate any function assigned to him by these rules;
- (8) "President" means—
- (a) the Governor, or
 - (b) in the absence of the Governor, the Vice-President appointed by the Governor under section 4 of the Indian Councils Act, 1909, or
 - (c) the Member appointed to preside under rule 40; and
- (9) "Secretary" means the Secretary to the Bengal Legislative Council, and includes the Assistant Secretary and every person for the time being exercising the functions of the Secretary.

The Draft Financial Statement.

3. On a day not later than the 5th day of January in every year, the Governor shall direct that a Finance Committee be constituted for the purpose of discussing the Draft Financial Statement and making proposals with reference thereto for the consideration of the Local Government.

4. (1) The Finance Committee shall consist of not more than twelve members, of whom not more than half shall be nominated by the Governor.

(2) The remaining members of the Committee shall be elected by the non-official members of Council by votes given under such procedure as the Governor may from time to time prescribe by notification in the Calcutta Gazette.

5. The Finance Member shall be the Chairman of the Committee, and in the case of an equality of votes on any matter shall have a second or casting vote.

6. (1) On a day not later than the 18th day of January in every year, the Local Government shall refer the Draft Financial Statement to the Finance Committee.

(2) The Draft shall comprise tabular statements showing—

- (a) the opening balance of the Provincial account;
- (b) the estimated Provincial revenue under the various major heads of account;
- (c) the estimated Provincial expenditure, under specific major heads, on existing establishments and schemes, and on new schemes the cost of which is not considerable or which the Local Government considers to be of an absolutely obligatory character;
- (d) the amounts available for maximum recurring expenditure and for total expenditure upon other new schemes, the latter being provisionally included under a head "Unallotted Expenditure"; and
- (e) the estimated closing balance.

(3) There shall be appended to the Draft Financial Statement a memorandum indicating as fully as possible the manner in which the Local Government provisionally proposes to allot the sum available for total expenditure on new schemes referred to in clause (d) of sub-rule (2), and also indicating, if thought desirable, alternative methods of distributing this expenditure. In respect of each suggestion thus made, the maximum recurring expenditure, and the total expenditure—(a) recurring and (b) non-recurring—which it is proposed to incur in the next financial year, shall be separately stated.

7. The Finance Committee shall consider how the provision made under the head "Unallotted Expenditure" referred to in clause (d) of sub-rule (2) of rule 6 shall be distributed among the specific major heads, and to what purposes the sums thus allotted should be applied:

Provided that—

- (i) the total provision for recurring and non-recurring expenditure on the new schemes shall not exceed the amount entered in the Draft Financial Statement as available for those purposes; and
- (ii) the limit of recurring expenditure shall be determined with reference to the maximum amount which a scheme will eventually involve, any difference between this figure and the recurring expenditure required to be provided in the Draft Financial Statement under discussion being made up by addition to non-recurring expenditure.

8. (1) The proceedings of the Committee shall be private and informal.

(2) They shall begin not later than the 20th day of January, and be completed not later than the 27th day of the same month.

(3) Free discussion shall be allowed, but the Chairman may at his discretion close discussion upon any particular item when he thinks that it cannot be continued with advantage.

(4) Where the question of making any particular provision in the estimates coming within the scope of the Committee's functions is in dispute, the Member in charge shall be heard in its support, and the Committee shall then proceed to vote, the decision being by a majority of votes.

9. The Finance Committee shall submit to the Local Government, not later than the 28th day of January, a report indicating the changes which it recommends in the Draft Financial Statement.

10. After considering the proposals of the Committee, the Local Government shall embody its own conclusions in the Draft Financial Statement, and shall refer the Statement thus amended to the Government of India.

The Amended Draft Financial Statement.

11. (1) The Amended Draft Financial Statement shall be presented to the Council as soon as possible after the presentation of the Financial Statement for India to the Legislative Council of the Governor-General.

(2) It shall comprise a memorandum by the Finance Member explaining the general financial situation of the Province in the current and ensuing years, together with memoranda explaining the estimates of revenue and expenditure under the various major heads or groups of major heads.

(3) Copies of the Amended Draft Financial Statement shall be supplied to the Members one week before the Statement is presented to the Council, with a note that the figures and remarks contained in it are liable to alteration.

12. On the day when the Amended Draft Financial Statement is presented to the Council, each head or group of heads in the Statement which is specified in the Schedule appended to these rules as being open to discussion shall be introduced separately by the Member in charge, according to such grouping as he may determine, with such explanations, supplementing the information contained in the Statement, as may appear to be necessary.

13. When all such heads have been so introduced, the Council shall be adjourned to such subsequent date, not later than the 13th day of March, as the President may determine.

The Revised Financial Statement.

14. (1) The Revised Financial Statement shall be presented to the Council on the subsequent date determined under rule 13, with such explanation as the Member in charge may deem necessary of any alterations which it has been found necessary to make in the figures or remarks contained in the Amended Draft Financial Statement.

(2) Copies of the Revised Financial Statement, together with copies of a memorandum by the Finance Member detailing the alterations referred to in sub-rule (1), shall be supplied to the Members not later than the day preceding that on which the Statement is presented to the Council.

15. (1) When the Revised Financial Statement is presented to the Council, any Member shall be at liberty to move any resolution relating to any question covered by any head or group of heads referred to in rule 12, of which due notice has been given, and which is entered in his name in the List of Business.

(2) The Council shall thereupon proceed to discuss every such resolution in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

16. No discussion shall be permitted in regard to any of the following subjects, namely :—

- (a) any subject removed from the cognizance of the Council by section 43 of the Indian Councils Act, 1861; or
- (b) any matter affecting the relations of His Majesty's Government or of the Government of India or of the Governor or the Governor in Council with any Foreign State or any Native State in India, or relating to the internal affairs of any such Native State; or
- (c) except with the sanction of the Governor, any matter which is the subject of discussion between the Government of India or the Secretary of State and the Local Government; or
- (d) any matter under adjudication by a Court of Law having jurisdiction in any part of His Majesty's dominions.

17. No resolution shall be moved which does not comply with the following conditions, namely :—

- (a) it shall be in the form of a specific recommendation addressed to the Governor in Council;
- (b) it shall be clearly and precisely expressed, and shall raise a definite issue;
- (c) it shall not contain arguments, inferences, ironical expressions or defamatory statements, nor shall it refer to the conduct or character of any person except in his official or public capacity;
- (d) it shall not challenge the accuracy of the figures of the Revised Financial Statement;
- (e) it shall be directly relevant to some entry in the Revised Financial Statement;
- (f) it shall not criticise any decision of the Government of India in respect of Provincial Finance; and
- (g) if it would in itself have the effect of causing the total expenditure of the Presidency to exceed the amount sanctioned by the Government of India, it must propose some counterbalancing reduction in the estimates so as to avoid such excess.

18. A Member who wishes to move a resolution shall give notice in writing to the Secretary prior to the date on which the Revised Financial Statement is presented to the Council, and shall, together with the notice, submit a copy of the resolution which he wishes to move :

Provided that the President may fix a date after which no notice of any such resolution may be received.

19. The President may disallow any resolution or part of a resolution without giving any reason therefor other than that in his opinion it cannot be moved consistently with the public interests or that it should be moved in the Legislative Council of the Governor-General.

20. (1) No discussion in Council shall be permitted in respect of any order of the President under rule 19.

(2) A resolution that has been disallowed shall not be entered in the proceedings of the Council.

21. Resolutions admitted by the President shall be entered in the List of Business in such order as he may direct.

Discussion of Resolutions.

22. (1) After the mover of a resolution has spoken, other Members may speak to the motion in such order as the President may direct, and thereafter the mover may speak once by way of reply.

(2) No Member other than the mover and the Member in charge shall speak more than once to any motion, except, with the permission of the President, for the purpose of making an explanation.

23. No speech, except with the permission of the President, shall exceed fifteen minutes in duration :

Provided that the mover of a resolution, when moving the same, and the Member in charge, may speak for thirty minutes.

24. The discussion of a resolution shall be limited to the subject of the resolution, and shall not extend to any matter as to which a resolution may not be moved.

25. A Member who has moved a resolution may withdraw the same, unless some other Member desires that it be put to the vote.

26. When, in the opinion of the President, a resolution has been sufficiently discussed he may close the discussion by calling upon the mover to reply and the Member in charge to submit any final observations which he may wish to make:

Provided that the President may, in any case, address the Council before putting the question to the vote.

27. If any resolution involves many points, the President may, at his discretion, divide it so that each point may be determined separately.

28. (1) Every question shall be decided by a majority of votes, the President having, in case of an equality of votes, a second or casting vote.

(2) Votes shall be taken by voices, by show of hands, or by division, and shall always be taken by division if any Member so desires.

(3) The President shall determine the method of taking votes by division.

29. (1) The President may assign such time as, with due regard to the public interests he may consider reasonable, for the discussion of resolutions or of any particular resolution.

(2) Every resolution which has not been put to the vote within the time so assigned shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

30. Every resolution, if carried, shall have effect only as a recommendation to the Governor in Council.

31. When a question has been discussed at a meeting of the Council, or when a resolution has been disallowed under rule 19 or withdrawn under rule 25, no resolution raising substantially the same question shall be moved within one year.

32. The discussion of the Revised Financial Statement shall be closed not later than the 16th day of March; or, if the discussion commences before the 13th day of March, then on the third day of the discussion.

The Budget.

33. (1) On such day as may be appointed in this behalf by the Governor, the Budget shall be presented to the Council by the Finance Member, who shall describe the changes that have been made in the figures of the Revised Financial Statement, and shall explain why any resolutions passed in Council have not been accepted.

(2) A printed copy of the Budget shall be given to each Member.

34. (1) The general discussion of the Budget in Council shall take place on such later day as may be appointed by the President for this purpose.

(2) At such discussion, any Member shall be at liberty to offer any observations he may wish to make on the Budget, but no Member shall be permitted to move any resolution in regard thereto, nor shall the Budget be submitted to the vote of the Council.

(3) It shall be open to the President, if he thinks fit, to prescribe a time-limit for speeches.

35. The discussion shall be limited to those branches of revenue and expenditure which are under the financial control of the Local Government, and it will not be permissible to enter upon criticisms of Imperial finance.

36. The Finance Member shall have the right of reply, and the discussion shall be closed by the President making such observations as he may consider necessary.

General.

37. (1) Every Member shall speak from his place, shall rise when he speaks, and shall address the President.

(2) At any time, if the President rises, any Member speaking shall immediately resume his seat.

38. (1) Any Member may send his speech in print to the Secretary so as to reach the latter not later than 11 A.M. on the second day before the day fixed for the discussion of a resolution, with eighty spare copies, and the Secretary shall cause one of such copies to be supplied to every Member.

(2) If any Member desires to have his speech printed at the Government Press he shall send it to the Secretary so as to reach him not later than 11 A.M. on the fifth day before the day fixed for the discussion of the resolution.

(3) Any such speech may, at the discretion of the President, be taken as read.

39. (1) The President shall preserve order, and all points of order shall be decided by him.

(2) No discussion on any point of order shall be allowed, unless the President thinks fit to take the opinion of the Council thereon.

(3) Any member may at any time submit a point of order for the decision of the President.

(4) The President shall have all powers necessary for the purpose of enforcing his decisions.

40. The Governor may appoint a Member of the Council to preside in his place, or in that of the Vice-President, on any occasion on which the Revised Financial Statement or the Budget or any portion thereof is discussed in the Council.

41. The President, for sufficient reason, may suspend any of the foregoing rules.

3. (a) Government reserves to itself the right to alter the quantity and class of opium to be offered for sale in each month. No reduction in the quantities to be sold, however, will be made without three months' previous notice.

(b) The chests sold for China will be marked in a distinguishing manner and covered by a special permit to be granted by Government.

(c) All chests of certified opium sold for export to China must be shipped from Calcutta, on or before the 15th of December 1913, and if they are not so shipped, the option will be cancelled, and permits for their export to China will not be given either in 1913 or at any future time.

1. The following are the conditions of sale. Government reserves to itself the right of altering all or any of these conditions after giving three months' previous notice, and power is reserved to vary the upset prices referred to in condition (ii) at any time without such previous notice—

(i) The opium will be sold for exportation by sea only, and no certificate will be granted except to cover such export.

(ii) The opium will be ordinarily offered for sale at an upset price of Rs. 2,000 per chest of certified opium and of Rs. 1,200 per chest of uncertified opium and will be sold to the highest bidder above these prices except under the circumstances for which provision is made by clause xiii of these conditions of sale. The bids must advance by Rs. 5 at a time.

(iii) The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of Government, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Government may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

(iv) Each lot shall contain five chests.

(v) A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale

DEPOSIT:

When the amount bid is less than Rs. 1,200 per chest, Rs. 200 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,200 and upwards, but less than Rs. 1,600 per chest, Rs. 300 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,600 and upwards, but less than Rs. 2,000 per chest, Rs. 400 per chest.

And to on, Rs. 100 being added to the deposit for every bid additional to the extent of Rs. 400.

noted in the margin, shall be taken as a deposit on each lot from the purchaser in the sale-room and before the lot is registered in the sale-book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this office by Bank of Bengal receipts, or by substitution of other public securities of the Government of India, on or before 3-30 P.M., in the afternoon of the fifth day after the sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as Government shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

(vi) The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

(vii) The Promissory Notes taken on the day of sale under the fifth condition, if remaining unredeemed at 3-30 P.M. of the fifth day following the day of sale, or 1-30 P.M., if the last day falls on a Saturday, will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

(viii) No tender of money, Bank of Bengal receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause (v) on the fifth day following the day of sale, will be afterwards accepted: Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. (v) and No. (vi).

(ix) The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and, in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as Government shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

(x) Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests ordinarily required to be included in each certificate or order.

(xi) No deposit of public securities under the fifth of the present conditions will be received in this office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the sale-book, or his authorized agent. The receipt for deposit of public securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

(xii) The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand render at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal receipts, or Government securities, a sum equal to the amount for which a Promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

(xiii) With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually by Rs. 5 at a time until a bid is obtained; and the first bona fide bidder for a lot, after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum prices of Rs. 2,000 and Rs. 1,200 specified in the second of these conditions.

(xiv) The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether fifteen lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said fifteen.

(xv) In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

(5) The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the office of the Government of Bengal:—

No. 1—Certificate of the opium advertised for sale.

No. 2—Report of the examination of such opium.

(6) The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazipur Factory, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug, when packed at the Patna and Ghazipur Factories, and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the office of the Government of Bengal.

(7) Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the office of the Government of Bengal. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Government entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

By order of the Governor in Council,

J. DONALD,

Offg. Secretary.

3. (a) Government reserves to itself the right to alter the quantity and class of opium to be offered for sale in each month. No reduction in the quantities to be sold, however, will be made without three months' previous notice.

(b) The chests sold for China will be marked in a distinguishing manner and covered by a special permit to be granted by Government.

(c) All chests of certified opium sold for export to China must be shipped from Calcutta, on or before the 15th of December 1913, and if they are not so shipped, the option will be cancelled, and permits for their export to China will not be given either in 1913 or at any future time.

4. The following are the conditions of sale. Government reserves to itself the right of altering all or any of these conditions after giving three months' previous notice, and power is reserved to vary the upset prices referred to in condition (i) at any time without such previous notice:—

(i) The opium will be sold for exportation by sea only, and no certificate will be granted except to cover such export.

(ii) The opium will be ordinarily offered for sale at an upset price of Rs. 2,000 per chest of certified opium and of Rs. 1,200 per chest of uncertified opium and will be sold to the highest bidder above these prices except under the circumstances for which provision is made by clause xiii of these conditions of sale. The bids must advance by Rs. 5 at a time.

(iii) The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of Government, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Government may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

(iv) Each lot shall contain five chests.

(v) A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale

DEPOSIT.

When the amount bid is less than Rs. 1,200 per chest, Rs. 200 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,200 and upwards, but less than Rs. 1,600 per chest, Rs. 300 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,600 and upwards, but less than Rs. 2,000 per chest, Rs. 400 per chest.

And so on, Rs. 100 being added to the deposit for every bid additional to the extent of Rs. 400.

the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as Government shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

(vi) The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

(vii) The Promissory Notes taken on the day of sale under the fifth condition, if remaining unredeemed at 3-30 P.M. of the fifth day following the day of sale, or 1-30 P.M., if the last day falls on a Saturday, will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

(viii) No tender of money, Bank of Bengal receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause (v) on the fifth day following the day of sale, will be afterwards accepted: Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. (v) and No. (vi).

(ix) The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and, in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as Government shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

(x) Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests ordinarily required to be included in each certificate or order.

(xi) No deposit of public securities under the fifth of the present conditions will be received in this office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the sale-book, or his authorized agent. The receipt for deposit of public securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

(xii) The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand render at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal receipts, or Government securities, a sum equal to the amount for which a Promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

(xiii) With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually by Rs. 5 at a time until a bid is obtained; and the first bond fide bidder for a lot, after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum prices of Rs. 2,000 and Rs. 1,200 specified in the second of these conditions.

(xiv) The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether fifteen lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said fifteen.

(xv) In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

(5) The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the office of the Government of Bengal:—

No. 1—Certificate of the opium advertised for sale.

No. 2—Report of the examination of such opium.

(6) The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazipur Factory, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug, when packed at the Patna and Ghazipur Factories, and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the office of the Government of Bengal.

(7) Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the office of the Government of Bengal. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Government entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

GEORGE, R. & I.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, to all to whom these presents shall come. Greeting:

Whereas, by Warrants under His late Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, dated the Eighth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and two and the second year of His Reign, the twenty-ninth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and six and the sixth year of His Reign, the twenty-seventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and eight, and the eighth year of His Reign, and the seventeenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nine in the ninth year of His Reign, His late Majesty, being desirous of recognising more fully than had theretofore been possible the faithful and meritorious services rendered to Him by Members of the Civil Services of the various parts of His Empire, did, for Himself, His Heirs and Successors institute and create a new Civil Order of Distinction—to be designated the Imperial Service Order—and He was graciously pleased to Make, Ordain, and Establish Rules and Ordinances for the government of the same:

And whereas We are minded to make certain amendments and additions to the Statutes of the Order.

Now, therefore, in pursuance and in the exercise of the power vested in Us by the aforesaid Statutes, and in order to enable Us to carry this Our Will and Pleasure into effect, We do hereby abrogate the aforesaid Statutes of the eighth day of August one thousand nine hundred and two, the twenty-ninth day of November one thousand nine hundred and six, the twenty-seventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and eight and the seventeenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nine and the same are abrogated accordingly, but without prejudice to any thing done thereunder; and in lieu thereof, We do by these Presents Make, Ordain, and Establish the following Statutes and Ordinances:

Firstly.—It is ordained that this Order shall henceforth be styled and designated "The Imperial Service Order."

Secondly.—It is ordained that the Order shall consist of the Sovereign, the Prince of Wales, and such Companions as We, Our Heirs, or Successors, shall appoint.

Thirdly.—It is ordained that We, Our Heirs and Successors, Kings and Queens Regnant of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperors and Empresses of India, are and for ever shall be Sovereigns of this Order.

Fourthly.—It is ordained that only the Members of the administrative or clerical branches of Our Civil Services shall be eligible for the distinction of Companions of this Order.

Fifthly.—It is ordained that the number of Companions of the Order shall not exceed seven hundred, of whom two hundred and fifty shall belong to Our Home Civil Service, two hundred to Our Civil Services in India, including the Staff of Our Secretary of State for India (one hundred appointments being reserved for Europeans and one hundred for natives of India), and two hundred and fifty to the Civil Services of Our Dominions beyond the Seas, and Countries under Our Protection, including the Staff of the Crown Agents for the Colonies.

Sixthly.—It is ordained that no person shall be eligible to be a Companion of the Order, whose name has not been laid before Us, Our Heirs or Successors, by one of Our or Their Principal Secretaries of State, and who has not at the time of his or her nomination rendered at least twenty-five years' meritorious service in Our said Civil Services: Provided that in the Indian Empire the minimum period of service in the case of Europeans shall be twenty years, and that in any part of Our Dominions beyond the Seas, or any Country under Our Protection, which under the Pension Acts or Regulations applying thereto, is recognised as unhealthy, the minimum of service shall be sixteen years: Provided also that it shall be competent to Us, Our Heirs or Successors, to appoint specially to the Order persons, who not having completed the aforesaid periods of service, have rendered such eminently meritorious service as to qualify them, in Our opinion, to become recipients of this distinction.

Seventhly.—It is ordained that when We, Our Heirs, and Successors, shall be pleased to appoint any person to be a Companion of the Order, such appointment shall be made by Warrant under Our Sign Manual and countersigned by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Eighthly.—It is ordained that the decoration to be worn by Companions of the Order shall be: for men, a Badge or Medallion of gold or enamel, bearing Our Imperial and Royal Cypher, and the words "For Faithful Service," both to be executed in dark blue enamel on a plaque or shield of gold, surrounded by a seven-pointed star of silver, surmounted by the Imperial Crown; and for women, a Badge or Medallion in all respects similar to the Badge or Medallion for men, save that the plaque or shield of gold shall be surrounded by a wreath of laurel in silver instead of a star surmounted by the Imperial Crown.

Ninthly.—It is ordained that the decoration shall be worn by male Companions on the left breast, suspended by a ribbon of one inch and-a-half in width, consisting of a strip of blue between two strips of crimson of equal size, and by female Companions on the left shoulder, suspended by a ribbon of the same colour and width, fashioned into a bow.

Tenthly.—It is ordained that the names of those upon whom We are pleased to confer the decoration shall be published in the London Gazette.

Eleventhly.—It is ordained that Companions of the Order shall have the privilege of adding the Letters "I. S. O." after their names.

Twelfthly.—It is ordained that members of any Order of Knighthood shall, if otherwise qualified, be eligible to become Companions of this Order, and that male Companions of this Order shall in no way be debarred from becoming thereafter Members of any Order of Knighthood for which their services may qualify them.

Thirteenthly.—It is ordained that the Imperial Service Order shall rank next to, and immediately after, Our Distinguished Service Order, and before the Fifth Class of Our Royal Victorian Order, and the Companions thereof shall, in all places and assemblies whatsoever, have place and precedence next to, and immediately after, the Companions of the Distinguished Service Order, and shall rank among themselves according to the dates of their respective nominations.

Fourteenthly.—It is ordained that it shall be competent to Us, Our Heirs and Successors, by a Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, to cancel and annul the appointment of any Companion of this Order, and that thereupon his name in the Register shall be erased; but that it shall be competent for the Sovereign to restore to the Order any person whose appointment may have been so cancelled and annulled when circumstances render it just and expedient so to do.

Fifteenthly.—It is ordained that those Members of Our Civil Services, who are not eligible for appointment as Companions of this Order may, on retirement from Our said Services, after not less than twenty-five years of meritorious service, or in the case of Europeans serving in the Indian Empire, after not less than twenty years of such service, or in the case of service in any part of Our Dominions beyond the Seas, or any Country under Our Protection which, under the Pension Acts or Regulations applying thereto, is recognized as unhealthy, after not less than sixteen years of such service, be awarded a Medal to be designated "The Imperial Service Medal": Provided that no such Medal shall be granted except on the recommendation of one of Our Principal Secretaries of State: Provided also that it shall be competent to Us, Our Heirs or Successors, to confer the Medal upon not more than five Members of Our Civil Services in each year, who have retired after less than twenty-five years' service, should the special circumstances in Our or Their opinion justify the grant.

Sixteenthly.—It is ordained that the Imperial Service Medal for men and for women shall in all respects be similar to the badge of the Imperial Service Order for men and women respectively, save that the plaque shall be of silver, instead of gold, and the star or wreath of laurel shall be of bronze instead of silver, and it is ordained that the Imperial Service Medal shall be worn in a similar manner to that prescribed for the Imperial Service Order, and that these Medals shall bear on the reverse the name of the recipient.

Seventeenthly.—It is ordained that the names of those persons to whom the Imperial Service Medal shall be granted shall be duly published in the London Gazette.

Eighteenthly.—It is ordained that it shall be competent for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, by a Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, to cancel and annul the award of any Imperial Service Medal, and that thereupon the name of the recipient in the Register shall be erased; but it shall be competent for the Sovereign to restore the Medal to any person whose name may have been so erased, when circumstances render it just and expedient so to do. And every person to whom the said Medal is awarded shall, before receiving the same enter into an agreement to return the Medal, if his name shall be erased as aforesaid.

Nineteenthly.—It is ordained that an Officer shall be appointed to the Order who shall be styled "Secretary and Registrar," and who shall be ex-officio a Companion of the Order.

Twentiethly.—It is ordained that the Secretary and Registrar of this Order shall be appointed by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and shall have the custody of the Archives of the Order, which shall be kept in the Office of Our Secretary of State for the Home Department. He shall attend the service of the Order and shall execute such directions as he may receive from Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Lastly.—We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, full powers of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispensing with these Regulations, or any part thereof, by a notification under the Sign Manual of the Sovereign of the Order.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's this ninth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the second year of Our Reign.

No. 793.—The following Royal Warrant relating to the Kaisar-i-Hind Medal, as amended up to date, is republished for general information :

Royal Warrant of 10th April 1900, instituting the Kaisar-i-Hind Medal, as amended by Royal Warrants of 8th July 1901 and 9th July 1912.

Whereas We, taking into Our Royal consideration that there do not exist adequate means whereby We can reward important and useful services rendered to Us in Our Indian Empire in the advancement of the public interests of Our said Empire, and taking also into consideration the expediency of distinguishing such services by some mark of Our Royal favour: Now for the purpose of attaining an end so desirable as that of thus distinguishing such services aforesaid, We have instituted and created, and by these presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, do institute and create a new Decoration—to be designated as hereinafter described.—and We are graciously pleased to make, ordain, and establish the following Rules and Ordinances for the government of the same which shall from henceforth be inviolably observed and kept.

Firstly.—It is ordained that this Decoration shall henceforth be styled and designated "The Kaisar-i-Hind Medal for Public Service in India."

Secondly.—It is ordained that any person without distinction of race, occupation, position, or sex, shall be eligible for this Decoration who shall have distinguished himself (or herself) by important and useful service in the advancement of the public interest in India.

Thirdly.—It is ordained that there shall be two classes of the Decoration to be styled respectively "The Kaisar-i-Hind Medal for Public Service in India" of the First Class and "The Kaisar-i-Hind Medal for Public Service in India" of the Second Class.

Fourthly.—It is ordained that awards of the Medal of the First Class shall be made by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and such awards shall only be made on a recommendation to Us by Our Secretary of State for India.

Fifthly.—It is ordained that awards of the Medal of the Second Class shall be made by Our Governor-General of India for the time being.

Sixthly.—It is ordained that the Medal shall consist of an oval-shaped Badge or Decoration—in gold for the First Class and in Silver for the Second Class—with the Royal Cypher of Ourselves, Our Heirs, and Successors in the centre on one side and on the reverse the words "Kaisar-i-Hind, for Public Service in India," and that it shall be suspended on the left breast by a dark blue ribbon.

Seventhly.—It is ordained that the names of those persons to whom a Medal of either Class may be awarded shall be published in the Gazette of India, and in the Gazette of the Local Government under the jurisdiction of which the service was rendered, and shall be entered in all Civil and Official lists, and that a registry of such names shall be kept in the Office of the Foreign Department of the Government of India.

Eighthly.—It is ordained that if any one, after having received either of the Medals, again renders such service as, if he had not received such Medal, would have entitled him to it, such further service shall be recorded by a bar attached to the ribbon by which the Medal is suspended; and for every such additional service an additional bar may be added.

Ninthly.—In order to make such additional provisions as shall effectually preserve pure this honourable Decoration, it is ordained that if any person on whom the Medal of the First Class is conferred be guilty of any crime or disgraceful conduct which in Our judgment disqualifies him for the same, his name shall, by an especial Warrant under Our Sign Manual, to be countersigned by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, be forthwith erased from the list of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred, and his Medal forfeited and returned to Us, Our Heirs and Successors; and in the case of those who have been awarded Medals of the Second Class, such erasure of their names from the lists of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred and forfeiture of their Medals shall be effected under the Order of Our Governor-General of India for the time being, to whom their Medals shall be returned. And every person to whom the said Medal is given shall, before receiving the same, enter into an engagement to return the same if his name shall be erased as aforesaid.

Provided that We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall at all times have power to restore the Medal of the First Class to any person who may have been deprived of it when circumstances render such restoration just and expedient, and that in like circumstances Our Governor-General of India for the time being shall have power by his Order to restore the Medal of the Second Class to any person who may have been deprived of it.

Lastly.—We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting or dispensing with these regulations or any part thereof by a notification under Our Royal Sign Manual.

No. 533F.E., dated Simla, the 19th August 1912.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Finance Department.

THE Resolutions adopted by the International Opium Commission which met at Shanghai in 1909 embodied certain important recommendations regarding the principles to be kept in view, and the measures to be taken by, the various participating countries in connection with their internal opium administration. The Resolutions in question were as follows :—

Resolution No. 2.—“ That in view of the action taken by the Government of China in suppressing the practice of opium smoking, and by other Governments to the same end, the International Opium Commission recommends that each delegation concerned move its own Government to take measures for the gradual suppression of the practice of opium smoking in its own territories and possessions, with due regard to the varying circumstances of each country concerned."

Resolution No. 3.—"That the International Opium Commission finds that the use of opium in any form otherwise than for medical purposes is held by almost every participating country to be a matter for prohibition or for careful regulation, and that each country in the administration of its system of regulation, purports to be aiming, as opportunity offers, at progressively increasing stringency. In recording these conclusions the International Opium Commission recognises the wide variations between the conditions prevailing in the different countries, but it would urge on the attention of the Governments concerned the desirability of a re-examination of their systems of regulation in the light of the experience of other countries dealing with the same problem."

The principle of these recommendations has been cordially accepted by the Governor-General in Council. It is indeed the principle that has always guided the action of Government of India, and their control over the employment of opium in this country has been marked by increasing vigilance and increasing strictness. They welcome, however, the present opportunity of bringing under review the whole field of their internal opium arrangements, and having re-examined, in consultation with Local Governments, the details of existing regulations, they are now in a position to indicate the general lines on which they consider it possible to increase the strictness of their control.

2. It has long been recognised, and it cannot be too clearly understood, that in India opium smoking stands on a very different footing from opium eating. Opium smoking is uniformly reprobated by public opinion; it is rarely resorted to for quasi-medical purposes; it is generally indulged in as a social vice; and the danger of its contagion, when practised in public, furnishes strong justification for adopting measures which approach as nearly as is practicable to total prohibition. On the other hand the practice of opium eating as it exists in India has little or no connection with what is generally known as the "opium habit." As was pointed out by the Royal Commission which reported in 1895, opium eating as a vice scarcely exists in India. That Commission found that opium in this country is extensively used for non-medical and quasi-medical purposes, that the non-medical uses are interwoven with the medical uses, that it would not be practicable to draw a distinction between them in the distribution and sale of the drug, and that it is not necessary that the growth of poppy and the manufacture and sale of opium in British India should be prohibited for all except medical purposes. Opium as taken in moderation by the average Indian is eaten either as a mild stimulant, or as a prophylactic against malaria, or for the relief of pain or in the treatment of diabetes. It is in fact a household remedy for many ills, and it is safe to say that as a national habit the eating of opium is less injurious than is the consumption of alcohol in many other countries. Centuries of inherited experience have taught the people of India discretion in the use of the drug, and its misuse is a negligible feature in Indian life. These conclusions were accepted by the Shanghai Commission, who, while they recommended the gradual suppression of the practice of opium smoking, refrained from advising the abandonment of the policy of regulation by which the practice of opium eating in this country has hitherto been successfully kept under restraint.

3. Under the existing law opium smoking is subject to very severe restrictions. The sale of smoking preparations of opium is absolutely prohibited throughout India proper, while their private manufacture is only allowed to the smoker himself, or, on his behalf, from opium lawfully in his possession, and, generally speaking, only to the extent of one tola at a time. The quantity of opium daily used by an opium smoker is so large in comparison to that used by an opium eater, and the inconvenience and difficulty involved in the repeated preparation for smoking are so great, that these restrictions hardly fall short of legal prohibition. After careful consideration, however, of the replies of Local Governments the Government of India have come to the conclusion that the time is ripe for taking further steps in the direction of direct and unqualified prohibition.

They consider, that is to say, that it is desirable to suppress all public gatherings for the purpose of smoking opium, whether they are called saloons, clubs or social assemblies, or by any other name whatever, and to prohibit all manufacture of opium smoking preparations save by an individual of a small quantity for his own private consumption. They consider that this prohibition should apply to the whole of British India, including Burma, and they will invite Local Governments which have, or will have, Legislative Councils to introduce legislation with this object while for areas without Legislative Councils a similar measure will be introduced into the Imperial Council.

4. The Government of India have no desire to dictate to Legislative Councils the exact form which legislation should take, but it should, they think, be provided that an assembly of three or more persons for the purpose of smoking opium should be declared illegal, no exception being made in favour of members of the same family, and that the presence of opium smoking pipes or other apparatus, or of any quantity of smoking preparations, either singly or in combination, should be held sufficient to raise the presumption of an intention to smoke opium. They further consider that the working of such legislation should be entrusted, wherever possible, to excise officials rather than to the police.

5. The maximum limit of private possession of opium smoking preparations will be determined for each province by its Local Government with due regard to local circumstances. The limit at present is three tolas in Burma, where the smoking preparations in use are beinsi and beinchi; it has recently been reduced in Madras to half a tola or 90 grains; in the rest of the provinces it is a tola or 180 grains; and the Bombay Government have suggested as low a limit as 45 grains. The Madras limit of half a tola will probably be found sufficient for most provinces. The Government of India do not desire to restrict the discretion of Local Governments in the matter, but they consider that a daily dose as required by an ordinary consumer should be the maximum limit of possession. The question of fixing a limit for the collective possession of opium smoking preparations does not arise, as collective smoking by three or more persons is to be prohibited, but it may be desirable to lay down that the limit of possession by two individuals will be double the quantity allowed for one, with the proviso that where this quantity is exceeded each of the two individuals will be held guilty of possessing an amount in excess of the lawful limit. While the Government of India are anxious to make the prohibition against collective opium smoking effective, they recognise the difficulties and dangers that beset any attempt to interfere with the private habits of any portion of the population, and they do not desire that any interference with the private practice of opium smoking by single individuals should be undertaken. Such interference would, they think, open the door to inquisitorial proceedings, and offer very little chance of real success.

6. The foregoing remarks relate to the policy of absolute prohibition which the Government of India have always entertained as their ideal in the matter of opium smoking. They have re-examined also their policy of regulation of opium eating, and have given their most careful consideration to all practicable proposals for preventing its misuse. One reform which has been suggested is the introduction of a system of official vend, under which the retail sale of opium would be conducted by salaried vendors who would have no interest in forcing sales. Such a system already obtains, to all intents and purposes, in Burma, where special circumstances, such as the history of the province and the characteristics of its people, have necessitated the adoption of special measures. After careful consideration the Government of India feel unable to recommend any system of official sale either absolutely in Burma, or to any extent in the other provinces. They consider that it would be a retrograde step to associate Government so closely with the retail vend of opium, and they see no sufficient reason to interfere with the existing systems which have so far been found to work well.

7. The Government of India have also had under their consideration the question of the price at which opium should be issued from the Government treasuries. This is a most important matter, as the issue price is the chief factor in determining the price at which opium is sold to the public by the retail trade. It has recently been examined by the majority of Local Governments and the scale of issue prices has been raised wherever the local circumstances permitted. It is possible however that some further enhancement may be effected, the principle to be observed being that the price of opium should be so fixed as to make its consumption a luxury, and the Government of India will favourably consider any further proposals directed to this end. The equalisation of prices has also to be considered. Hitherto certain factors, such as the presence of opium cultivation or a high or low rate of consumption in the district affected, have been held to necessitate differential treatment of particular areas in the fixation of issue prices. But it is desirable to have these principles thoroughly examined, and Local Governments will be addressed on the subject, with a view to the adoption of such measures as are possible to ensure uniformity in contiguous areas administered from different centres, and to minimise the risk of smuggling from cheap-level areas to those in which the prices are high.

8. The advisability of reducing the legal limit of private possession of opium is another question to be borne in mind at every re-examination of opium regulations. This limit is at present three tolas in the majority of provinces. Where it is higher, suitable reductions are being made in consultation with Local Governments. The limit in Madras has already been reduced from three tolas to one tola, and in the Central Provinces it is being reduced from three tolas to two tolas.

9. Among the minor reforms suggested, and in some provinces already carried out, are a reduction in the number of opium retail shops, a further restriction of the hours of sale, and the raising of the purchaser's minimum age below which sale is not permissible. These are all within the competence of Local Governments, and have duly been considered by them. They are matters concerning which the decision must vary with local circumstances, and the Government of India have no desire to elaborate any hard-and-fast rules governing them.

10. The urgent necessity of a self-contained body of rules relating to morphia and allied opium compounds has also been brought to the notice of the Government of India, and stress has been laid on the desirability of their unification for the whole of British India (including Burma). At present the regulations which apply to morphia and allied compounds are scattered through the Opium or Excise Manuals of the different provinces. They are not in all cases clear, and they are not easy to consult, as provisions about ordinary opium or smoking preparations of opium are mixed up with the provisions about morphia and allied compounds, although the provisions in the case of all these forms of opium tend to diverge more and more every day. Again the diversity in the morphia rules from province to province is often purely accidental, and, while it is a source of weakness to the administration, it supplies loop-holes for smugglers and criminals. In the case of a drug like morphia there are no special local conditions to be allowed for, and the Government of India think that unified rules for the whole of British India will be both easier for officials to enforce and simpler for the people to understand. They will be glad, therefore, if Local Governments will bring together their rules about morphia and allied compounds in a self-contained form, examine them with a view to such amendment in the direction of greater stringency as may be considered suitable, and then forward them to the Government of India for final unification.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

No. 867.—In supersession of the rules contained in Army Department Notification No. 31, dated the 13th January 1911, the following regulations for the grant of Study Leave to officers of the Indian Medical Service are published for information:—

Regulations regarding the grant of Study Leave to Officers of the Indian Medical Service.

1. Extra furlough for the purpose of study may be granted to officers of the Indian Medical Service on the recommendation of the Director-General, Indian Medical Service.
2. The period of such Study Leave will be calculated in the case of an officer taking Study Leave while under Military Leave Rules at the rate of one-twelfth of pension service, and in the case of an officer taking Study Leave while under Civil Leave Rules at the rate of one-twelfth of the same service as qualifies for his furlough under articles 302 and 303 of the Civil Service Regulations, up to a total in any case of 12 months in all during an officer's service.
3. Study Leave may be taken at any time, but will not be granted more than twice in the course of an officer's service. The conversion under rule 8 of part of an officer's furlough into Study Leave does not count as a grant of Study Leave within the meaning of this rule.
4. The minimum period of study which will render an officer eligible for Study Leave shall be two months.
5. The minimum period of leave granted solely as Study Leave shall be six months. Time spent on the journey to and from India by an officer whose Study Leave is not combined with any other kind of leave, will reckon as Study Leave, but the allowance specified in Rule 10 will be granted during the period of study only. An officer whose Study Leave is combined with any other kind of leave will, however, be required to take his period of Study Leave at such a time as to retain, at its conclusion, a balance of other previously sanctioned leave sufficient to cover his return journey to India.

When an officer has been granted a definite period of Study Leave and finds after arrival in England that his course of study will fall short of the sanctioned period to any considerable extent, his absence from India will be reduced by the excess period of Study Leave unless he produces the assent of the authorities in India to his taking it as ordinary furlough.

6. Study Leave can be combined with any other kind of leave, provided the period occupied in study is not less than two months and, in the case of leave on medical certificate, provided that the Medical Board at the India Office certifies that the officer is fit for study. In the case, however, of officers in military employment, Study Leave cannot be taken in continuation of the combined privilege leave and furlough admissible under the terms of India Army Order No. 64 of 1904, if the total period would thereby exceed eight months, but Study Leave may be so taken provided such leave is for not less than two months, and the total period of combined privilege leave, furlough and Study Leave does not exceed eight months; this limitation to eight months does not, however, apply in the case of Study Leave combined with privilege leave alone. The total period of absence from duty in India, in the case of officers under the Leave Rules of 1886 for the Indian Army, will be strictly limited to two years.

7. Except as provided in Rule 8, all applications for Study Leave shall be submitted, with the audit officer's certificate, to the Director-General, Indian Medical Service, through the prescribed channel, and the course or courses of study contemplated and any examination the candidate proposes to undergo shall be clearly specified therein.

8. Officers on furlough who wish to have part of their furlough converted into Study Leave should address the Under-Secretary of State, India Office, and should furnish a statement showing how it is proposed to spend the Study Leave. Similarly, officers on furlough or other leave who desire to have it extended for purposes of study should address the Under-Secretary of State, but in addition to the statement of the proposed study they must support their applications with documentary evidence of their having obtained the approval of the authorities concerned in India to their applying for an extension of leave.

9. An officer who is at home on combined leave may be permitted to commence a course of study before the end of his privilege leave, and to draw for such period the lodging allowance admissible under Rule 10, without forfeiting his privilege leave allowances during such period. For all purposes of record and subsequent calculation of leave, the full amount of Study Leave taken shall in such cases be postdated as if it commenced at the end of the Privilege Leave.

10. For the course of study, lodging allowance at the rate of 8s. a day for a field officer, 6s. for a Captain, and 4s. for a Lieutenant, will be granted on the production of the certificates required by Rule 12. It is to be understood that in order to qualify for the grant of Study Leave or for the receipt of lodging allowance, a definite course of study at a recognised institution, which will occupy the time of the officer for five or six days a week, must be pursued. This allowance will not be admissible to an officer who retires from the service without returning to duty in India after a period of Study Leave. Lodging allowance will be admissible up to 14 days for any period of vacation.

11. The rate of pay admissible during Study Leave is as follows:—

- A. To an officer taking Study Leave while under Military Leave Rules: the rate of furlough pay admissible to him under those rules.
- B. To an officer taking Study Leave while under Civil Leave Rules: the rate prescribed in Article 314 of the Civil Service Regulations for an officer on ordinary furlough, subject to the limits laid down in Article 314 (a).

12. On completion of a course of study a certificate on the proper form (which may be obtained from the India Office), together with any certificates of special study, should be forwarded to the Under-Secretary of State, India Office, who will arrange for the transmission of copies of the documents to the Director-General, Indian Medical Service. Officers may also be called upon to report themselves in person to the President of the Medical Board, India Office, on the conclusion of their course of study.

13. Study Leave will count as service for promotion and pension, but, except, so far as it may be taken during privilege leave (see Rule 9), it will not count for furlough or any other leave. It will not affect any leave which may already be due to an officer; and will not be taken into account in reckoning the aggregate amount of furlough taken by an officer towards the maximum period of six years admissible under Article 299 of the Civil Service Regulations.

Simla, the 6th September 1912.

No. 1306.—The following papers having been presented to Parliament by His Majesty's Secretary of State for India are published for general information:—

No. 6, dated Simla, the 11th July 1912.

From—The Government of India, Home Department,

To—THE MOST HONOURABLE THE MARQUIS OF CREWE, K.G., His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

We have the honour to address you regarding the criminal proceedings taken in the Bombay Courts against Khan Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Khan (commonly described as the Khan of Hoti Mardan) and two others. The case has been the occasion of much comment in the press in this country, and we observe that it has also formed the subject of various questions put by members of the House of Commons, the remarks of the Honourable Sir Dinshaw D. Davar, Judge of the Bombay High Court, in discharging the accused in the Sessions Court, having been made the basis of unfavourable criticism of the conduct of the different officers concerned with the case. Enquiries on the subject have also been made in our own Legislative Council. In addition to deductions drawn from the order of the Honourable Judge, charges of malice and bad faith (to which reference has also been made in the House of Commons) have been freely brought in the press against the Honourable Lieutenant-Colonel Sir George Roos-Keppel, K.C.I.E., Agent to the Governor-General and Chief Commissioner of the North-West Frontier Province, in connection with other incidents which are referred to in detail below. In these circumstances we have thought it proper to make a full enquiry into the facts of the matter, and having given our most careful consideration to the records of the case and to the explanations of those whose action has been impugned, we desire to lay our conclusions before Your Lordship.

2. The three accused persons against whom the criminal case was instituted were, respectively, Khan Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Khan and a Mr. and Mrs. King. The former is a rich landowner, resident at Hoti Mardan in the North-West Frontier Province; the title of Khan Bahadur was conferred upon him in 1896, and he is also an Honorary Magistrate. The man, King, is a Eurasian chauffeur in the employment of the Khan Bahadur, the other accused being his wife. The circumstances in which criminal proceedings came to be taken were as follows:—

On the 9th October 1911, the Sister Superior of the St. Joseph Foundling Home, Bombay, appeared before the Commissioner of Police of that city and complained that two girls, Miss Elsie Swannell (aged 20) and Miss Daisy Coutts (aged 22) had been induced by Mrs. King to go from Bombay to Mardan on the allegation that they were required as companions of the Rani of Hoti Mardan, the wife of the Khan Bahadur; she added that from letters received by her she suspected that the girls had been deceived as to the real object for which they were required. Upon receipt of this information the Commissioner of Police despatched the following telegram to the District Superintendent of Police, Rawalpindi (at which place the girls were then known to be):—

“Two girls, Elsie Swannell and Miss Coutts, aged about 23, taken from Foundling's Home, Mazagaon, Bombay, by one Mrs. King, ostensibly to attend on Rani of Hoti Mardan. Taken to Rawalpindi on 1st and living with Mrs. King at Malik Mohan Singh's bungalow, Edwardes Road. From letters received it appears there is no Rani, and girls have been taken away for immoral purposes. Sister Superior wishes girls interviewed; she fears they are kept under restraint, and if willing they should be returned Bombay. Wire reply.”

Upon the receipt of a reply, which, he states, confirmed his suspicion that the girls had been taken away for immoral purposes, the Commissioner of Police, on the 11th October, sent instructions to Rawalpindi as follows:—

“Thanks for prompt action. Please entrain girls for Bombay with letter on me and ask Railway Police to see them safely through. Wire when they arrive.”

The girls were accordingly sent back from Rawalpindi to Bombay in the care of the police, and upon arrival there Miss Swannell made a lengthy statement, of which we annex a copy (enclosure No. 1). Miss Coutts also certified as to the correctness of the allegations, which were, briefly, to the effect that Miss Swannell had been an inmate of the Foundling Home, when the accused Mrs. King, under the name of Henderson, had visited that institution on or about the 15th September, and stated that two girls were required as governesses for two boys, the children of the Rani of Hoti Mardan, and to teach the Rani English. After various negotiations, in the course of which the girl was photographed, she left Bombay on the 23rd September along with Mrs. King, being joined at the station by Miss Coutts. In company the three travelled to Hoti Mardan, being met by Mr. King en route at Nowshera, and reached Mardan on the 25th. At that station they were received by the Khan Bahadur, and conversation ensued as to whether the girls tallied with their photographs. Eventually they were taken to a house in the bazaar, and next day, on enquiring as to their duties, they were told that they need not trouble, as the Khan Bahadur knew they were tired and the Rani had gone to Murree. That same morning the Khan Bahadur visited them, bringing food and drink, and interviewed the two girls alone. In the course of conversation, he introduced suggestive allusions and endeavoured to place his hand upon Miss Swannell in an indecent manner. The girls replied that they had not come for that kind of purpose, but to work for the Rani, and eventually the Khan Bahadur left them.

The girls complained to the Kings, who attempted to make excuses and offered apologies, but the girls expressed a wish to leave; they stayed on, however, till the 30th September, being told on the 29th idem that the Rani had arrived, although she did not want then to see them. They were given nothing in the nature of work as governesses, and were put off by excuses from the Kings when they asked about their duties. On the 30th, they were told that the police were making* enquiries and that they were not to show themselves on the verandah, but that same evening they were hurriedly told to pack up, to cover their heads with towels, and be ready to leave for Rawalpindi. On the way to the station at night they were taken to a garden, where they again met the Khan Bahadur, and had interviews with him separately in a structure referred to as a "museum," though it appears to be a kind of summer house. In her evidence before the Committing Magistrate Miss Coutts stated that the Khan Bahadur then endeavoured to put his arm round her waist, and in her statement to the Commissioner of Police Miss Swannell stated that he endeavoured to touch her indecently and made other overtures. Both girls resisted the suggestions, and eventually the Khan Bahadur complained to the Kings that they were sulky and allowed them to go. They proceeded to Rawalpindi by train and stayed there in a bungalow with the Kings till the 9th or 10th October, when they were interviewed by the District Superintendent of Police and a Roman Catholic priest, and eventually left for Bombay on the 11th idem. Before leaving, the accused King told them not to be afraid as the police could do nothing, since he would say that he had brought them to teach his children. He asked them to tell the same story, but the girls refused. Miss Swannell concluded her statement as follows:—

"Had I known that I was to be taken to Hoti Mardan for the purpose for which I was taken I would not have gone. I was deceived and abducted, and had it not been for timely interference I do not know what would have happened to me and my companion. I request that the parties concerned be dealt with according to law."

3. We have referred to this statement in some detail since it is the basis upon which action was subsequently taken, and it was repeated at greater length on two occasions by Miss Swannell, both before the Committing Magistrate and at the High Court Sessions, when her evidence was practically unshaken by the very severe cross-examination she had to undergo. Upon receipt of this information the Commissioner of Police referred the matter to the Local Government, which decided that Mrs. King and her husband should be prosecuted under section 366 of the Indian Penal Code, but did not propose to take action against the Khan Bahadur as it seemed possible that he might have asked the Kings to procure him consenting girls. The Bombay Government were also under the impression that the Khan Bahadur was an independent Chief (Miss Swannell referred to him in her account as "the Chief"), and they, therefore, merely brought the matter to the notice of the Chief Commissioner of the North-West Frontier Province in order that he might take such notice as he thought fit of the Khan Bahadur's objectionable conduct (enclosure No. 2). Upon receipt of this communication from the Bombay Government the Chief Commissioner transferred the letter to the Deputy Commissioner, Peshawar, on the 17th December with the following endorsement:—

"Transferred in original to the Deputy Commissioner, Peshawar, for necessary and early action and return."

The Deputy Commissioner (Mr. Grant, C.I.E., I.C.S.) formed the opinion that the papers (which included a complaint made before the Commissioner of Police, who has the status of a District Magistrate in Bombay) disclosed a charge against the Khan Bahadur of the abetment of an offence under section 366 of the Indian Penal Code, and that the only course open to him was to issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused. This was accordingly done, the warrant being entrusted to the District Superintendent of Police, personally, with instructions to execute it in as unostentatious a manner as possible and to show every consideration to the Khan Bahadur. The latter was accordingly arrested on the 20th December and lodged in the Peshawar Jail. The offence with which he was charged is non-bailable, and the Deputy Commissioner refused to accept bail, but on the 28th December this was allowed on application to the Judicial Commissioner. Meanwhile on the 21st December, the Deputy Commissioner had informed the Chief Commissioner of his action (enclosure No. 3) and made enquiry as to the most convenient place of trial, suggesting that this should be held at Bombay, and on the 22nd idem the Chief Commissioner communicated the facts both by telegram and letter to the Bombay Government (enclosures Nos. 4 and 5). Eventually, at the instance of the barrister representing the Khan Bahadur, it was arranged that a joint trial should be held in Bombay, where the Kings had already been arrested (while living under the false name of D'Souza) on the 23rd December. The three accused were accordingly brought before the Chief Presidency Magistrate, Bombay, by whom evidence was recorded on the 26th, 27th and 30th January. Apart from formal testimony and that of the two girls, the witnesses comprised the Sister Superior of the Foundling Home, who detailed the circumstances in which Miss Swannell had been engaged, corroborating her statement that she was told that two governesses were required for two boys, aged 6 and 10, and as companion to the Rani; she also produced the letter from the girl that had led her to think that something was wrong; the District Superintendent of Police, Rawalpindi, who dealt with the circumstances under which he had interviewed the girls and despatched them to Bombay; another woman (Mrs. Rogers) who had been approached by Mrs. King with a view to her employment, although no agreement was come to; and a former servant of the Khan Bahadur's who spoke of King having boasted that he was procuring girls for his master and of the arrangements for their reception. This witness stated that the inmates of the Khan Bahadur's household comprised his wife, his son (aged 35) and the son's daughter (aged 6 or 7). The two Kings reserved their defence in the Lower Court, but the Khan Bahadur filed a written statement alleging that besides his son he had three daughters, while his son's wife and daughter also resided with him. He claimed to have sent Mrs. King to Bombay to engage two governesses for his daughters and grandchild, and while the three meetings with the girls at Mardan (at the railway station, bungalow and garden house respectively) were admitted, it was represented that the accused had merely questioned the girls at the bungalow as to their qualifications and had told King to send them back to Bombay as they were not likely to make efficient governesses. The meeting in the garden was said to have been at the instance of the girls in order that they might thank him and say good-bye. It was stated that the girls had accompanied the Kings to Rawalpindi at their own request, and all charges of indecent behaviour or improper motives in bringing the girls to Mardan were absolutely denied. It was represented that the accused was too old and feeble to have any such desire.

4. We annex a certified copy of the proceedings before the Chief Presidency Magistrate (enclosure No. 6), and it will be seen that on the 30th January the three accused were committed for trial before the Sessions of the High Court on the charge of having abducted and abetted the abduction of the two girls in order that they might be forced or seduced to illicit intercourse, or knowing it to be likely that they would be so forced or seduced, and that the offence was committed in consequence of such abetment. The case was heard at the Criminal Sessions by the Hon'ble Sir Dinshaw D. Davar on the 13th February 1912, and a copy of the Honourable Judge's notes (enclosure No. 7) is herewith submitted. After the charge of abduction had been withdrawn as against the Khan Bahadur and the man King (leaving that of abetment of this offence only), Miss Swannell was examined and cross-examined on the 13th, 14th and 15th idem, on the termination of which the Advocate-General (on behalf of the Crown) informed the Court that after very careful consideration he had come to the conclusion that he would withdraw the case and that he would not further prosecute the accused on the charges on which they were under trial. The learned Judge accordingly passed an order of discharge, amounting to an acquittal, and a copy of his order (enclosure No. 8) is herewith annexed. In conclusion the Court observed as follows:—

"I have no hesitation in saying that the third accused, as well as the humbler two, will leave this Court without a stain on their character. Nothing that has transpired in this case during the last three days had justified the smallest reflection being cast on the good character of the two young ladies."

5. Such being in brief the history of these criminal proceedings, we now proceed to enumerate and discuss one by one the particular features or incidents in the case upon which stress has been laid in order to justify allegations of malice, negligence or perversity against the action of our officers connected, or alleged to be connected, with the prosecution. We must first observe, however, that the Honourable Judge who tried the case himself remarked that "so far as the Bombay Police were concerned, they have throughout these proceedings acted in a perfectly proper and legal manner," and it is therefore unnecessary for us to discuss the propriety of the action taken by the Bombay Police. The charges of misconduct brought against our officers fall into two classes: those which are based upon the observations contained in the order of the learned Judge, or upon questions in Parliament or comments in the press arising from those observations; and those which are inspired from outside sources and find no mention or reference in the criminal proceedings.

To the former category—to take them in the order, and as far as possible in the language, in which they were mentioned by the Court—belong the following allegations:—

- (a) That in Upper India the Khan Bahadur was subjected to a great many indignities.
- (b) That the procedure followed by the authorities in Upper India was "ununderstandable," and this again may be subdivided under three heads:—

- (i) That the statements of the girls, even if true, afforded no sufficient grounds upon which action should have been taken. On this point the following remarks by the Court indicate the line of argument adopted:—

"Even assuming that the third accused tried to take liberties with them, these were liberties that they did not seem to resent in any way, except by saying that they were not that kind of people . . . I have heard with patience Miss Swannell's evidence for the last three days, and accepting every statement she had made to be true, the only impression that can be produced on one's mind is that there were certain acts of the accused which she apprehended to be the acts of familiarity, but they were acts of a most trifling nature."

- (ii) That the girls were living quite contentedly at Rawalpindi, having made no complaint to any one, and that the police "without any justification whatever" had taken out a search warrant. Even then "if the Superintendent of Police who executed the warrant had not made a statement which has been proved and is admitted to be incorrect, these girls would never have desired to come back to Bombay. They were perfectly at peace and were quite content to live at Rawalpindi or return to Hoti Mardan, when the police took possession of them, kept them in their custody, and then sent them down to Bombay in police custody, after representing to them that there was no Begum at Hoti, a statement which is admittedly untrue."

- (iii) That the Khan Bahadur was arrested on nobody's complaint and was asked to go down to Bombay to answer a charge when there was no charge whatever pending against him. The whole procedure is characterised as "most irregular and arbitrary."

As coming within the second category of charges which are insinuated in questions asked in the House of Commons, the following have been brought to our notice:—

- (c) That on the 5th April 1911 Sirdar Mir Alam Khan Sahib, Extra Assistant Commissioner, Peshawar, and Maulvi Ghulam Hassan Khan, Sub-Registrar and Honorary Magistrate, Peshawar, contrary to the standing orders of Government had asked the Khan Bahadur with menaces to subscribe towards the funds of the Islamia College, Peshawar, a project in which the Chief Commissioner was personally interested; and that the Khan Bahadur, having refused to subscribe, was shortly afterwards arrested, imprisoned without bail and subjected to many indignities upon a charge which the High Court ultimately dismissed, after condemning the whole procedure as most irregular and arbitrary (Question by Mr. MacCallum Scott, dated the 11th April 1912).

- (d) That a Manual of Pushtu has been compiled by Sir George Roos-Keppel (while a Major) containing offensive personal allusions to the Khan Bahadur, and that the name of the Chief Commissioner was used in a letter from two officials demanding with menaces a subscription to the Islamia College, on refusal to pay which the Khan Bahadur was arrested on a false charge and subjected to many indignities (Question of Mr. MacCullum Scott, dated the 11th April 1912).
- (e) That the Khan Bahadur while in the Peshawar Jail handed his agent four telegrams, addressed respectively to His Majesty the King, His Excellency the Viceroy, Your Lordship and the Foreign Secretary to the Government of India, and that these telegrams were suppressed by the post office officials and handed over to the local authorities (Question by Mr. Keir Hardie, dated the 7th May 1912).

We have not specified in detail other questions by these members and by the Earl of Ronaldshay (on the 26th March 1912), which cover generally the same issues as are raised by the order of the learned Judge or points similar to those which are taken by the members named. These, broadly speaking, emphasise the position and alleged high character of the Khan Bahadur as an additional reason, in particular, why he should have been allowed bail.

We deal with these contentions seriatim below.

6. Allegation (a).—If it be assumed for the moment that the local officers had reasonable grounds for their action in directing the arrest of the Khan Bahadur at all, a matter which is discussed subsequently, the alleged “indignities” can only be supposed to infer either some gross want of consideration to the Khan Bahadur in the circumstances in which the warrant against him was executed, or during the period of his detention in jail. The refusal to grant bail to him in the first instance is doubtless also held to fall within this description. As to these complaints we annex copies of a statement of the Deputy Commissioner explaining his action, of the Assistant Superintendent of Police who actually made the arrest, and of the Superintendent of the Peshawar Jail in which the Khan Bahadur was confined (enclosures Nos. 9, 10 and 11). Mr. Grant’s reasons for refusing bail are clearly stated by him. The offence was by law non-bailable, he considered that there were strong grounds for believing that the Khan Bahadur had instigated the offence for which the Kings were being charged, and he took into consideration the facts that flight across the frontier is a factor to be reckoned with in the Peshawar district, while it is a common Indian experience that enlargement on bail is used by wealthy and powerful persons to bribe and intimidate witnesses. It is true that bail was eventually accepted by the order of the Judicial Commissioner (vide copy of the proceedings in that Court—enclosure No. 12), but on the other hand it was disallowed in Bombay by the Committing Magistrate. In a non-bailable case a competent Court has the power to refuse bail, and it is to be remembered that the Chief Presidency Magistrate considered the evidence sufficient to justify the commitment of the accused. This being the case, we consider that the Deputy Commissioner in no way exceeded his powers, and that there is not the slightest reason for suspecting any want of bona fides in the action which he took. No question probably would have been raised had the accused been of ordinary status, and we are unable to accede to any argument that, in the case of rich and influential persons, Magistrates should be guided by considerations which in other cases they would not regard as valid.

Criticism has also been directed against the procedure of the Deputy Commissioner, in that the Khan Bahadur, after his arrest, was not promptly produced before a court in accordance with section 81 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Mr. Grant has explained his action as having been instigated by the wish to save the Khan Bahadur from the unpleasantness of a public appearance in Court, pending the result of the reference made as to the holding of trial at Bombay. His subsequent offer to afford such a hearing was declined by the counsel for the accused. The latter was thus, in our opinion, in no way prejudiced by the technical irregularity which had been committed, mainly by reason of the consideration shown to his state of health.

It has already been mentioned that the Deputy Commissioner took special steps to ensure the execution of the warrant in a considerate manner, and the statement of the Assistant Superintendent of Police (enclosure No. 10) shows that these instructions were fully complied with, while the explanation of the Jail Superintendent (enclosure No. 11) indicates that while in jail the Khan Bahadur was allowed concessions which would not have been accorded to a prisoner of lower social position.

Unless it is to be held that a person of the standing of the Khan Bahadur is to be regarded as exempt from the ordinary operation of the law, we are quite unable to hold that the alleged "indignities" attaching to his arrest have any existence in fact.

7. Allegation (b) (i).—We regret that we are entirely at variance with the views expressed by the learned Judge in this connection. If Miss Swannell and Miss Coutts are to be believed (and the Court has held that not the smallest reflection is to be cast on their good character), two young girls were taken many hundred miles from their homes, under the protection of a drunken chauffeur and his wife, upon a pretext which was false, and exposed to indecent overtures from an old man. To describe the conduct of the accused, if the girls are to be believed, as acts of familiarity of a most trifling nature, appears to us to be a misuse of language, and if the statement of the girls is true that they met these advances by a flat refusal and a demand to be allowed to go, it is not easy to perceive in what more definite way, looking to all the facts of their position, they could have resented them. As regards the Khan Bahadur, the point whether the offence of abetment of abduction could be proved, at law, in the sense that the Kings were acting under his explicit instructions, was one for the jury to decide. The Committing Magistrate was of opinion that it was established, and that fact, we think, exonerates the officers concerned with the preliminary proceedings from any charge of reckless negligence in acting in accordance with that view. At the lowest a prima facie charge of indecent assault (section 354, Indian Penal Code) was shown to lie, and in the light of all the surroundings of the incident we are not prepared to blame our officers for regarding it as of a serious description. We cannot but consider that the Honourable Judge has seriously misapprehended the significance of the acts alleged.

8. Allegation (b) (ii).—The allegations here referred to really raise two considerations, namely, the behaviour of the girls at Rawalpindi, in so far as it affects their story, and the action of the Punjab Police in communicating with them and sending them to Bombay. As regards the second point, we enclose a copy of a letter from the local Government in the Punjab, No. 82, dated the 1st March 1912 (enclosure No. 13), desiring the Government of Bombay to take steps to exonerate its officers, and, bearing in mind the fact that the Court has found that the action of the Bombay Police has throughout been proper and legal, and the further fact that the Rawalpindi Police had no previous knowledge of or connection with the case, but were acting merely at the instance of the Bombay Department and in accordance with instructions received from it, we do not think that it can properly be said that they had no justification whatever for what they did. Their information (rightly or wrongly) was that two girls had been taken away for immoral purposes and might be being kept under restraint. They were asked to interview them and, if the girls were willing, to return them to Bombay. Observing the precaution of obtaining a search warrant and accompanied by a priest (both of which facts may be taken to argue bona fides), the District Superintendent saw the girls, and there is nothing in his evidence before the Chief Presidency Magistrate to show that he put any pressure upon them to come away. He merely questioned them as to what had occurred and facilitated their departure to Bombay; it is not correct to say that they were sent to Bombay in police custody: in so far as the police helped them at all, it appears to have been with a view to their assistance. The Rawalpindi Police could have no possible interest in the prosecution, regarding the details of which they were ignorant, and in so far as they merely endeavoured, at the instance of police elsewhere, to protect two friendless girls left under circumstances of considerable risk in a strange place, they can scarcely be said to have exceeded their legitimate functions.

To appreciate the behaviour of the girls while at Rawalpindi it is necessary to examine more closely the evidence of Miss Swannell on the point, and the more relevant portions of her testimony are, for convenience, reproduced below:—

"Police came on 11th or 12th with a Roman Catholic priest. Superintendent Farquhar came there. Mrs. King was there. He asked if Mrs. King was living there. We said, "Yes." He said, "who are you?" We said we came from Bombay. We told him we had been brought as governesses for the Rani to look after her children. Mr. Farquhar told us there was no Rani, and we had to go Bombay. We said we were willing to go but we had no money to pay our fares. He asked us to get ready and he went out. Mrs. King said, "Why do you want to go to Bombay? Sit here and get your pay. There is no work here." She further said, "Now you are going away, I won't get the Rs. 200 the Chief promised me." We packed up and left with the Superintendent to the Deputy Commissioner. He sent us to his bungalow and his wife I was about 11 days at Rawalpindi before the Police came. We had Rs. 112 paid to us on the day we arrived at Rawalpindi. When we left Hoti Mardan after the museum incident I told Mr. and Mrs. King I wanted to go, but they said, "The Chief won't come near us for four or five months, so don't go." On the 1st of October we had enough money to go to Bombay if we wished. We did not go because we did not see any harm then We were willing to stop at Rawalpindi, and did not want to come back to Bombay as the Kings told us that the Chief would not be there for four or five months. We were told that we were to go back to Hoti in a few days. I did not express willingness. I would not have been willing. I would not have stayed at Rawalpindi for four or five months A Roman Catholic priest came with Mr. Farquhar. I don't know why he brought the priest with him. I told him that we had come as governesses. I believed that at that time. The priest said we had been brought to lead the life of sin. That was the first time I learnt this. I had never seen the priest. Superintendent of Police said he had a warrant to search for two girls. He asked us if we were willing to go. He did not say we must go. He left it to us. I told the Commissioner's wife all that had taken place. We told her that the Khan had asked when he could come and do what he liked with us. We were then kept in charge of the Police. A police sentry was stationed at our door the whole time we were there. We remained in police charge till we arrived at the Home in Bombay. Police took us to the Home from the Railway Station. We arrived here on the 15th of October. We were in charge of the Police from 11th to 15th of October. We have been in frequent communication with the Police since. . . . It is true that we were anxious to stop on in the Khan's service because we were getting good pay. . . . The Kings were anxious that we should continue as governesses. Mrs. King said she was to get 200 rupees for procuring two good governesses. She said if we went back she would lose her two hundred rupees. . . . The Police Superintendent told us at Rawalpindi there was no Rani. If there had been a Rani we would have stayed on. His statement that there was no Rani affected our desire, and we said we were willing to go to Bombay. Four policemen successively travelled down by the train we came by and saw us at each station."

Reading this evidence as a whole, and in the light of the attitude of the girls at Mardan, we are of opinion that a more probable view of it than that taken by the learned Judge is that it presents a singularly ingenuous account of the working of the mind of a very inexperienced girl. It is to be remembered that the girls were exceedingly young, of humble upbringing and little education; they were evidently considerably under the influence of the Kings, and away from any good influences which might have been brought to bear. Wiser persons would doubtless have realised the perilous position in which they stood and have appealed at once to the authorities for help. These girls did not; Miss Swannell admits that the pay of the post was an attraction to her, and to a person in her rank of life the salary was large; at the same time the Kings were urging them not to throw away money by leaving; nothing of the graver kind had actually happened to them at Mardan, and they thought they were free from molestation for another four or five months. In these circumstances it is conceivable, however foolish their conduct may now appear, that they were willing to continue at Rawalpindi, but in so far as any insinuation is based upon this fact that they were forcibly sent to Bombay and instigated to bring a charge which was entirely without foundation, we are emphatically of opinion that the circumstances are susceptible of another and, to our mind, a more reasonable interpretation. The statement that there was no Rani at Mardan was doubtless literally incorrect, but the Rawalpindi police were not to blame for having made it. They merely acted upon their instructions from Bombay, and this inaccuracy does not affect the allegation that the girls were also, by their own statement, engaged as governesses to two boys who, on no theory of the case, exist. Neither does it touch the point that the girls never met the Rani, nor were asked to do any work for her. In the face of these facts it seems scarcely necessary to attribute the willingness of the girls to go to Bombay merely to the statement, which the District Superintendent made to them, as to the presence or otherwise of a Rani. It is, moreover, relevant to note that the statement of the Khan Bahadur, made to the District Superintendent of Police on the 22nd December 1911, was entirely inconsistent with what he ultimately represented in Court. A copy of this statement is annexed (enclosure No. 14), and it was recorded by a gazetted officer, upon whose bond fides we see no reason to cast doubt. In this statement the Khan Bahadur denied the meeting with the girls at the railway station, and made no mention of any subsequent interviews. The matter of the Rani was never even mentioned, and the allegation was to the effect that the girls had come, unknown to the Khan Bahadur, to look after the Kings' children. The coincidence will be noticed between the statement made by the Khan Bahadur at Peshawar on the 22nd December, and that of Miss Swannell, made independently in Bombay in October, to the effect that, when they were leaving Rawalpindi, King endeavoured to persuade them to tell this story, namely, that they had come for the purpose of teaching his family.

9. Allegation (b) (iii).—We are unable to accept as accurate the theory that the Khan Bahadur was arrested on "evidently nobody's complaint." At the time of his arrest Miss Swannell had already given her version of the case to the Commissioner of Police, Bombay, and this had been communicated to the Deputy Commissioner of Peshawar. Upon the basis of that complaint the latter took action, and, as has already been said, his bond fides in taking that action is entirely beyond question. Under section 190 of the Criminal Procedure Code, a District Magistrate (among others) may take cognisance of an offence either upon complaint, or upon receipt of a police report, or upon information received from any person other than a police officer, or upon his own knowledge or suspicion that an offence has been committed, and the terms of the law fully cover the action of the Deputy Commissioner in ordering the arrest of the Khan Bahadur.

10. Allegation (c).—We have so far dealt with the points arising out of the order of the Honourable Judge; there remain those which have been touched upon in questions in the House of Commons.

The gist of the first of these, which does not confine itself to the affairs of the Islamia College, but links these to the subsequent prosecution, with the apparent insinuation that the one was the consequence of the other, is to the effect that the Chief Commissioner was anxious to forward the interests of the proposed Islamia College: that contrary to rules (and presumably the inference is, with the cognisance of the Chief Commissioner) two officers approached the Khan Bahadur "with menaces" for a subscription, which the latter refused, with the result that he was arrested, refused bail, and subjected to many indignities on a false charge. It seems to us that the statement above summarises the impression of the facts which the question is meant to convey, and we would invite Your Lordship's attention to the extremely serious charge which it contains. Highly defamatory suggestions as to the employment of criminal powers by high officers to extort money are not such as should in fairness be made rashly and without due verification, but we enclose an extract from The Tribune newspaper of the 15th March 1912 (enclosure No. 15) which is typical of others which have been published, and upon the basis of which and like material the question has apparently been framed. On the other hand, we annex a copy of a letter from the Chief Commissioner, No. 337P., dated the 2nd May 1912 (enclosure No. 16), which deals fully with the allegations. It will be observed, in the first place, that the date of the letter asking for a subscription has been skilfully misrepresented so as to connect it with the recent prosecution. It is represented as having been written in April 1911, while, as a fact, it was sent in the preceding year. The earlier date would of course have destroyed entirely the theory of a connection between the letter and the subsequent case. Secondly, the letter was written while Sir George Roos-Keppel was on leave, and he obviously could have had nothing to do with its despatch. Thirdly, the writers of the letter have clearly explained the circumstances surrounding the so-called "menaces," and that they had no intention of using threats—much less doing so under official instigation. Fourthly, the Chief Commissioner has shown that, while, as it was incumbent upon him to do, he exhibited such sympathy towards the project as was appropriate from the head of the province towards an educational scheme in which a large and influential section of the inhabitants were interested, his attitude was in no sense incorrect, and he actually warned the Committee against any misuse of official pressure. We regard the insinuation that the prosecution of the Khan Bahadur was in any way connected with his failure to pay money, when desired to do so, as in the highest degree offensive and as absolutely without foundation.

11. Allegation (d).—The suggestion involved in the second question mentioned is not perhaps so clear, and it overlaps with that which we have just discussed, but it too joins the arrest and trial of the Khan Bahadur with the publication of a Pushtu Manual by Sir George Roos-Keppel in his earlier days, and we can only conclude that the idea which it is desired to convey is that the Chief Commissioner, having shown his animus against the Khan Bahadur by alleged offensive personal references to him in the book, and having subsequently allowed his name to be used in an abortive attempt to raise money by threats, was influenced by these previous incidents in compassing the arrest and disgrace of the Khan Bahadur. Here, again, the implication is obviously of considerable gravity, and the extract from The Tribune newspaper, to which we have already referred (enclosure No. 15), doubtless points to its source. We annex a copy of an extract from a letter from the Chief Commissioner, No. 317B., dated the 25th April 1912 (enclosure No. 17), which gives the true facts of the case. The book was written in 1900 and published in 1901, when Sir George Roos-Keppel had recently been appointed Political Agent in the Khyber, and had never even heard of the Khan Bahadur. The alleged offensive allusions to the latter are contained in extracts from actual examination papers set between the years 1888 and 1892 inserted in the book as exercises, and Sir George Roos-Keppel had only entered the army as a subaltern in 1886. It will be noticed that the book (of which a copy is enclosed—enclosure No. 18) is full of imaginary names, and the supposition that the author of the sentences had any particular intention of insulting the Khan Bahadur is, to say the least, far fetched; in any case it was a purpose with which Sir George Roos-Keppel had obviously no connection, and the insinuation made against him is the more to be resented since a glance at the book would have shown that both in the preface and in the headings of the exercises themselves, it is stated with absolute clearness that they are reproductions of old examination papers. Before giving publicity to a charge of this description, we consider that it was incumbent upon the person desirous of doing so at least to examine the book which was alleged to be offensive. Had this been done, even cursorily, the theory of animus on the part of the Chief Commissioner at once breaks down, and that of some mysterious connection between the publication and the recent prosecution becomes preposterous.

With reference generally to this accusation of prejudice which has been levelled against the Chief Commissioner, and incidentally against the Deputy Commissioner of Peshawar (who, presumably, is supposed to have acted as a mere tool of Sir George Roos-Keppel), we would invite attention to the action of the authorities in the North-West Frontier Province with reference to the place at which the trial should be held. Had they been actuated by the motives alleged, it might have been expected that they would have endeavoured to secure a local hearing of the case; but, immediately after the arrest of the Khan Bahadur, Mr. Grant suggested the transfer of the case to Bombay, where it was evident that the proceedings would come before a Judge of the High Court, assisted by a jury.

This proposal was promptly communicated by the Chief Commissioner to the Bombay Government, and it affords a good indication of the bond fides which has characterized the proceedings of these officers throughout the case.

12. Allegation (e).—As regards the alleged suppression of four telegrams which the Khan Bahadur wished to send from jail, we annex copies of two letters from the Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs (enclosures Nos. 19 and 20) which state the facts, and we invite attention to that portion of the statement of the Deputy Commissioner, Peshawar (enclosure No. 9), which deals with the incident. The Telegraph authorities at Peshawar acted within their rights in referring the telegrams, which they thought to be open to objection, to the Deputy Commissioner, but they made a mistake in procedure in doing so before accepting the fee for them. The Deputy Commissioner at once ordered them to be issued, but by that time the messenger, who brought them, had left, and as the messages had not been paid for they were not sent. They were subsequently mislaid and are not now forthcoming. The Telegraph authorities were certainly guilty of carelessness, first in committing an error in procedure, and secondly in losing the telegrams, but no one connected with the prosecution of the Khan Bahadur was concerned. On the contrary, the son of the Khan Bahadur, the day after the incident, visited the Deputy Commissioner and stated that he strongly disapproved of the telegrams and had withdrawn them. The Deputy Commissioner assured him that there was no objection to the despatch of any telegram which was within the law to any authority, and so far as he was concerned, therefore, the incident may fairly be said to have closed without any prejudice to the Khan Bahadur. Neither, apart from this question in the House of Commons, has any allegation of prejudice been brought to our notice.

13. We have now discussed in detail these aspects of the proceedings in connection with which aspersions have been cast upon our officers, and we consider these to have been unjustified. A complaint of a very serious character was made, and we repudiate entirely the suggestion that it was instigated by the police at Rawalpindi, who had no interest in, or knowledge of, the matter. The Bombay Government, rightly impressed with the need for action, communicated the facts to the Chief Commissioner, whose personal intervention in the case was confined to bringing the facts to the notice of the Government of Bombay. The papers having been communicated to the Deputy Commissioner of Peshawar, this officer took a view of the matter which was justified by law, and which, in view of the fact that the evidence was considered eventually to justify a commitment, cannot be characterised as unreasonable or negligent. In directing the execution of legal process against the Khan Bahadur, special precautions were taken to show every consideration to his feelings. We do not propose to discuss the merits of the actual decision ultimately arrived at in the case; the orders passed were those of a high judicial authority, and with them, as such, we are not immediately concerned, though we have taken leave to dissent from the comments which formed part of the order, but the reflections upon our officers, to which the wording of these orders and the subsequent embroideries of the press have given currency, bear directly upon the standard of our administration, and holding, as we do, that these imputations are entirely without justification, we are of opinion that their refutation should be given the fullest publicity. The manner of doing so we leave in Your Lordship's hands, but we consider publicity desirable as an act of ordinary fairness to those who have been attacked. Not least among these is Sir George Roos-Keppel, who in this connection has been assailed with charges of a most scandalous description, although the proceedings neither originated with him, nor did he take any active part in them. The opportunity has been taken, however, in connection with political intrigues, entirely dissociated from this case, to represent the matter in the light of a striking example of the insecurity of life and property under the present régime in the North-West Frontier Province, and we desire, therefore, to place on record our high appreciation of the administration of the province by Sir George Roos-Keppel, and our reprobation of the cowardly and baseless attacks to which he has been exposed.

14. The publication of the papers in England and in this country would make known in the most open manner possible our opinion as to the charges which have been brought against the servants of Government in connection with these proceedings, but in any case we consider that all those concerned are entitled to be told that Government regards their conduct as free from blame.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

Statement of Miss Swannell made before the Commissioner of Police, Bombay.

MISS ELSIE SWANNELL.—I am unmarried and reside at the Foundling Home, Mazagaon. My age is 20 years. I know Mrs. King. She appears to be an East Indian. I met her for the first time in the beginning of September last. She came to the Home in search of two girls as she alleged they were required by the Rani of Hoti Mardan as governesses for her two boys (children). She subsequently made another statement saying we were required to teach the Rani English. She then took myself and Mrs. Glendenning to a studio at Kalbadevi and had our photographs taken to be sent to her husband, Mr. King, who would show them to the Chief of Hoti Mardan and get his approval. She brought the photos to the Home and she showed them to the Sister Superior, who handed them back to her. It was a Saturday when she brought the photos. Mrs. Glendenning's photo was not sent, as a rumour was about that a Mrs. Radford was going. After a few days Mrs. King again came back and told me to get ready as my photograph had been approved of. She then left and returned the next morning. I was out. I returned at about 11 A.M. and Sister Superior told me to get ready and that I had to leave that day and that Miss Coutts was to accompany me. I packed up and left for Victoria Terminus. There I met Miss Coutts and Mrs. King. Arrangements were at first made that we were to travel second class, but when we got to the station we found we had to go third class. We asked her about this and she said she hadn't sufficient money. She gave us Rs. 15 between us for expenses on the journey. We were put into a compartment where two soldiers and a Eurasian were. The soldiers left the compartment, but the Eurasian remained behind and he left, taking one of Mrs. King's towels with him. He got down at Lahore.

We got into Nowshera at about 7-10 P.M. on Monday. We changed there. Mr. King met us and asked us if we were the two young ladies from Bombay. We said yes. He then got second class tickets for us and we went by a branch line to Mardan. We reached there at about 9 P.M. Mr. King told us to go to the waiting room. When we got there the Chief was there, and shook hands with us, saying "Mervan." We sat there for some time and he said to Mrs. King "the photos don't tally." She said "my husband will explain; the lady who was to come was ill and Miss Coutts came in her stead." He seemed satisfied with Miss Coutts. He then told Mr. King to take us to the bungalow and make us comfortable. Mr. and Mrs. King and both of us got into a tonga and our boxes were put in another and were driven to a house in the bazaar. The Chief had driven away before us.

When we arrived at the bungalow we were shown two rooms on the first floor which Mr. King told us had been set apart for us. The ground floor consisted of shops. King lived on the same floor with us and some natives lived further on in the same building.

We had dinner with the Kings and afterwards we went to our rooms. We got no instructions as to the nature of our work that night.

The following morning we had breakfast with the Kings and we asked Mr. and Mrs. King what were our duties and she said "never mind, the Chief knows you are tired and he will not trouble you for a few days." Mr. King added that when he came to the State he did nothing for a month and never saw the face of the Chief. They also told us the Rani had gone to Murree and that the Chief was very frightened of her and that she would be back very soon. At about 9-30 A.M. we were writing some letters and Mrs. King came rushing in and told us the Chief was coming to see us and had sent Mr. King to tell us so, and asked us to dress nicely and do our hair nicely. We said we were dressed nicely and she said "no, no, put on your new dresses." We did dress up and after about half-an-hour the Chief came with Mr. King, who was walking behind him, with a basket which contained a bottle of cherry whisky, one bottle of Bee Hive brandy, fruits, tea and biscuits. He then told King to leave the room and close the outer door behind him. After King had gone he sat down and began talking to us. I did not quite understand his language, but Miss Coutts did. He then asked us our age, and we told him. He then spoke on ordinary subjects and he suddenly broke off and he said that in his country they judged the age of a man by his teeth and that of a lady by her breast. I had to get Miss Coutts to explain this to me in his presence. He then began talking to Miss Coutts and she asked him about the Delhi Darbar and he only laughed (Mrs. King had told us we would accompany the Rani to the Delhi Darbar). He then asked me to open the window which was closed. I got up to open it and he called Miss Coutts up also and he showed some hills which he called Malakand and he told us he used to go there in the motor. He also said that buffalo fights take place near our bungalow and he pointed out the place. We were very interested, but all of a sudden I noticed something strange, and on looking I found he was attempting to catch my breast. I ran away across the room and found that Miss Coutts had already bolted from the window. He then said "why are you running and why are you frightened?" I said "we did not come here for this sort of thing. We came here to work." Miss Coutts then said "you know our ages; why can't you believe them?" He said "when you are in a country where it is the custom you must follow that custom."

We then gave him to understand that we had not come for this kind of thing, but to work for the Rani. He took no notice of it and asked us when he would be able to come and when would we let him do what he liked with us. And if we preferred to have him there or at his palace. We told him we did not want him at all for that purpose. He told me I looked very angry and he then left.

When leaving he spoke to Mr. King, and he said, "Mr. King, what have you done?" Mrs. King then came in and we told her what happened and we told her we were going and we wanted to be settled up with. She said "never mind, he is an old man and he must have touched you like a father." I said "no such thing." She said "I did not know he wanted bad women: I will tell my husband: I did not know he was a bad man."

We sent for King, but he did not come. Mrs. King came and said Mr. King was very sorry and was ashamed to see us. We said "we will see him," and went to his rooms. He told us he was sorry and that he would settle up our account and that he would also leave at the end of the month. We went back to our room. Mr. and Mrs. King finished the liquor. That same afternoon she came crying into our room, apparently drunk, and said the Khan's Police have come and are taking Charlie (King) away and they were going to shoot him. We spoke to her and said "he can't do that," and she said "you don't know what kind of a man the Khan is."

That night Mr. King and ourselves were having dinner and he said to us, "sit down, and draw your pay, the Khan won't come near you for three or four months."

We believed what they told us and we were frightened, being in a native bazaar. We locked ourselves in that night. The next morning Mrs. King's little boy, Harry, came to our room while we were in bed, with a note written by Mrs. King telling us not to leave our rooms or go into the verandah until chicks were put up. She finished by "your loving darling Mrs. C. W. King." That day I finished my letter to Sister Superior which I had begun on the 27th September. I changed the date to the 28th September. It is marked A.

I see this envelope, post-mark dated 28th September, Hoti. That envelope is not in my handwriting. The one I enclosed my letter in was in my handwriting. I always put the letters S. A. G. on the corners of the envelopes. This envelope is marked Ai. In that letter I hinted to the Sister that something was wrong.

The next morning, 20th September 1911, at about 7 or 7-30 A.M., Mrs. King came into our room quite excited and said the Rani had come in early, accompanied by sowars and servants and that they were passing. We wanted to go and see them and she told us not to go and that the Rani would send for us the next day.

During the day King was sent for by the Chief and he came back and informed us that the Chief was suffering from fever, but that he enquired after us and he would send for us to the palace that evening.

At about 6 P.M. we asked King when the Chief was going to send for us, and he said he will send for you presently. He then said the Chief will want you to pour out his medicine and attend to him and that is why he brought you here. He also mentioned something about his private correspondence and said we would have to read his private letters to him as he could not trust his native clerks. He did not send for us that night.

The next day, 30th September 1911, Mrs. King and Mr. King informed us that some native policemen had come and were making enquiries about the two girls that had come and that they told them no one had come. He again warned us about not going on the verandah and that the chicks would arrive that day. They were as a matter of fact put up that day.

At about 6 P.M. King came to us and told us he was taking the Chief for a motor drive and that he would tell him about the police calling. He left, and as he did not return early we had our dinner with Mrs. King. This was about 8-30 P.M.

We then went to our room and were preparing for bed when King came rushing in and told us to pack up as we were to leave for Rawalpindi that night. We packed up our things in a hurry and we were ready in a short time. We went to King with our hats on and he made us remove them and cover our heads with towels. We protested, but he would not listen. He would not permit us to have a light when leaving the house and made us put the towels over our faces. We came down, crossed the road, and went through some lanes, accompanied by the Kings, and we came to a garden in which there was a small museum. There were several doors to this museum: only two were open.

The Chief was standing in the garden near the door. He inquired after our health and wanted to take us separately to see the museum and he caught hold of my hand and asked me to accompany him. I declined to go alone. The Kings were persuading us to go and told us we need not be afraid. Then Miss Coutts went in. She came out shortly after and I asked her and she said "go, but don't let him touch you." I was afraid, and Mrs. King said "why are you afraid. I will come with you." I said alright, and she came as far as the door and ran away. The Chief closed the door and took me to one of the seats, and while I was talking to him he asked me for my ring. I declined to give it to him. He was talking about different gentlemen and their ladies. He then put his arms round the bench and touched me and he again tried to catch hold of my breast. I jumped up and he caught hold of my scarf. I then told him I was leaving at once as I did not relish this kind of thing. He then said, "will I tell King?" I said "certainly." He also asked me for a kiss, which needless to say was declined. He came to the gate with me and complained to Kings that I was very sulky. I told Miss Coutts what had taken place and said I was of opinion he had brought us for a bad purpose.

We then went to the station accompanied by the Kings and we went from a different station to Rawalpindi. We got to Rawalpindi on Sunday morning. I forgot to mention that the Chief told us that the police were enquiring and consequently he was sending us to Rawalpindi, but would bring us back as soon as a bungalow was ready. "There are a number of Europeans at Rawalpindi and you won't be noticed there" and not to go out without some one with us.

When we got to Rawalpindi we stayed for a few hours in the dāk bungalow. Mrs. King was drunk, and we then went to the house where we were found by the Police Superintendent. When we were being taken away, Mrs. King told us that we were leaving for nothing, that there was a Rani, that she would lose Rs. 200 which was promised to her.

Mr. King also saw us at the hotel after the police had taken us over and said to us, "don't be afraid of the police, they can't do anything to you." He said he was waiting for them to come to him and he would tell them that he had brought us to teach his children and he asked us to tell the same story and said we would tell the truth.

Had I known that I was to be taken to Hoti Marlan for the purpose for which I was taken I would not have gone. I was deceived and abducted, and had it not been for timely interference I do not know what would have happened to me and my companion. I request that the parties concerned be dealt with according to law.

MISS E. SWANNELL.

Before me,

P. SULLIVAN,

Superintendent of Police.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.

No. 9833-B., dated the 8th December 1911.

From—The Secretary to the Government of Bombay, Political Department,

To—The Agent to the Governor-General and Chief Commissioner, N.-W. Frontier Province.

I am directed to bring the following facts to your notice.

On the 9th October 1911, the Sister Superior of the St. Joseph Foundling Home, Bombay, went to the office of the Commissioner of Police, Bombay, with some correspondence and complained that two of the girls of the Home, Miss Elsie Swannell, aged 20, and Miss Coutts, aged 22, had been taken away by a Mrs. King on the pretext that they were to be companions to the Rani of Hoti Mardan. From letters received by her, subsequent to the arrival of the girls at Mardan, she suspected that both she and the girls had been deceived as to the real object for which the girls were taken away.

On receipt of this information the Commissioner of Police wired to the District Superintendent of Police, Rawalpindi, to which place he learnt the girls had been subsequently taken, and received a reply confirming his suspicions that the girls were taken away for immoral purposes. He then wired to the District Superintendent of Police, Rawalpindi, to send the girls to Bombay, which was duly done. On their arrival in Bombay the Commissioner of Police had the statements of one of them, Miss Elsie Swannell, recorded in full and it was certified as being correct by the other girl, Miss Coutts. A copy of Miss Swannell's statement is herewith forwarded.

2. The Commissioner of Police, Bombay, has been directed to take legal proceedings against the Kings under section 366 of the Indian Penal Code, and I am to request that you will take such notice as you may consider necessary of the Khan of Hoti Mardan's objectionable conduct.

ENCLOSURE No. 3.

Letter No. 147-C., dated the 21st December 1911.

From—A. H. GRANT, ESQ., Deputy Commissioner, Peshawar,

To—W. P. BARTON, ESQ., Secretary to the Chief Commissioner, North-West Frontier Province.

I have the honour to return the letter No. 9833-B., dated 8th December 1911, from the Bombay Government, sent to me in original by the Chief Commissioner.

2. As the evidence is sufficient to warrant this course, I have had Khan Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Khan of Hoti arrested and placed in the judicial lock-up of the Peshawar jail.

3. The Superintendent of Police has made further enquiries at Mardan which confirm the fact that the girls went there, were met at the Railway Station by the Khwaja and were lodged in the Hoti Bazar, as stated by Miss Swannell. There are thus ample grounds for proceeding against Khwaja Muhammad Khan under section 366 or sections 366 and 109, Indian Penal Code.

4. It remains to decide the Court in which he should be tried. I am inclined to think that it would be most convenient for him to be tried in Bombay with Mr. and Mrs. King. If the whole case were transferred here, a difficulty would arise in regard to the trial of the Kings, who would doubtless claim to be European British subjects, and as such triable by the Chief Court of the Punjab. Moreover, the bulk of the important evidence is in Bombay. The witnesses of the arrival of the girls at Mardan and of other incidents there could, without difficulty, be sent to Bombay.

5. I submit the suggestion for the Chief Commissioner's consideration and shall await orders before taking further action in regard to Khwaja Muhammad Khan.

ENCLOSURE No. 4.

Telegram No. 138-S., dated the 22nd December 1911.

From—The Chief Commissioner, North-West Frontier, Province, Peshawar,

To—The Political Secretary to Government, Bombay.

P. Please refer to your letter No. 9833-B., dated the 8th December 1911.

Khwaja Muhammad Khan of Hoti Mardan has been arrested on a charge under sections 109 and 366 of the Indian Penal Code. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of King, who is Khwaja Muhammad Khan's chauffeur, and Mrs. King, but Mr. King, who was at Delhi with Khwaja Muhammad Khan's motor car, has not returned with it and has disappeared. Efforts are being made to trace him. Mrs. King is said to be in Bombay where, I hope, you will be able to arrest her, as it is commonly reported she has been provided by Khwaja Muhammad Khan with a large sum of money which is to be utilised to bribe the prosecution witnesses to retract their evidence. King's two children have been left in Mardan and are being watched in the event of their parents returning. I am writing.

ENCLOSURE No. 5.

No. 1692-P., dated the 22nd December 1911.

From—The HONOURABLE LIEUTENANT-COLONEL SIR GEORGE ROOS-KEPPEL, K.C.I.E., Chief Commissioner and Agent to the Governor-General, North-West Frontier Province,

To—The Secretary to the Government, Political Department, Bombay.

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. 9833-B. of 8th December, and enclosures, which reached me at Delhi on the 16th December.

2. The person referred to in your letter and in its enclosed correspondence as "the Khan of Hoti Mardan," "the Chief of Hoti," and "the Chief," is one Khan Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Khan, a wealthy house proprietor and land-owner of Yusufzai, a subdivision of the Peshawar district. He resides in Hoti Mardan and is a British subject.

3. The references in Miss Swannell's statement to "the Rani of Hoti Mardan," "the State," "the Chief," "his palace," "the Khan's police," etc., etc., show that Mrs. King had persuaded the two girls that they were in a Native State. There is of course no such person as "the Rani of Hoti Mardan," and Khwaja Muhammad Khan has only one son who is nearly thirty years of age.

4. It is most unfortunate that the Commissioner of Police, Bombay, did not communicate in the first instance with this Administration, as, had he done so, King and his wife could have been secured.

5. King was with Khwaja Muhammad Khan as chauffeur at Delhi and orders were issued for his arrest, but he has got away. Mrs. King has left Mardan and is said to be in Bombay, though their two children have been left in Mardan. It is generally stated that Khwaja Muhammad Khan has given or sent to Mrs. King ten thousand rupees to bribe the witnesses for the prosecution to retract their evidence.

6. This is the first case of this kind which has occurred in the North-West Frontier Province, and I am anxious that very serious notice should be taken of it as, in view of the ready market which exists for European women in Afghanistan and in independent territory, I fear that this disclosure of the remarkable ease with which women can be obtained from charitable institutions may lead to a regular traffic unless a severe example is made.

7. Khwaja Muhammad Khan's line of defence appears to be that he is in no way concerned, and that King and his wife imported the two girls from Bombay as governesses for their own children. Apart from the absurdity of the suggestion that an Eurasian chauffeur on small wages could engage European servants for their own service, we have evidence corroborating Miss Swannell's statement that she and her companion were met at night at Mardan station by Khwaja Muhammad Khan and that he had an interview with them and the Kings in the waiting room. This taken with Miss Swannell's statement is quite sufficient for the trial of Khwaja Muhammad under sections 109 and 366, Indian Penal Code, and it is of even greater importance to punish the wealthy instigator of such an offence than to punish his tools.

8. I enclose a copy of a letter regarding the case from the Deputy Commissioner, Peshawar, and would be obliged if you would let me know as soon as possible whether you would prefer that the trial of the three accused (assuming that King and his wife are arrested) should take place here or in Bombay. The former course would involve the attendance at Peshawar of the two girls.

Enclosure No. 6.]

No. 3.

FOR THE CROWN.

I, having made solemn affirmation, state that my name is Elsie Swannell; my residence Foundling Home, Mazagon.

I was 21 in September. I know accused 1 and accused 2. I first knew accused 2 as Mrs. Henderson; when I went to Mardan, as Mrs. King. I knew accused 3. He is the Chief of Hoti. I was educated at Bandra Convent. I left school in October 1906. I was employed in Bombay in various places and always resided at the Foundling Home. They keep lady boarders. It is the same religious order as that at Bandra Convent. I first saw accused 2 in September. It must have been about the 15th. I was having breakfast at the home. The bell rang and I went to see who was there. I was doing no work outside, but I was helping the Nuns. One of my occupations was to answer the front door bell. I found it was accused 2. She asked to see the Sister Superior. I called the Sister Superior down. She took accused 2 to the parlour and spoke to her. I did not go in. I saw accused 2 at the home. When the Sister left I spoke to her. She told me the Chief of Hoti wanted 2 governesses for the Rani and that there were 2 little boys to teach, one of 10 and one of 12. I asked her what she had come for, and she said she had come to take 2 governesses. She said one was to get Rs. 130 and one Rs. 115 as a salary. Nothing further was done that day. Accused 2 said she was the wife of the motor driver and that the engineer had sent her down to make arrangement. That the engineer was Mr. King and that the motor driver was her husband, Mr. Henderson. She first said Mr. King was an engineer. Three or four days afterwards I saw her again. She told me she had returned from church and wanted to see the Sister Superior. The first time I saw her accused 2 was dressed very dirtily. She had a gown on and a shawl and no hat. When she said she had come from church she had a white hat on and an untidy dress. I called the Sister Superior down again. I don't know what she told her, but after the interview I had a conversation. She told me the Sister Superior said she had no girls to send and she asked me if I would like to go. I said I would like to go very much. She said "Ask the Sister Superior." She said she was going to see somebody in hospital, Mrs. Shultry, who was also going. She said she could wait for Mrs. Shultry. The Sister Superior said that if we were to go alone I would not go at all. Then accused 2 came again one or 2 days later. She said she had arranged to take another lady instead of Mrs. Shultry as she was in hospital and could not come. Accused 2 mentioned the name of Mrs. Glendenning. She spoke to the Sister Superior. In consequence of it the Sister Superior came and spoke to me, and in consequence of what was said accused 2 came next morning and took me and Mrs. Glendenning to a photographer in Kalbadevi and I and Mrs. Glendenning were photographed. Accused 2 showed the photos to the Sister Superior 3 or 4 days later. The Sister Superior called me in and showed them to me. The Sister Superior gave my photograph. Mrs. Glendenning's photo was kept back as she did not want to go. I did not see her for a few days. Accused 2 said she was sending the photo. When the photo got there the money would come and she would take me. I was not going alone, but the Sister Superior said she would arrange. I did not go alone. Accused 2 said Mr. King would send the money down, that is the engineer. Accused 2 came and said the photo was quite satisfactory and the money would come that evening. That was the day before we left. A telegram arrived from the Sister Superior that evening. Next morning I came home about 11 o'clock. Accused 2 was not there. I had instructions to meet accused 2 at Bori Bunder Station at 2 o'clock. I went, but before I went the Sister Superior informed me another girl was going and I could meet her at the station. I went to the station with a lady from the home. I met accused 2 there and a lady called Miss Coutts. She was the sister of the lady who was coming, i.e., Paslow. Accused 2 bought the ticket. I still called her Mrs. Henderson at that time. We did not call her Mrs. King. She got 3 tickets, 3rd class, to Nowshera for herself, Miss Coutts and myself. We spoke to her about going 3rd class. She had made arrangements to go 2nd. We said we were not going 3rd. She said what could she do, she had not had enough money sent. She gave Rs. 15 for expenses between us. We left at 2:30 or a little later in the afternoon by the Punjab Express in a through carriage. We got to Nowshera at 7 P.M.

I think on the 25th. Mr. King, accused 1, met us. He said, "Are you the 2 young ladies from Bombay?" I said we were. He did not speak further. He was busy about the luggage. We had to go on the narrow gauge from Nowshera to Mardan. Mr. King got the tickets 2nd class. We reached Mardan the same evening. When we got to Mardan accused 2 told us to go into the waiting room as the Chief was waiting there to see us. We went to the waiting room. We met the Chief at the door. It was accused 3. We shook hands and he said Merban! We sat down and he spoke to Mrs. Henderson, accused 2. He said something about the photos. Accused 2 said accused 1 said the ladies were not the same as the photos, and that she had explained that I was the same and that she had brought another lady. I saw my photograph there. Accused 3 called Mr. King, accused 1. Accused 1 told us that the Chief had said he was to take us to the bungalow. We went in a tonga. Miss Coutts and I were in one. I think Mrs. King was there. We went to a bungalow in the bazar. The Chief drove away in his own carriage, a dog-cart. We were on the top floor of the bungalow. There were native shops on the ground floor and we were on the first floor. Miss Coutts and I shared the same room. We had a dining room, bed room, bathroom and verandah looking on the street. There were only a table and 2 chairs and a sofa in the room; no chicks when we arrived. They were put up on the 5th day after our arrival. The Kings had the other apartments in the same building. There was a wall between but the same verandah to both. There was no other access from our apartment to the other. I first learnt Mrs. Henderson was Mrs. King on the last day before the arrival. The Sister Superior told me of the telegram. Mrs. King told me she was Mrs. King. I still called her Mrs. Henderson. She said her husband was a Frenchman and that was the explanation why he wrote bad English to the Sister. We had fare with the Kings that night. We asked about our work. They told us not to trouble; they would settle it next day. Next day we had our chota hazri in our rooms. Accused 2 came to talk to us. We again asked about our work. She said, "Don't you trouble about the work; the Chief knows you are tired after the journey and won't trouble you." I had no information from Mr. King on the point. We never saw anyone that day. We went on to the side of the Kings. We asked about the work. She said the Chief would not trouble us. She said when I came here I was a month without any work. I don't think any mention was made about the Rani. On the 27th we were writing letters. Mrs. King came and stopped us saying, "Go and get dressed, the Chief is coming to see you." She told us to put on better clothes, so we went and changed. After about 20 minutes the Chief came accompanied by Mr. King who was carrying a basket containing fruits, sweets and biscuits and a little bottle of cherry whisky and a bottle of brandy. He told Mr. King to go out of the room and closed the door of the verandah. There was a verandah and the room behind that, an outer room behind that. We were in the back room away from the verandah. Shown plan. This is a correct plan (Ex. A.) The Chief asked accused 1 to go out and shut the outer door of room marked B in the plan. We 2 girls and the Chief were alone. There were 2 windows looking on to the back. There was a small terrace outside. A sofa was against one window. I was sitting on the sofa. Miss Coutts was sitting on the other side of the table. Accused 3 was sitting opposite me about 4 yards away. He was talking to Miss Coutts. I did not understand him. She did. I understood "Kisi hi," but not the other questions. He said something to me which I did not understand. I supposed he was referring to the journey, and I said the journey was very pleasant. Miss Coutts then said, "He did not ask about the journey but about your age." I told him how old I was. Then he asked Miss Coutts. Miss Coutts mentioned her age. Then he said something I did not understand. Miss Coutts gave me some information on the subject. She said the Chief said "They judge a man's age by his teeth and a woman's by her breast." Miss Coutts asked him about the Delhi Durbar. He only laughed. We talked about the Durbar because Mrs. King told us we would have to accompany the Chief to the Durbar. After that the Chief asked me to get up and open the window. I did so. It was closed before he came. It was a glass window. I opened the window. He called Miss Coutts up. He pointed to the hills that could be seen, Mahomed Hills, and said these were the Mahomed Hills and said that in the place down below bull fights took place. He was standing on my right, near the sofa there. Miss Coutts was standing a little behind me. I was looking out at the hills when he spoke of the Mahomed Hills. Suddenly I saw something dark and I saw the Chief's hand. He was on my right hand side and he had put his arm right in front from my right to my left. His hand was near my left breast. He was just about an inch away. I saw his hand and I ran across the room to the other side of the table. Miss Coutts was also on the other side of the table. The Chief said, "Why are you frightened? I told him in Hindustani I had not come for that, and that I did not like what he was trying to do. We said we had come to work as governesses for the Rani and not for this sort of thing. Miss Coutts said something to him and explained. She said, "We have already told you our ages, why can't you believe us?" The Chief replied, "Why not go by the custom, when you are in a place where it is the custom?" We again told him we had not come for this, but to be governesses of the Rani, but he still took no notice of that. He said something. Miss Coutts explained that he said, "When may he come to see us and do what he likes with us." He began saying "Kabi Ayanga." I did not understand the rest. I replied he might come when he liked. Then Miss Coutts said, "What are you telling him to come for?" I said, "He can come to see us if he likes?" Miss Coutts then said, "Oh, but he is saying when can he come and do what he likes with us; can he come here or shall we come to his Palace?" I told him then "kabi mat ao;" don't come at all. I was angry with him. I had a cross face on. He made a remark to Miss Coutts. Miss Coutts turned to me and said "smile." I said "why." She said the Chief says "you look cross." The Chief called for Mr. King. He went out on the verandah and called out loud for Mr. King. He did not speak to Mr. King before us. Mr. King came to us and told us that the Chief had said to Mr. King "what have you done," and that he was very angry. We told Mrs. King what had happened and said we were not going to stay. "Settle up and let us go." She said don't take any notice of it; if he touched you he only touched you as a father could his child. I said "No such thing." I told her exactly what he tried. She said, "Oh, I am sorry; I never knew he wanted bad women." She told us she would tell Mr. King about it, but he did not come to see us. She went away and came back and said Mr. King was ashamed to see us. We said we would see him. We went after about 15 minutes. We found him sitting in his room doing nothing. We told him we wanted to go away. He said he was very sorry and he also said he did not know the Chief was such a man. He would take his pay at the end of the month and leave him. We ate the fruit. We handed the whisky and brandy to Mrs. King. She took it to Mr. King. We went back to our rooms. We remained in our room. We had no money with which to get away. Mrs. King came back in the afternoon. I think she had too much whisky. She was crying. She said, "I have come to take my Charles away; they are going to shut him up." We were trying to console her. Miss Coutts said she was drunk. "Take no notice of it." That night I had dinner with the Kings. They did not speak about going away. We were not happy. We felt a bit afraid. We closed all the doors. There was a lock on the doors. We locked it. I began my letter to the Sister on the 26th. This is the letter I wrote to the Sister Superior. I altered the date myself. It is the first letter I wrote. The statements in the letter are true. I wrote the portion after the Chief had seen me. I thought the Sister would understand the "But." I don't remember when I began to continue the letter after the interview. (Put in Ex. B.) Shown envelope: that is not in my handwriting. That is in Mr. King's handwriting. I put S. A. G. at the corner of all my letters. The letters G. A. G. in the corner of the envelope are not my handwriting. (Marked X for identification.) I put Ex. B. in an envelope which matched the paper. I addressed it and gave it to a chokra. We had a little servant boy. I had stamped it and put S. A. G. in the corner. I walked out and saw the chokra going and Mr. King's little boy calling him back. I made the chokra a sign to go on. Then I went back and took no further notice. On September 29th we were still in bed. Mrs. King came running into the room quite excited. She said the Rani had come from Murree. She said there were a lot of sowars and we wanted to go on the verandah to see them. She said, "don't go there" and that the Chief had told her husband to tell us not to go there till the chicks had been put up. We said we wanted to see the Rani. She said we would be sent for to the Palace. We saw Mr. King. Next day Mrs. King came to us at about 11 o'clock and said, "Don't go out on the verandah the police have come enquiring about you." Chicks were put up that day in the evening. Mrs. King said the police had heard that 2 ladies had come into the station, had been seen in Nowshera station, that they wanted to know what had become of them. We afterwards went to Mr. King's room and he told us he had told the police to go away saying there were no ladies there. He said he was going to tell the Chief about it when he went to take him for a drive in the evening at 6. We had dinner alone with Mrs. King. After dinner we went to our room. We were getting ready to go to bed when Mr. or Mrs. King came in. I now remember it was Mr. King. He said pack your boxes, you have to go to Rawalpindi to-night. We got ready and put our things together. I put a scarf and cap on. Miss Coutts put a hat on. We came out into the verandah and met Mr. and Mrs. King there. Mr. King spoke first to Mrs. King. He said go and bring towels and he asked us to take our hats off. She brought 2 towels. We would not take off our hats at first, but he said we must put the towels on otherwise people in the street would see us. He made us put the towels on our heads and faces. We went with them. They made the little boy blow the lamp out and take it away. We went through a lot of little lanes. Once before we had gone with Mr. and Mrs. King to a garden which he called the Chief's garden. I don't think we went by the small lanes the first time, but we ended by coming to the same garden. In the garden was a small house which was supposed to be a museum with Indian curios and pictures. The Chief was standing before the door of the museum. He said, "merban, merban" and began to talk. Then he caught my left wrist and said "ao." And wanted me to go inside the museum. I objected. I refused to go with him alone. The Kings were trying to persuade me to go. Both tried. They said "Go inside; don't be frightened; he won't do anything to you." I said I would not go. I pulled my hand away. Miss Coutts said, "I'll go first." He did not say what he wanted us to go in for; he said nothing. Miss Coutts went in. He closed the door. There was a small hurricane lamp inside. They were inside about 10 to 15 minutes. I went and sat on one of the benches in the garden with Mr. and Mrs. King. They said I was very silly not to go. Miss Coutts was still in there. Mr. King said, "Why are you afraid? He has got a lot of women sitting inside." Miss Coutts came out and the Kings told me to go in. They said, "Go on in now, don't be afraid." I went to Miss Coutts and said "I don't want to go in alone." She said, "Go in Miss Swannell, but don't let him put his hand upon you." Mrs. King said she would take me in and stay with me there. I consented to go. I went with her as far as the door. The Chief was standing at the entrance. He caught my hand and again led me in. He closed the door. Mrs. King did not come as she said. There was none in the museum but the Chief and myself. When I got inside the Chief led me by the hand to a wooden bench. I sat down. I was not frightened. He sat down beside me on my left hand side and he was talking to me. He was talking in a language that I did not understand. I did not understand any part of it. It must have been in connection with the pictures on the wall, at which he pointed. The pictures were portraits of European Princes. He went on talking about some Captain that he knew Captain Fletcher or Fletcher. He went on talking to me. I did not understand him. Then he said something like bosa (Interpreter says bosa means "kiss"). I said I did not understand—"kia bolta." He said "ida do"—made a sign patting his cheek twice. I was wearing a ring at the time which I have now on. He asked me to give him the ring—"Give this to me." He put his hand across my finger. I drew my hand away. I had a bunch of keys in my hand as well. He asked me for that also. I did not give it to him. He next put his hand to my ear. I had no earrings on at the time, but he touched my ear and said, "Yeh, hum ko do." He passed his hand from my ear on to my breast left side. When I felt the weight of his hand I jumped up from the bench and said, "tum kya karta hie"—"what are you doing". He caught the end of my scarf. He was still sitting, "kay ko nahy dikhninodedatai"—"why don't you allow me to see". I said I had not come for that sort of thing. I had come for work and that I did not want to stay. He said, "Are you not willing to stay here?" I answered "no." He said, "Shall I tell Mr. King?". I said "Yes." Then he came up to talk as far as me, then came to the door and called for Mr. King. He called out to Mr. King, called his name. Mr. and Mrs. King and Miss Coutts came up together. He began to talk to the Kings. I could not understand what. Mr. King explained that the Chief said we were going to Rawalpindi because the Police had come to enquire about us and that when we were at Rawalpindi we would not be noticed so much, as there were so many Europeans there, and also that we were not to go out alone, when we were there, but that someone was to accompany us each time. The Chief said the other girl was very nice, but that I was very cross. Mr. King told me so. The Chief stroked our chins in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. King. They were standing near, looking. We went with the Kings out into the street where 2 tongas were waiting. We drove to some station, not Mardan Station. We went to Rawalpindi. Mr. and Mrs. King went with us. We arrived next morning at Rawalpindi and went to a Dāk Bungalow. Mr. King went out, saying he wanted to see the cashier or someone about furnishing our rooms and giving us our pay. I spoke to Mrs. King. She said, "You are all right here, you are at Rawalpindi now, you won't go back there for a month until the bungalow is ready". Nothing was said there about the Police. She said, "Why do you want to go away. why don't you sit down and take your pay, there is nothing for you to be done and the Chief won't come again for another 4 or 5 months". She did not mention any children then. We went from the Dāk Bungalow to another bungalow. We stayed there for 12 or 11 days. On the 11th day a policeman came and made enquiries. He asked for Mr. King. In her presence he asked us if we were the girls from Bombay. We said "yes." He asked why we had come. We said as governesses to the Rani of Hoti. He asked us did we really know why we had come. He came with the old Roman Catholic Priest. He asked if we were willing to go to Bombay. We said "yes." When the Superintendent went out and we were getting ready Mrs. King said, "Why do you want to go away, you can sit down here and take the pay, now that you are going away, I shall loose the Rs. 200 promised me by the Chief". The Police Superintendent took us away and we were sent to the Hotel to stay. When we were in the Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. King came to see us. Mr. King told us, "Don't be afraid of the police, they can do nothing to you, they can't force you to go back". Then he told us, in case the Police asked us what we came for, to tell the Police that we came to teach his (Mr. King's) children. I said, "I shall just say why I really came. I won't say anything else". We saw no Rani the whole time we were there. We saw no children. We saw no one but the Chief of Hoti. On October 6th I wrote this letter to the Mother Superior (Ex. C.) I forgot to mention, one day in the morning, at Hoti in the house in the bazar where we were living, I said to Mrs. King "where is the Rani?" She said, "Don't say a word, there is no Rani, don't tell Mr. King". I sent this telegram to the Sister in reply to one which I got. (Put in Ex. D.) I wrote this letter to the Sister Superior. (Put in Ex. E, envelope E-1.) It escaped my mind. Mrs. King when she came to Bombay as Mrs. Henderson spoke about a governess. She said, "the governess is going to England and therefore he wants 2 others". I have a letter which I received from the Sister Superior in Bombay which I produce. When the Police took us away from Mrs. King, Mrs. King told us she had wired to Mr. King to the effect that we had been arrested. Then Mr. King came to the Hotel and saw us. He said he had shown the telegram to the Chief and that the Chief had said to him, "Mr. King save yourself and save me". Mr. King said, "When you get back to Bombay if you like you can come back". Then he left the Hotel and we never saw him again. Mr. King did not write to me afterwards. Miss Coutts wrote to him and he wrote back. I saw the letters. I know his handwriting. I have seen him write. He readdressed to me some envelopes addressed to Hoti. I can tell his writing. Shown 3 letters. These letters are in Mr. King's handwriting. (Put in Ex. F. collectively.)

Postponed to January 27th at 1-30 P.M. for want of time.

Mr. Raikes applies that accused 3 may be again remanded into Police custody and that his attendance may be excused tomorrow. It would be dangerous to his life to be remanded to jail and it is very detrimental to his health to be brought here. The doctor is present.

Mr. Nicholson.—This special application comes from accused 3 and accused 3 could not be prejudiced. I would arrange for identification of accused by the witnesses on the last day.

Ernest Frederick Gordon Tucker.—S. A. Before the last occasion I examined accused 3 and gave a certificate. I examined him again yesterday. I have seen him again in Court to-day. In my opinion he is not physically fit to be brought into Court. It is dangerous to his health and indirectly, possibly directly, to his life to move him about in this way. I consider it would actually be dangerous to his life to remand him to jail. I think it would certainly be a direct danger to his life.

Cross-examination declined.

Application allowed. Accused's personal attendance is dispensed with until January 30th. I remand accused into Police custody at his residence until January 30th.

FOR THE CROWN.

I, having made solemn affirmation, state that my name is Jessie Mackenzie. I am known in the Order as Sister Winifred.

I belong to the Order of the Daughters of the Cross. I am in charge of St. Joseph's Foundling Home, Mazagaon. I have been in charge there for one year. The Convent of Bandra belongs to the same Order. I know Miss Swannell. I used to visit the Convent at Bandra when she was at school there. I have known her from very early childhood. Shewn Ex. F. I received these letters at the Foundling Home through the post. It is usual for people to apply to me when they want to give situations to young ladies. Young ladies receive board and lodging at the Home. All creeds and all nationalities are received at the Home. Sometimes we have many as 15 or 16 even to 19 boarders at a time. Shown the letter of August 13th. I believe I wrote to Mr. King in reply.

Mr. Nicholson asks accused I to produce.

Mr. Vickaji. All our letters were seized by the Police at Hoti Mardan.

I received more letters than Ex. F. from Mr. King. I destroyed them. The first ones I received I destroyed because they were written in such bad English that I thought it would not be a bona fide situation. Later on someone called at the Home. A person of the name of Mrs. Henderson. Accused 2 is Mrs. Henderson. She called after I had received the letters. It was before Miss Swannell left the Home. It was between August and September. Miss Swannell was there. She was acting as a portress and attended to the front door. Miss Swannell told me some one wanted to see me. Mrs. Henderson told me she had been warned to bring two ladies to Hoti who had been engaged as governesses to the Chief of Hoti and the Rani. I don't remember her alluding to correspondence. She said she was Mrs. Henderson whose husband was working in the service of the Chief. She did not mention the name of King at first. She had several interviews after that. She referred to 2 princes who had to be taught English. So far as I remember she said their ages were 6 and 10 years old. She said the girls would each have Rs. 100 a month for salary plus messing. She said besides attending on the young princes they would have some work with the Rani and would have to go the Delhi Durbar. The Chief would also pay for their journey up and would go 2nd class. Mrs. Henderson was to wire for the money and get it. Mrs. Henderson said she was a poor woman. Miss Swannell was offered the place by Mrs. Henderson in my presence. I was present during part of the conversation between Mrs. Henderson and Miss Swannell. I leave the question of employment to the girls themselves. I had 2 or 3 interviews with Mrs. Henderson. Miss Swannell went to have her photograph taken. I could not say by whom. I don't know if the photos came. I think some one went from the Home with Miss Swannell. I could not say. Mrs. Henderson said the principal part was to have a photograph sent before the engagement. She did not tell me what it was to be sent for. I don't remember if Mrs. Henderson reported anything to me about the photo afterwards. She was coming up to the last day. A wire came from Hoti on the 22nd addressed to me. I destroyed the original. When Mrs. Henderson called I asked, "Who is Mrs. King?" She said, "Excuse me for passing under another name, but my real name is Mrs. King. I am better known in Bombay by the name of Henderson." I made enquiries about King. She said he was an engineer at Hoti. She did not say what sort of engineer. Miss Swannell went with Mrs. King to the railway station. I gave directions to Miss Swannell before she left. I did not give them in the presence of Mrs. King. Shown Ex. B. I received that letter. Shown X 2. It came in that envelope. (Put in Ex. B 1). I was not surprised to hear from Miss Swannell. I expected to hear from her because of a conversation I had with her. Shown Ex. B. When I received that I knew something was wrong. The envelope B1 was not in the handwriting of Miss Swannell. I spoke to Mr. Moore about it. Mr. Sullivan came to see me. Shown Ex. C. I received that letter from Miss Swannell. I sent a telegram to Miss Swannell after seeing Mr. Sullivan. I wrote to her, Shown Ex. O. That is the letter I wrote and its envelope. I received this telegram (Ex. D.) Shown Exs. E. E1. I received that letter and envelope. I handed over all the letters and telegram I had to Mr. Sullivan. Miss Swannell returned to the Home. Miss Coutts came with her. They arrived on the 15th October. They were at the Home for some time after that.

SISTER WINIFRED.

FOR THE CROWN.

I, having made solemn affirmation, state that my name is Charles Gordon Darrach Farquhar; my calling Superintendent, Police, Rawalpindi District, Punjab.

Hoti Mardan is not in my District. I received a telegram from the Criminal Intelligence Department, Bombay. In consequence of it I obtained a warrant to search for two girls from the District Magistrate, Rawalpindi. I personally enquired. I found two girls with Mrs. King in a sort of lodging called Sirdar Mohamed Singh's house in Rawalpindi. By Mrs. King I refer to accused 2. I did not know her before. I went to the house with Rev. Father Deyrsel, the Roman Catholic Chaplain of Rawalpindi, in consequence of the telegram. I found them in a block of rooms attached to the compound of the house. I stated what I wanted. Accused 2 was present. I asked if she was Mrs. King. She said "Yes". I then said I had a warrant to search for two girls, Miss Coutts and Miss Swannell. There were two girls in the room at the time. They said those were their names. I told the girls to pack up their clothes and come away with me. So far as I recollect, I asked the girls in the presence of accused 2 if they had come from Hoti Mardan. They said "Yes". I asked them why they had gone. They said they had been offered situations as governesses to the children of the Rani of Hoti Mardan. I am not certain whether they mentioned the children or only the Rani of Hoti. They said they were to get Rs. 125 a month each and their board. They told me they had not seen the Rani. They said they had twice asked to see the Rani and that they had been put off and had not seen her. I took them to the District Magistrate. They were put in the Cantonment Hotel. A policeman was put in the compound, not exactly as a sentry, but I think more or less to see that they did not run away. I did not know anything about the girls. They were sent off to Bombay in the charge of the Railway Police. There was a servant in the door of the room where the girls and Mrs. King were. He helped to get their boxes out. They said they would not go back to Hoti Mardan.

I, having made solemn affirmation, state that my name is Ernestine Adelina Rogers, my husband's name Charles Jivous Rogers, my residence Bombay.

In August and September last year I had correspondence with a man called King at Hoti Mardan. I saw an advertisement in the Advocate of India and I wrote to Oliver and Company. They referred me to Mr. King. I wrote to King. (Shown X-4.) That is the answer which I received from him. (Put in Ex.J.) Shown 4Xs, viz., Ex.J., X5, X6, X7. I received all these letters from King in answer to mine. I received X 5 first, then Ex. J, then X 6 and X 7 fourth, X 5 put in Ex. K, X 6, Ex. L, X 7, Ex. M. I sent my photographs. I have children. Only my youngest child is referred to in the correspondence. Shown Ex L. I sent two photographs. Ex. L refers to the second photograph and so does Ex. M. Shown Ex. K. In that letter I was asked for my first photo. That was a photo of myself and baby. The second photo was of myself alone. A woman by name Mrs. Henderson or Anderson came to see me on the 12th September. I asked her who she was. She said she came from Hoti Mardan and that she was Mrs. Anderson sent by the Chief. I asked her what the Chief had sent her for. She said Mr. King, the Chief's Engineer, and the Chief had asked her to call on me to have me in readiness. I told her I was quite ready to go and was waiting for the money. She asked what amount I would ask for. I said Rs. 300 in advance. I asked her about the Chief. She said he was a ruling prince there, very rich and with large estates. I asked her why he wanted an English governess. She said he had an English governess but that she was going home. I had conversations with her about the letters. I asked her if she knew Mr. King. She said he was the Chief Engineer of the State Railway getting Rs. 2,000 a month. She said the Chief was a very nice man. She said the Rani was also a very nice woman and that the Chief had four or five Ranis. I said referring to the letters, "This gentleman writes very curious English. Is he a foreigner?" She said Mr. King was a Frenchman. I asked her what she was doing there. She said she was the wife of a chauffeur to the Chief who was getting Rs. 150 a month as a motor-car driver, that his name was Mr. Anderson or Henderson. She never said that his name was King. She said the Rani liked my photograph very much, that she was very much taken with it and very much bent upon my coming. I was to leave on the 15th September with my baby. She said she would accompany me and help me on the way. She said she was waiting for another lady. I asked her what for. She said the other lady was to help me. She said the salary of the other lady was to be Rs. 80 plus Rs. 15. She said when I went to have my food and rest there was some one to be with the Rani. She would not be alone and therefore the other lady was to be engaged. I asked if there were Europeans and a Political Agent at Hoti. She said there were very few Europeans barring the police, and that she did not know the Political Agent. She said her Christian name was Annie, and asked me to call her Annie. I was waiting for the money. I said as soon as the money came I would let her know. She gave me her address as—

Mrs. A. Anderson or Henderson,

Opposite Tramway Terminus,

Parel.

She said the money was to come to her. I expected the money to come to me. I said "Why should the money go to you? I have to travel." She said, "The Chief said he was going to send it to me." I showed her Mr. King's letter. She said, "Oh! I don't think he will send you Rs. 300, madam, he will send you 2nd class fare." I said I would not travel 2nd. We had a talk. She sat down. I asked if I would be comfortable and well looked after and whether I would be safe. She said, yes, I would be quite safe and that I would like the place very much. I never received any money and I did not go. I tried to get back my photographs. I did not get them. I sent a copy of this letter to the Chief and to Mr. King. I got an answer from Mrs. King, and as my husband thought it strange that she should write he sent the letter back. This was the letter put in Ex. N. I received this letter from the Convent, dated 11th October (marked X 10 for identification).

FOR THE CROWN.

I, having made solemn affirmation, state that my name is Daisy Coutts. My age about 22 years. I am unmarried. I arrived in Bombay this morning. I have just come from the Maharaja of Bikaner. I know accused 1, 2, 3. I remember September 23rd. Under an arrangement made with my sister, I took a post at Hoti Mardan. My sister is a married woman with children. I accompanied my sister to Victoria Terminus. I met Mrs. King there. My sister did not go to Hoti. I went instead of her. I was working with a lady. I asked the Sister Superior if she would allow me to go instead of my sister. I spoke to accused 2 about my box that day; nothing else. I spoke to her about my box because all the expenses of the journey were sent to her. My sister's name is Mrs. Parcell. She was at the station. Mrs. King did not say anything until after the train started. Mrs. King paid for my ticket. I went away with Miss Swannell. The arrangement was for Miss Swannell to teach the 2 children of the Khan. I was to attend to their food and clothing. Mrs. King told me that Mr. King said there was a Rani. Mr. King met us at Nowshera. I was to get Rs. 135 of which Rs. 35 was for food. Miss Swannell was to get Rs. 125 out of which Rs. 25 was for messing. The Maharaja of Bikaner is giving me Rs. 100 a month and all food. We travelled 3rd class to Nowshera. Sufficient money had not been sent for 2nd class, so Mrs. King said. From Nowshera we went 2nd class to Mardan. Mr. King bought the tickets. The Khan met us at the station, i.e., accused 3. We went to the waiting room. He said we must feel tired, Mr. King would show us our quarters, give us a dinner and send us to bed. I did not see any photos at the station. The Khan said one of us tallied with the photo, the other did not. He said Miss Swannell tallied. He turned to Mr. King and asked why I had come instead. Mr. King said he had found a substitute as the other lady had fallen through. We went with the Kings in a tonga. The Khan went in a dog cart. We went to a house in the Bazar, an upper storeyed house. There are shops on the ground floor. The Kings were living next door. There was a verandah communicating between the quarters. We had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. King. Mr. King told us not to trouble about our work as the Khan would leave us alone for 2 or 3 days. We breakfasted next morning with Mr. and Mrs. King. Mr. King said the Khan would be considerate and let us rest after our long journey. That morning we saw no one. Next day at about 10 o'clock the Khan called. He brought a basket of fruit, some Indian sweets and a bottle of cherry whisky and a bottle of Beehive brandy. Mrs. King came over and told us to change our dresses and put on something pretty as the Khan was coming. I did so. The Khan told Mr. King to leave the room and shut the door. The Khan, myself and Miss Swannell remained in the room. First of all he asked us our ages. I understood what he said. We told him our ages. He said "You can tell a man's age by his teeth and a woman's by feeling her breasts." Miss Swannell did not understand it. I interpreted it to her. We asked him about the Rani and when we would see her. He laughed. We did not ask about the children. He asked Miss Swannell to open the window. She did so. He said there was a courtyard beneath and bull fights occasionally took place there. Then he attempted to touch Miss Swannell on her breast. He stood behind her and placed his right arm across her body in front. There was a table in the room. I walked round it and she ran after me. The Khan said "Why are you running away from me?" There is nothing to be afraid of. It is the custom of the place to find out a woman's age like that. Why don't you follow the custom?" We said we did not wish to follow that custom. Both of us said so. The Khan said "Will you come over to my place? Shall I come over to your place and will you let me do what I like with you?" I answered "Never." Miss Swannell said "Come whenever you like." She did not understand. I don't remember whether I explained then or afterwards to Miss Swannell what he had said. She said we had not come there to lead that kind of life. We said we had come to look after two children, one as a governess and the other in the capacity of a nurse. He laughed. I asked him when we were going to the Delhi Durbar. He made no reply but only laughed. He asked for leave to go. We said yes, and he went. He met Mr. King and said something to him. I did not catch what he said. Then he went away. After that Mrs. King came into the room and asked what the Khan had said. We told her all that had taken place and said we were not going to stay there any longer. She said she did not know the Khan was a bad man. He had sent her to Bombay to bring 2 governesses and she had brought them. She then went away. Mrs. King came back again and said Mr. King was very sorry to hear what had taken place and that he was ashamed to meet us. Two hours after we went to Mr. King's room and asked him to get our train fare back to Bombay. He expressed regret at what had taken place. He said he would leave the Khan's service at the end of the month. Later on he told us not to be afraid as the Khan had only done to us what a father would do to his child. We did not agree to that. We said no father would do such things to his children. He told us not to be afraid as the Khan would not come near us for 4 or 5 months. We were to do nothing in the meanwhile. No reference was made to the children of the Khan. About 3 days after that there was a commotion about 4 o'clock in the morning while it was dark. We asked Mrs. King what it was. She said the Rani had come from Murree with all their retinue and that she would send for us to her place in 2 or 3 days' time. We heard and saw nothing more of the Rani. One day Mrs. King came into our room. She was not sober. She said there was no Rani in the place and that we were not to tell Mr. King that she had told us. Mrs. King was very often drunk. In the morning the Rani was said to have come. Mr. King told us not to go into the verandah as two policemen were making enquiries about us. He told us he had said something to them. He did not tell us what he had said. That night at about 8 o'clock he said the Khan wanted to see us in the garden. We knew which garden he referred to. We had been to the garden before. There was a museum in the garden. We put on our hats. Mr. King told us to take them off and to put towels over our heads. We wore them like shawls. He told us that the people all flocked when they saw a white face. Eventually we did what he asked. We objected at first. It was a very dark night. The Kings carried a light, a lantern. We got to the museum. The Khan was standing there. He held Miss Swannell by the hand and wanted her to go into the museum first alone. She resented it, but Mrs. King said there were lots of women inside. She would not go in, so I offered. I went in and he closed the door. There was another door open. We stood up. He pointed to different pictures on the wall and said that various English people both men and women had visited him and no one was afraid of him, why were we afraid. He asked me to sit down. I sat down on a bench. There was a dim light in the room. No one else was in the room, no Rani. He attempted to put his arm round my waist while talking. I saw the movement and I got up. We were talking about things in general. He asked me to sit down again. I consented to do so only on condition he left me alone. He agreed. He said he was sending us to Rawalpindi that night as the police were making enquiries about us. As soon as the bungalow he was building for us at Mardan was ready we were to return. He said Rawalpindi was a big place and no one would take any notice of us there as there are many Europeans there. He said "send your friend in." I went out. Miss Swannell refused to go in alone. Mrs. King agreed to go in with her. I said to Miss Swannell "Go in, but don't let the man touch you." Mrs. King came back and said the Khan offered her a chair in the room, but she came back and did not want to stay. After about 10 minutes the Khan opened the door and Mr. and Mrs. King and I walked into the museum. Miss Swannell told me that the Khan had asked her for a kiss, that he had told her about going to Rawalpindi and that she said she did not want to stop any longer. He turned to Mr. King and said Miss Swannell was very cross. He stroked Mrs. King, Miss Swannell and myself on the chin. He asked Mr. King if arrangements had been made to take us to Rawalpindi. Mr. King said "Yes," and took us both in a tonga. We removed our towels when we got into the gardens. We got into a station which was not the same as that in which we had arrived, and went to Rawalpindi, and in a house there, one of the Khan's servants gave us Rs. 112 between us for our expenses. We stayed in the house. The Police came there, Mr. Farquhar. After some conversation we went away with him. Mrs. King said, "if you go away I shall lose my Rs. 200." The Khan was to have given it to her for bringing us. That is what she said. Mr. and Mrs. King came to the Hotel. Mr. King told us that if we were asked why we had come to Hoti Mardan we were to tell the Police we had been there to teach his children. We said we would not say that. Mrs. King came over the morning before we left Rawalpindi. Mr. King wrote to Miss Swannell. I saw the letter in his handwriting. Then I went over to the place accompanied by the Native Inspector I asked Mr. King what he meant by writing the letter. He said Miss Swannell had written to the Sister Superior many lies about him. He had seen letters of Miss Swannell which he said he would show to the Police. He did not say how he had got the letters. That was the last I saw of him. I came back to Bombay with Miss Swannell and went to the Foundling Home. I went to Mr. King asking for my pay. Ten days' pay was due.

Mr. Vickaji—We have not the letters here. This is a letter I received in reply dated 27th October (put in Ex. P). Afterwards I received this letter from Mr. King (Ex. Q.) On 8th December I left Bombay to take service with the Maharaja of Bikaner. I received this letter before I went, i.e., Ex. Q. I have not seen any of the accused since. I was obliged to give up my place with the Maharaja of Bikaner to come here. I was served with a summons.

Cross-examined. I wrote to the Chief of Hoti before I left Rawalpindi I did write to Mr. King.

Mr. Velinkar requests the Court to take a note that the answer "I wrote to the Chief of Hoti" was an answer to the question "Did you write to Mr. King before you left Rawalpindi."

Mr. Nicholson calls for the letter to Mr. King.

Mr. Vickaji makes the same answer as Mr. Velinkar.

"We have had no notice to produce. If notice is given us and such a letter exists we will produce it. Possibly the police have seized it."

No. 11.

FOR THE CROWN.

I, having made Solemn Affirmation, state that my name is Cheragdin, my father's name Abdul Rahman, my calling clerk in the firm of Shaik Mohidin & Co.

I was in the service of the Khan, accused 3. I know accused 1 and 2, Mr. and Mrs. King. I entered the employment of the Khan in the beginning of March 1911. King entered it in or about July last. He was the Khan's motor-car driver. He was getting Rs. 150 a month, I was getting Rs. 40. I was the Khan's English clerk. I knew the Kings very well. I went to their house several times. Mr. King came to my house. I had a conversation at Hoti about an English girl. I had a conversation with Mr. King about English girls. That was in the beginning of August. Mr. King told me that the Khan had asked him whether he could procure 2 or 3 English girls for him. He told me that he wanted them as "Mistresses". I asked him whether he could procure such girls. He boastfully replied that he could procure them easily. He was drinking. On another visit he told me he had opened communications with English girls and had written to Bombay and that he had requested them to send their photos at the request of the Khan. He told me that the pay had been settled and that he was going to send his wife. He told me when the photos arrived that the photos had been shown to the Khan and two selected. He told me that the Khan had selected girls who were going to be brought soon from Bombay to Hoti. I know Mrs. King left Hoti. I knew because Mr. King used to meet me nearly every day and he told me that his wife had left. I know the Kings' quarters well. I did not go to the upper storey. Down below there were shops, a butcher's shop and a sweetmeat seller's shop. When Mr. King told me Mrs. King had gone to Bombay the Khan was at Hoti. The Khan went to Murree, but he came back on the 16th August. He stopped at Murree for 20 days. It was the 16th September he returned. I made a mistake. I went with the Khan to Murree and returned with him. When I came back on the 16th September, either 16th September or 17th September, the Khan asked me to write to a Missionary. He told me to write to the English Missionary, Mr. Norwood, to vacate the house which he occupied. The house was close to the Kings' quarters. The Khan told me that he wanted the house for his guests. The Khan referred to the 2 guests. I wrote accordingly. No answer came in English. An answer came in Pushtu. I do not understand Pushtu. The Khan told me that the Missionary did not wish to vacate the house and told me to write again to him. I wrote again. I don't remember whether any answer was received. In my presence the Munshi of the Khan named Premsingh came and told the Khan that the quarters had been vacated. The Khan ordered another Munshi Sultanali to repair and white-wash the quarters at once. He reported in my presence that the quarters had been repaired and whitewashed. The quarters were not furnished at first, afterwards they were furnished. After they were repaired the Khan ordered them to be furnished. I did not see any girls at that place. I received certain information. Mr. King told me that 2 girls had come from Bombay and that they were stopping with him. I don't remember going to the house with anyone. I do remember something about fruit being taken. I was at the Khan's house. He ordered a basket of fruit, a bottle of whisky and a bottle of brandy. The articles were placed in a cart. The Khan sat in the cart and I accompanied him. The cart was driven through the street and stopped underneath the house of King. The Khan went upstairs with that basket and I went to my own house. Mr. King after that had a conversation with me. He said the Khan had made a very foolish mistake and that he had annoyed the girls when he went upstairs. He said the girls were so much annoyed that they did not wish to stop, that they were going to report the matter to the Assistant Commissioner of Mardan, but that he had stopped them. He said that the Khan had told him to accompany them to Rawal-Pindi and send them off to Bombay from Rawal Pindi. I know there were Police enquiries at the time. Mr. King told me so. He said an Inspector of Police had come to enquire about the girls. He said the Police Inspector's name was Sheikh Allumkhan. He said he had explained to the police that the girls were his sister or relations and had come to stop with him for a few days. He said he had said that simply to save the Khan. King went to Pindi with the girls. When he came back he told me that the girls had gone to Bombay. I don't know whether he said anything else. I remained in the service of the Khan up to December 16th. On December 16th I left.

Do you know any thing about the selection of curtains?

Yes. I was at Murree and curtains were selected there. Certain specimens of cloth were brought and shown to the Khan, 2 were selected by him, 2 patterns.

He ordered that curtains should be prepared of the patterns selected. Shown patterns. These are the patterns (Put in Ex. R.) The curtains were conditionally taken from a shopkeeper. If the hire of the curtains exceeded the actual cost they would be kept as having been purchased otherwise they would be returned. They were afterwards purchased. They were packed and sent to Hoti Mardan. They were used in the bungalow where the Khan was stopping in Murree as curtains. I cannot say what became of the curtains. I once saw the curtains at Hoti. They were sent with other furniture to the house which the Khan got vacated, to which I have referred.

To Court.—The Khan has one wife. I can't say what her age is. She is purdah. She must be above 45 as she has a son 35 years of age. He is a Lieutenant in the Imperial Cadet Corps. So far as I remember the Khan has one grand-daughter, the daughter of this son. She is about 6 or 7 years old. The Khan has no other children so far as I know. I attended on them. The Khan in his own house is called Hujra. He slept in the same house and the Rani lived there. The Khan sent me a letter. The letter was addressed to his own man Mirza Abdulla Shah.

Cross-examination declined by Mr. Vicaji and by Mr. Pandit.

Cross-examined by Mr. Velinkar.—I swear I was not dismissed for drunkenness. I do drink occasionally. I have not had any thing to drink to-day.

To Court.—Had the Khan had sons at Hoti I would have seen them.

Mr. Velinkar.—It is admitted that the Khan has no sons besides Mahomed Akbarkhan, the Lieutenant in the Imperial Cadet Corps.

Case No. 1865-P., of 1911.

King Emperor Complainant.

*versus.*1. C. W. King, 2. Annie King and 3. K. B. Khwaja... Accused.
Mahomed Khan.The written statement of the third accused.

I succeeded my father as Khan and Rais in 1872. Since that time I have been doing good service to the Government in assisting to repress crime and maintain peace on the border, for which I have been thanked by successive Viceroys and other high officials and hold a number of testimonials, a copy of one of which I annex hereto. I rendered valuable services to Government in the wars of Malakand and Chitral on the borders. I assisted the Crown with numerous horsemen and footmen in the wars. The result is that I have been honored with the title of Khan Bahadur and appointed an Honorary Magistrate. I was invited as a guest of the Chief Commissioner of the North-West Frontier Province to the Delhi Durbar and my son, Mahomed Akbar, was taken into the Imperial Cadet Corps, and has been given a commission as Lieutenant in the Indian Army, equal in rank to a European Lieutenant. My son was also appointed in His Imperial Majesty's escort during the Coronation Durbar. Not only this, but I have enjoyed the friendship of many European officials and, in consequence, I and my household have been in the habit of receiving visits from many English ladies, the relatives of such officials. I have given my son an English education and he has adopted an English mode of life. I am an old man of 70 years of age. I have no teeth. Besides I have been suffering severely from gout and affections of the joints for the last ten years and have been quite unable to carry out any sort of bad intentions or the motives alleged. I have got a Rani, a son Mahomed Akbar, three daughters, as well as the wife and daughter of my son, Mahomed Akbar, in my house.

Mahomed Akbar, my son, pressed me to make some arrangement to educate his sisters and daughter in English, needle-work, etc., to enable them to associate more freely with their English visitors. I had engaged Mr. King in my service as my chauffeur on the recommendation of the Bombay Motor Car Co. I mentioned this to Mr. King as he was the only European in my employ and asked him if he could get two European ladies, who were well qualified governesses, for me. Mr. King replied that he would try to get them from Bombay and would send his wife, Mrs. King, to secure them from that place. I never authorized either Mr. or Mrs. King to make any false statement or was aware they did so. A few days after Mr. King brought me a photograph of a lady whom he told me was married and wished to come with her ayah and children. I agreed, but Mrs. King did not send her. At various times he also brought me some 11 or 12 other photos of applicants for the post of which I approved the photographs of two ladies, whom I ordered Mr. King to send for from Bombay not with any bad intention in my mind but simply to make them governesses in my house.

When Mr. King informed me that two ladies were arriving at Mardan Station, I thought it right to receive them (being ladies and coming for my sake from so distant a place as Bombay) at the Railway Station, Mardan, merely as a mark of my respect towards them as strangers to my country. When I saw the ladies at Mardan I was surprised to see they were different from the photos I had approved, being much younger in appearance and was therefore rather angry with Mr. King, but as they had arrived from so long a distance, I ordered Mr. King to put them up in his house. Two or three days after that I sent some fruit to Mr. King for the two ladies, it having been my custom to send such presents of fruit to all the European ladies and gentlemen of my acquaintance, which is testified by a number of letters I have received acknowledging such gifts, a few of which from respectable European ladies I now produce. Two or three days later I went myself to Mr. King's house to have a personal interview with the ladies and interviewed them in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. King and their children. I asked them if they had any University degrees or had passed any other examination and what was their experience and ability or had any certificates or testimonials to show that they were qualified for the situation as governesses. I also questioned them as to their knowledge of needle-work and embroidery. They replied they had no certificates or qualifications. On receiving such replies from them I took Mr. King aside and ordered him to send them back to Bombay as soon as possible as they were not likely to be efficient governesses. Mr. King said I must not send them back at once as they had come so far but I should keep them a little and pay them their month's salary and their railway fare from Bombay and back to Bombay. I deny that I either did anything improper or suggested that I should be allowed to call to do what I liked with them. A few days later Mr. King told me the ladies wish to accompany his wife to Rawalpindi and I consented, having no occasion for their presence in Hoti. The day they were going I was informed the ladies wished to see me again to say goodbye and thank me for my kindness. I did not want to visit them again at the house of Mr. King so I arranged they should meet me with the Kings at my public garden where I intended to go that evening. They came later than I expected and I had some conversation with them in the garden about their having been brought up from Bombay against my instructions and the reasons I had not kept them in my service, but I deny I either took them into what they call the Museum alone, or was guilty of any familiarities with either of them.

I am not such a person as the complainants allege me to be. Since the year 1872, when I succeeded my father, I have never been charged with any mischief or bad intention. It is quite ridiculous that such charge should now be brought against me when so old and feeble. I say I am quite innocent.

„ 205, Criminal Procedure Code.

C. A. V. till 3-30.

Ernest Fredrick Gordon Tucker sworn, examined by Mr. Inverarity. I am a Major in the Indian Medical Service. I saw accused No. 3 first on the 8th January 1912. He was very ill at that time. He has been very ill since. I have been attending on him. He is suffering amongst other things with extreme weakness of the heart which is due to dilatation and fatty degeneration of the heart, and I suspect that he has got an aneurism. The heart may suddenly rupture and cause instant death.

I think it is very probable that he would die in Court if he had some sudden shock or some sudden excitement.

It is not safe to bring him backwards and forwards to and from the Court. It is not good for him to lie in a palki in a crowded Court. The other ailments he is suffering from are of long standing.

This weakness of heart must be of some five or six years' standing.

The Advocate-General does not cross examine.

Elsie Swannell sworn examined by the Advocate-General.

I am 21 years of age. I was educated at the Bandora Convent. I left school in 1906. I went to reside at the Foundling Home, Mazagon. Sister Winifred is in charge of that Home. She is of the same order as the Bandora Convent.

The order is of the Daughters of the Cross.

I always resided at the Foundling Home except for a month or two. I got employment in Bombay after leaving school in different shops in Bombay and in the Telephone Company. In September last I was at the Foundling Home. No. 2 came there.

She came in the morning about the 12th of the month of September last. I answered the door.

I had no situation there. I was helping the sisters. It was part of my duty to answer the door.

She asked to see the Mother Superior. I called Sister Winifred. She spoke to Mrs. King in the parlour. I was not in the parlour. Sister then came out and went upstairs. I went in and spoke to Mrs. King.

She said she had come to take two governesses for the Rani of Hoti to teach the little boys.

She said the Chief wanted governesses for the Rani to teach two little boys, eight and ten or ten and twelve.

I told her I would like to go. She told me to ask the Sister Superior. I never knew her before. She said she was the wife of the Chief of Hoti's motor driver. She said her name was Mrs. Henderson. She said one was to get Rs. 130 and another Rs. 115 a month. I told her I had no testimonials and I had not been in this service before and she told me it was not necessary. She went away after that. A day or two after I saw her again at the home. She came there. She asked to see the Sister Superior again. I called her down. No. 2 spoke to her in the parlour alone.

The Sister Superior then came out of the room.

I went in and spoke to her again. No. 2 said the Sister Superior had told her she had no girls to send.

I told her I would ask the Sister Superior to send me. She then left. I spoke to the Sister Superior.

No. 2 came back the next morning. She said she had just come from church and wanted to see the Sister Superior again. She saw the Sister Superior. I was not present at the interview. After the interview I saw her and I told her the Sister Superior had permitted me to go. She did not tell me anything and said she was going to the hospital to see the other lady she was taking with her. Said she would come back the next day. She came again on the following morning and asked to see the Sister Superior. She saw her. I was not there. Afterwards I spoke to No. 2. She told me she had asked Sister Superior to send some one with me as the ladies in the hospital would not be able to leave for a fortnight or a month. She said Sister Superior was going to send Mrs. Glendenning who was living at the Home. She was a widow. I called Mrs. Glendenning. No. 2 said to us she would call next morning to take us to have our photos taken.

No. 2 then left. Next morning she came and took me and Mrs. Glendenning to the Photographer. We were both photographed. These are the photos.

Exhibit B.

Mrs. Glendenning's Photo (Exhibit B.)

Three days afterwards No. 2 came with photos. She said she wanted to show the photos to Sister Superior.

I called her. Sister Superior called me afterwards and showed me the photos. No. 2 said she would send both photos to Hoti Mardan for Mr. King the engineer, to see. She said he was the engineer at Hoti. She took away only my photo. She said the engineer would show them to the Chief, and if he approved, money would be sent down to have us brought up to Hoti. She then left. About 3 days after she came to the Home. She asked to see Sister Superior. She saw her. I was not there. Subsequently she said my photo was satisfactory and the money would be there that evening. Sister Superior told me she would not allow me to go alone and that another lady should be sent with me. This was a day or two before Mrs. King came and when I first spoke to her about going.

Mrs. King said Sister Superior had found some one to send with me. She told me this when she saw my photo was approved. She said we were to be at the Bori Bunder station at 2 o'clock. No. 2 then went away. Next morning Sister Superior showed me a telegram received by her from King.

It was to enquire if Mrs. King had started with the two girls. Sister Superior told me to get ready and I went off to the station. Sister Superior said I would see Miss Coutts who was to go with me to the station.

After the receipt of the telegram No. 2 did not come to the Home. I knew her as Mrs. Henderson.

I went to the station and I saw there No. 2 and Miss Coutts whom I had not known before.

A lady, Mrs. Parseller, had accompanied me to the station from the Home. She was not living at the Home. Her husband is alive. I had not known her before. She is Miss Coutts' sister.

Mrs. King took 3rd class tickets for me, Miss Coutts and herself.

The name mentioned in the telegram was Mrs. King, the Sister Superior told me she had asked No. 2 about it. Up to that time I had known her as Mrs. Henderson. I think No. 2 had come after the receipt of the telegram to the Home, but I was not there. Sister Superior told me No. 2 told her her real name was Mrs. King, but she did not like to use that as her friends would not know her by that name. No. 2 had told me we were to travel second class. We told her we refused to travel 3rd class. She said she could not help it. She had not enough money sent to her. We three started by the Punjab Mail leaving at 2-30 P.M., we left that train at Nowshera where we arrived on Monday evening. We left on Saturday 23rd and arrived on Monday 25th September at 7 P.M.

Before we got out, No. 1 came and asked us if we were ladies from Bombay. No. 2 was not travelling in the same compartment with him. We got out and got into another train—narrow gauge—and we went to Mardan. Mr. King took our tickets 2nd class. We all four travelled together.

We arrived at Mardan in a very little while. Mr. King went away and came back saying the Chief was waiting to see us in the waiting room. No. 1 took us to the Chief. No. 2 was with us. The Chief shook hands with us and said "Meherbani."

I know Hindustani but I did not understand his language. We all then went into the waiting room. He asked us to sit down. He was speaking to Mrs. King. I do not know what he said, but he was saying one of the photos did not agree and she said she had told him that one of the girls was sick so she had brought another lady. There was no photographs there. He told Mrs. King to let us go home—the tongas were waiting. The Chief left us and drove away in his garry—a dog cart. He had no difficulty in walking. From what I saw he did not appear to be decrepit. We got into a tonga. I and Miss Coutts, and drove away to a house in the bazar. It had a ground floor and an upper floor. We occupied the upper floor. I and Miss Coutts occupied one set of compartments and the Kings occupied the other set. One stair case led to both sets.

Our apartments consisted of one sitting-room, one bed-room and one bath-room. There was an empty room leading to the verandah which looked on to the street. Miss Coutts and I shared the same bed-room. There were no chicks when we arrived. We then sat down to dinner with the Kings in their rooms.

We spoke to the Kings the same night about the work we had to do. Mr. King told us he would settle it next day. Next day we had breakfast and we again asked about our work. He said the Chief would not trouble us for 2 or 3 days as he knew we were tired after our journey. That was on the 26th.

Next day, the 27th, Miss Coutts and I sat down in our own rooms to write letters.

While we were writing, No. 2 came in running and told us to get ready as the Chief was coming to see us. We said we were well enough dressed. She said it would not do and that we were to put on good dresses. We put on other dresses.

In about 20 minutes the Chief came in. The man in the palki is the Chief I have spoken about. He had not a beard then. He has one now. Mr. King was with the Chief when he came. King brought a basket with him.

The basket had fruit, biscuits, sweets, a bottle of cherry whisky and a bottle of brandy.

The Chief asked King to go out and he left. We were then in our sitting room. We were only three then in the room—Chief, myself and Miss Coutts. The Chief asked King to shut the door as he went out and King did so.

After Lunch.

3-30 P.M.

P. C.—I deliver short oral judgment on Mr. Invararity's application and dispense with the personal attendance of the third accused till the further order of this Court and direct that all witnesses for the Crown who are required to identify him should do so now.

Daisy Coutts sworn, examined by the Advocate-General.

The Chief sat down and began talking. I did not understand his language. I did not understand what he said. There were two windows in the room. From the windows you could see the hills. There was a sort of yard outside. The windows were at the back of the house. I was sitting on a sofa near one of these windows. Miss Coutts was on a chair opposite to me. There was a table, a sofa and two or three chairs. He was talking to Miss Coutts. I could not understand what he was saying. He asked me a question which I did not understand. I asked Miss Coutts what he said. She told me he wanted to know my age. I told him in Hindustani. Then he spoke to Miss Coutts and asked her age; she told him. Then he said something to Miss Coutts which I did not understand. She explained to me that he was saying that in his country a man's age is judged by his teeth and a woman's by her breast. He spoke to her again and she spoke to him again. She was asking him about the Durbar. Mrs. King had told us that we would go to the Durbar with the Chief. The Chief spoke to Miss Coutts in Hindustani. I understand a little of it. The Chief only laughed when Miss Coutts spoke about the Durbar. He then pointed to the window and told me "Kholo".....

I got up to the window. He got up and called Miss Coutts. He was to my right and Miss Coutts was behind me. He pointed to the hills from the window and told me those were Malakand hills. He also spoke about some buffalo fights taking place in the yard below. Miss Coutts explained this to me. He said nothing further and we were quiet for a little while. As I turned my head to the right from the left where I was looking I saw something dark near me. It was the Chief's hand near my breast about an inch, the hand was half closed; the front, that is the inside, of the hand was towards me. When I saw that I ran across the room to the other side of the table. He said, "why are you frightened." Miss Coutts said "we have told you our ages. Why don't you believe us." He said something which I did not understand. Miss Coutts explained that he had said, "When you are in a place where it is the custom, why not go by it?"

We told him we had not come for that purpose. We had come to work. He took no notice and asked something else. I did not understand what he said. Miss Coutts explained that he asked when he could come and do what he would like with us and that he asked whether we would go to his palace or we come to his bungalow. I said, "I told you we have not come for that but we have come as governesses to the Rani." He said something to Miss Coutts and she told me to smile. I asked her why. She said the Chief said I looked very cross. I had a cross face on. After that he left the room. I don't know if I smiled.

The Chief called out to Mr. King. After a little while Mrs. King came into the room. She said the Chief was very angry and had said, "Mr. King, what have you done?" We told Mrs. King what had happened and said, "We did not wish to stay there." Mrs. King said, "You must not be angry. He only touched you as a father would touch her child." I said, "No such thing." We asked her to send King. We wanted to see him. She came back and said Mr. King said he was ashamed to see us. We went to Mr. King's room with Mrs. King. We spoke to him. He said he was sorry. He said he would settle up with us and he would himself leave the service after taking his pay.

The Chief did not ask us if we had any University degrees or passed any examination, so far as I know. He did not ask if we had experience or abilities as governesses. He did not ask us if we had knowledge of needlework or embroidery. We never said we had no qualifications and no experience and no certificates. I have learnt embroidery and needlework.

I can't do needlework, but I do embroidery and fancy work.

After our conversation we did not speak again of this incident. We ate the fruit and gave the liquor to Mr. and Mrs. King. We had no money to get away with.

Mrs. King came in the afternoon and said a sepoy had come to take away her Charley and shoot him. She was drunk.

Later on we went up with King on the terrace. We had dinner that night in our own rooms.

While we were in bed Mrs. King came and told us the Rani had come with her retinue. We had locked the door from inside. We wanted to go to the front verandah to see her. She said the Chief had sent word by her husband that we should not go out on the verandah till the chicks were put up. I wrote this letter. I began the letter in the morning the Chief came to see us (Wednesday). I finished it next day. I gave the letter to the chokra to post. It was in an envelope addressed by me. I always wrote S. A. G. in a corner of the envelope. All girls in the Convent do that.

Letter, dated the 28th September 1911 (Exhibit C).

Exhibit C.

This envelope is not in my handwriting.

I had begun writing Exhibit C. on the day that the Chief called on us. I had written to the place I have marked with red pencil, when the Chief came. When I put a dash after But—I was referring to what had happened when the Chief came. I changed the 27th to the 28th when I resumed writing this letter.

This envelope is not addressed by me. I did not put my letter (Exhibit C) in this envelope. I know it is King's writing. I know his writing.

Envelope (Exhibit D).

Exhibit D.

The Rani came the day after the Chief came (Thursday, 28th).

Next morning, 29th Friday, Mrs. King sent me a note. That note I have destroyed. In the note it was stated that the Chief had asked King to ask us not to go out on the verandah till the chicks were put up.

That day Mrs. King came to us and we said, "Where is the Rani? We have not seen her." And she said, "There is no Rani, but don't tell Mr. King that I have told you this."

Nothing occurred that day.

On the 30th, the last day we were there, Mrs. King told us not to go out into the verandah—that some police had come to enquire about us. We went to King's room. He said a policeman had come, but that he had sent him away saying there were no girls here.

King said he would inform the Chief in the evening when out for a motor drive. He went out about 6 and told me he was going to see the Chief. We had dinner with Mrs. King, and just as we were retiring King came in very late. He came in a great hurry and told us to pack our things, saying we must leave for Rawalpindi that night. We got ready, put on our hats and came to the verandah. I was wearing a cap. Mr. King told us to take our caps off and sent Mrs. King to bring towels to put over our heads. She brought three towels. We said we were not going to take our hats off. He insisted saying there were lot of natives down there who will see you. We put the towels over our heads. He said, "Put the towels close over your faces," and we did so. King's son had a lamp which King got him to blow out and take inside.

That was when we were in the verandah. We were taken through a lot of little lanes. We went to a garden. We had been there before at night after dinner.

Q.—How many days before?

A.—Don't know.

On this occasion I don't think we followed the same route. There is a small museum in the garden. When we arrived the Chief was waiting at the door of the museum. It was dark. There was a hurricane lamp in the museum. It was about half past eight or a little later. The Chief shook hands with us, and asked us how we were—by we, I mean Miss Coutts and myself.

He caught me by my hand and was leading me into the museum. I refused to go in. The Kings told me not to be afraid but to go with him. I refused. Miss Coutts said she would go first. The Chief and Miss Coutts went inside. Miss Coutts was in about 10 minutes. I went and took my seat on a bench with the Kings. They said, "Why are you afraid?" Said I was silly not to go in; the Chief would not do anything to me as there were some other women inside. I said, "if the Chief wants to say anything why does he want us in the dark, why does he not say it here?" After 10 minutes Miss Coutts came out and the Kings told me to go in. I told Miss Coutts I did not want to go in. She said, "You can go in, Miss Swannell, but don't let the Chief put his hands on you". Mrs. King said she would go with me. As she was willing to come I went with her as far as the door.

The Chief was standing at the entrance. He caught my hand, took me in and closed the door. When I turned, I found Mrs. King had run away. There was nobody in the museum besides the Chief and myself. The Chief led me to one of the benches and asked me to sit down. I sat down and he sat beside me. He was talking and pointing to some pictures on the walls. I could not understand what he said. He went on talking. I did not answer because I did not understand him. I told him so. He was laughing and said (words in vernacular), "I will make you a Pathani." He said he would cut my hair across the forehead and passed his finger over my forehead. He went on talking. I said, "What are you saying?" He said (words in vernacular), "Give a kiss." He pointed to the cheek. He touched his own cheek twice and said (words in vernacular) "Give here". After that he asked me to give him my ring which I wear on my middle finger. He caught my hand and said, "Give this," pointing to the ring. I drew my hand away.

After that he asked me for a bunch of keys which I had in my hand. I did not reply. He then put his hand up to my ear and asked me to "give these." I had no earrings, though before that he had seen me wearing earrings. After that I felt the weight of his hand on my chest. I stood up. He took hold of the end of the scarf I was wearing. He asked me to sit down again but I refused. He said (words in vernacular), "Why don't you let me see?" I said, "I had not come for that kind of thing", and told him I did not want to stay. He asked me whether he should tell Mr. King about it. I said he could. I told him to tell. He went to the door and called King. I went to the door also. I saw Mr. and Mrs. King and Miss Coutts. He began talking to Mr. King and we asked Mr. King to tell us what he said. King said the Chief was sending us to Rawalpindi that night because police had come to make inquiries.

Mr. King said at Rawalpindi nobody will notice us, there being so many other Europeans. He also said I and Miss Coutts would return to Hoti after a short while. We were told not to go out alone when there, but that some one should go with us. This was what the Chief said as interpreted to us by King.

The Chief then stroked me and Miss Coutts under the chin and then we left.

The Chief touched me here (pointing to her chest) on my breast after he had touched my ear. The palm of his hand touched me.

Wednesday, 14th February 1912.

C. W. KING AND OTHERS.

Elsie Swannell further examined by the Advocate-General.

The Khan did not say anything about being brought there against his instructions. He did not suggest that we were not to remain in his service. He said we were to return when the bungalow would be ready for us.

We then went on to the street where there were tongas waiting for us. We drove to the station, all four of us. It was not Mardan station. We got in train for Rawalpindi. Mr. King got the tickets. We had no money.

We reached Rawalpindi early in the morning. We went to the Dak Bungalow. King then left and returned and took us to another house. He said he was going to see Baba. I understood him to be the Chief's cashier.

At the bungalow the cashier was there. He was a Sikh. Baba paid us.

This was on the 1st of October. He gave us Rs. 26 each for service from 23rd to 30th September and paid us Rs. 30 each extra for our expenses. He told us distinctly that these sums were for the new month, and we would be returning to Hoti shortly. Baba left after paying and King left that night. We remained at Rawalpindi—myself, Miss Coutts and Mrs. King.

On the 6th October I wrote the letter to Sister Superior in Bombay. I had not heard from her. Mr. King had said we might go to Murree. He also said we might go to Cashmere.

The Kings told us at Hoti we would have no work to do. In this letter I refer to what the Chief tried to do at the house where we were and at the museum.

Letter, dated 6th October 1911 (Exhibit E).

Exhibit E.

I got a letter from Sister Superior. This is that letter. This was put in another envelope and sent on to me.

Mrs. King spoke of an English governess—an old lady who was going back to England—and she said that is why two governesses were required. We saw no governess there.

Letter, dated 1st October 1911 (Exhibit F).

Exhibit F.

I then received a telegram. I destroyed it when I came to Bombay. I think we received two telegrams. I am not sure. I destroyed both. This was the first one.

Original telegram, dated 6th October 1911 (Exhibit G.)

Exhibit G.

I sent this letter to the Sister Superior on the 9th of October. Before that letter I sent a telegram to Sister Superior. It was to this effect. I prepaid the wire for reply.

Telegram, dated 7th October 1911 (Exhibit H).

Exhibit H.

I think I got a reply. I am not sure. This is my telegram. I sent it to King.

Telegram, dated 7th October 1911 (Exhibit I).

Exhibit I.

Letter, dated 9th October 1911 (Exhibit J).

Exhibit J.

Khan sent us fruit from Mardan.

At Rawalpindi we had to pay for our own expenses. I got a wire from King saying he was coming from Hoti to Rawalpindi in a motor to take us for a drive. He came the next night. I have destroyed the telegram.

He came by train. He went away next day.

I told King about the letter from Sister Superior. He said, "Why do you want to go? It is nothing at all."

I did not see King till the police came. We remained there. Police came on 11th or 12th with a Roman Catholic priest. Superintendent Farquhar came there. Mrs. King was there. He asked if Mrs. King was living there. We said, Yes. He said, "Who are you?" We said we came from Bombay. We told him we had been brought as governesses for Rani to look after her children. Mr. Farquhar told us there was no Rani and we had to go to Bombay. We said we were willing to go, but we had no money to pay our fares. He asked us to get ready and he went out. Mrs. King said, "Why do you want to go to Bombay? Sit here and get your pay. There is no work here." She further said, "Now you are going away, I won't get the Rs. 200 the Chief promised me." We packed up and left with the Superintendent to the Deputy Commissioner. He sent us to his bungalow and his wife. We remained there till 6 and then we were sent to the Cantonment Hotel. Mrs. King remained behind but came at night to the hotel to see us. She said she had wired to King that we were taken away by the police. She left that night and next morning came with King. King said,

"Don't be afraid of the police; they can do nothing to you." He said he had shown the wire to the Chief who had told him, "Save yourself and save me."

He said, "Tell the police I had brought you to teach my children." He said he had three children.

They then left and we never saw them again until we saw them in the Police Court. He said he would meet us at the station. We said Commissioner's wife was coming there, so he did not come. We were two days at the Cantonment Hotel and then we left for Bombay.

We came to Bombay second class. Three policemen in turn were in charge of us successively on our journey.

We went to the Home on arrival in Bombay. These three letters are in Mr. King's handwriting (three letters marked X-1 for identification). These two letters were also in King's handwriting (two letters marked X-2 for identification). These five letters are also in King's handwriting (five letters marked X-3 for identification). These two letters are also in King's handwriting (two letters marked X-4 for identification). These two letters are also in King's writing (two letters marked X-5 for identification).

Examined by Mr. Inverarity. (Before Mr. Wadia by consent.)

I am not an Eurasian. I was born at Jubbulpore. I sometimes lived at Belgaum with my grandmother—my mother's mother.

I have been employed as shop girl and telephone girl.

I was at Whiteaway's, the Telephone Exchange, Shilling Stores, King & Co. King & Co. are Parsi picture-frame makers. Nowhere else.

I began being in service since 1905.

I left school in October 1905.

I have no relatives in Bombay. I have upcountry.

We saw the Khan on only three occasions. The interview at the station must have been about 15 minutes. The interview at the house lasted for about half an hour. In the garden the interview must have been an hour or a little more—from the time we came to the garden till the time we left. I was on this occasion 10 to 15 minutes with him. We went to the garden late, about 8-30. It took us a little while to get to the station. It was about a mile.

Sister Superior told me before I left home for the station that No. 2's real name was Mrs. King. Mrs. King always asked to see the Sister Superior whenever she came there and always did see her. It was stated on the very first occasion that two governesses were to go. When another lady was sick (Mrs. Schultz) Mrs. King suggested I should go alone. I was at first to go with Mrs. Schultz. I know her. She is a married woman. She had no children. She is a young woman, about 27. She is in Bombay. She was in Bombay when witnesses were examined in the Police Court. She could not go as she was in hospital; she has lived at the Home with me. She left the Home two days ago. She was in the Home when Police Court proceedings were going on. Mrs. King said if she could not get any one she would take me alone. As a matter of fact she got Mrs. Glendenning. I don't know if she was to get higher pay. Mrs. Glendenning was living in the Home. She agreed to go.

We were asked by Mrs. King to be photographed, so that our photos may be sent to the Chief.

Exhibit B is a correct photo of Mrs. Glendenning. She is quite an old lady. She must be past fifty. She is a widow. She has a son who is married. She is a grandmother. She and I were to go together. She was to go for a month till Mrs. Schultz got well and then Mrs. Schultz was to take her place. After being photographed I knew that her photo was not sent. I never heard from any one that Mrs. Glendenning was not willing to go. I made no inquiry as to why she was not going.

Q.—Did you say in the Police Court Mrs. Glendenning's photo was kept back as she did not want to go.

A.—I don't remember. I may have said it. I read over my deposition and signed it.

(Deposition shown.)

I must have said this if it is there. It is there in the deposition which was read over to me by the Court Interpreter and I signed it. I made an addition after the deposition was read over to me.

The next person I heard who was to accompany me was Mrs. Parceller. She is a married woman. She is 24. Her husband is alive. I don't know if her husband is in Bombay. She has two children. On the day I went to Bori Bunder Mrs. Parceller had come to the Home to see Sister Superior. Sister Superior told me she was not going with me. That was on the day I went to the station. When I and Mrs. Parceller went to the station Miss Coutts was there. I don't know if this was the first time Mrs. King knew that Miss Coutts was going in Mrs. Parceller's place. I don't know if Mrs. King had seen Miss Coutts before she saw her at the station.

Miss Coutts told me afterwards she was working with a lady. She told me also that she had been a nurse in two different hospitals in Bombay. She did not tell me anything else about her employment.

I did not know, but I have since heard, that before Mrs. Schultz was asked to go Mrs. King was trying to get Mrs. Rogers to go to Hoti Mardan. Mrs. Rogers is a married woman with a husband and three children in Bombay. Mrs. Glendenning may have been in Bombay, but I know Mrs. Parceller was in Bombay when Police Court proceedings were going on. Mrs. Parceller lives at the Home. She was not in the Home when it was arranged that she should go to Mardan. She came to live at the Home perhaps a month ago or more. She came some time after I returned to Bombay. There is a register showing when people come to live at the Home and when they leave. Boarders pay if they are working and are able to pay.

We went third class. We took our luggage with us. I took all the clothes with me. I took a number of dresses with me. The Chief was at the station and it was explained to me that one of the ladies was not the same as in the photo. I was not told that he expected a more elderly person than Miss Coutts. All that was explained to me was that the Chief complained that one photo agreed and one did not. I saw no photos at the waiting room.

I never said at the Police Court that I saw my photo when at the waiting room. I am sure I did not say so.

I see I am taken to have said this. It must be a mistake. I never saw my photo at the waiting room.

I did not say at the Police Court, "I told No. 2 I had no testimonials or certificates as I had never been in that sort of service before, and Mrs. King said it was unnecessary."

I was alone with her when we had the conversation. At the Mardan Station Mrs. King told me she had explained that the lady who ought to have come was sick, and Miss Coutts had come instead. The lady who was sick was Mrs. Schultz.

The bungalow we went to is in the bazaar—a crowded part of the town.

The bungalow is in the market. There was only one bed-room provided for me and Miss Coutts. The rooms opened out on a verandah which runs a considerable length. That verandah runs not only opposite our and King's rooms but a number of rooms let to tenants.

I never went over, but I was told by the Kings that there were many tenants. I did not see the tenants.

From our rooms we could have walked the whole length of the verandah right in front of the range of rooms. I could see the verandah from end to end. The verandah might have been a 100 yards long. We were living there four days before the chicks were put up.

They were put up on the day we left, the 30th of September. We arrived on the 25th and the chicks were not put up till the 30th. At Hoti we used to go out. We went out on two occasions. I don't remember the first. I can't say if it was Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday. On that occasion we walked through the streets with Mr. and Mrs. King. On the first occasion we went to the garden and spent some time there. I don't know if that garden is surrounded by houses. I don't know how big it was. It is a small garden. I don't know if public are permitted in. I was told there was another garden which was public, but that this was not. We were out at 7-30 P. M. It was dark. I don't know if it was moonlight night. We walked back with the Kings. This was after the Chief had come to see us at our bungalow.

I did not find the natives gathering round and staring at us in the streets. I did complain of the natives staring at us during the day. When we were at the verandah there used to be a great crowd downstairs staring at us. We made no complaint. What I have said first about complaint was correct. Yes, we did complain.

We were told that we could get on the verandah after chicks were put up.

We did not put towels over our head to disguise the fact that we were Europeans and to prevent the crowds staring at us. They were put on for concealment so that people should not know that we were Europeans.

My letter of 28th September was posted on the same day at Mardan. I see that by Exhibit D.

I put the dash underneath and on the side of "But" in that letter. I did it with the same pen and ink. Both the underlining of "But" and dash were made by me immediately after writing the word "But" and before I wrote anything else. I put both lines with the same pen and ink. I can see no difference.

The Sister Superior had not warned me against the possibility of improper conduct on the part of the Chief.

(Exhibit F-portions read out of the letter.) I do not remember the story the Sister Superior refers to about a girl running out of the bathroom, and I do not remember what she told me when I was leaving. I don't remember what the Sister Superior refers to in her letter. I knew when I got the letter that there may be occasion for my running out of the bathroom. This is in reply to my letter with a 'But'.

The Sister Superior says the Chief must be a very honourable man and I was not to be afraid.

I don't know that that means that the Sister Superior had not drawn any adverse inference from my letter with 'But'.

The Chief came to the bungalow about 11 in the morning.

I don't know how the Chief came into the bungalow. It was 11 o'clock in the day. I don't know if there were plenty of people about. I understood him when he pointed to the hills and said, these are Malakand hills, and I understood him when he said (words in vernacular), "Why are you afraid?"

I understood nothing directly what the Chief said except these two things. All the rest Miss Coutts explained to me.

The Khan does not understand English. I don't suppose he knew what Miss Coutts was saying to me.

Miss Coutts said the Khan had asked, "When can I come and do as I like?"

I did not think of writing this in my letter the next day to Sister Superior. I can give no reason why I did not, beyond this, that I did not think of it.

I did not write in the subsequent letters this incident because I did not want to write.

I remained a fortnight after this bungalow incident, but I never wrote to anybody.

27th September to 11th October.

We never knew that we were going to see him before we actually saw him in the garden.

We were taken down to the street to get into the tongas. When we got down Mr. King told us the Chief was waiting to see us. We asked why we were taken to the museum. King told us the Chief was waiting to meet us. We went because we expected the Chief would not behave in the same way again.

I did not mention the whisky and brandy and merely wrote about wines because we had no particular reason for doing so.

At the bungalow the Chief never touched my person. I saw his arm across my breast. His right arm was there. There was nothing wrong with his hand or arm. He had a stick in hand.

I never noticed anything wrong with his arms, hands or legs. He appeared to be a man with full use of his limbs.

At the museum door he caught my wrist. I did not say tight.

He used no violence. He closed his hand on my wrist. He did not grasp my wrist. On both occasions at the museum he caught my wrist in the same way.

The museum is in the centre of the garden. I don't know if there are four roads meeting at the museum. It is a round room. It is a building of some sort of netting. I don't know if it is made of wooden trellis work. I don't know if people from the garden can see inside. I don't know if there are four doors to that structure.

After lunch.

In the museum I did not understand most of what the Khan said. I understood him to say he would make me a Pathani. That is what I remember best.

In the Police Court I left it out altogether and mentioned it on the second day after my evidence was read over to me. I left it out on the day I gave the account of my interview.

I left it out because I did not remember it at the time. I understood him when he asked for my ring. He did it like this (touching the ring and passing his fingers over mine).

Q.—Did he close his fingers on the ring?

A.—I don't understand what you mean. He made me no present of money or anything. Nor to Miss Coutts. He asked me for my gold ring and earring. When I got up he said :—

“Why don't you let me look? I don't know what he wanted to see. I don't know whether he referred to the scarf or not.”

When I told him I did not wish to stay there he said—I understood he said, “I did not want to stay there.” He then asked me if he should tell Mr. King. I did not understand anything else. We came out afterwards.

Q.—You did not understand about the kiss.

A.—I did understand.

In the Police Court I said I did not understand.

I understand the word “Bosa.” I did not understand it at all. He pointed out his cheek.

I did not understand what a “Bosa” (word in vernacular) meant. I understood “to me”.

I understood the word “Do” (word in vernacular) give.

I don't know the Chief's language is (word in vernacular). I thought Urdu.

I went to Rawalpindi willingly. So did Miss Coutts. I never asked to go to Rawalpindi because Mrs. King was going there. She never mentioned that she was suffering from abscess and was going to Rawalpindi.

I was about 11 days at Rawalpindi before the police came. We had Rs. 112 paid to us on the day we arrived at Rawalpindi. When we left Hoti Mardan after the museum incident I told Mr. and Mrs. King I wanted to go but they said, “The Chief won't come near us for four or five months, so don't go.”

On the 1st of October we had enough money to go to Bombay if we wished. We did not go because we did not see any harm then.

We went to market at Rawalpindi and brought some provisions for ourselves. We went to the Post Office to post our own letters. We also went to the Telegraph Office. We walked about in the compound.

Sometimes we walked about on the road.

There was nothing to prevent us going out whenever we wished. Rawalpindi is the principal town of the district. There are many officials there.

I don't know if there is a Roman Catholic Mission there.

I don't know if there is a Convent School.

I never saw a Church. I never went to one. I did not go and ask any one for help because I had already written to Sister.

I did not write to Sister Superior till six days after our arrival. We knew nobody at all there.

We were willing to stop at Rawalpindi and did not want to come back to Bombay as the Kings told us that the Chief would not be there for four or five months.

We were told that we were to go to Hoti back in a few days. I did not express willingness. I would not have been willing. I would not have stayed at Rawalpindi for four or five months.

I had no qualification for governess. (Shown letter of 6th October 1911. Exhibit E).

(“or return back to Hoti Mardan from here” after staying at Rawalpindi till the 15th.)

I gave the Sister to understand that we were staying at Rawalpindi till the 15th and then either go to Murree for a couple of days or return direct to Hoti Mardan from there.

I don't remember if all telegrams and letters from Sister Superior were addressed to me at Hoti Mardan.

I see this telegram (Exhibit G) was addressed to me at Hoti Mardan. Letters were forwarded by King.

I received no letters from Sister Superior at Hoti Mardan. The only letter I got was forwarded to Rawalpindi by King unopened and in the original envelope addressed by the Sister herself. I wrote whatever letters I wished to the Sister Superior in Bombay. She received all my letters. I could have written to any of my friends and acquaintances I liked, or to any of my relations I liked. My parents are not alive.

As a shop girl I made friends and acquaintances in Bombay—not numerous. I wrote to two of them, Mrs. Schultz and Mrs. Palmer. I wrote to them from Rawalpindi. I don't know on what day. Might be the same day as I wrote to Sister Superior. They were not able to do anything for me, so I did not ask their assistance. I told them nothing of what I have said here. A Roman Catholic priest came with Mr. Farquhar. I don't know why he brought the priest with him. I told him that we had come as governesses. I believed that at that time. The priest said we had been brought to lead the life of sin. That was the first time I learnt this. I had never seen the priest. Superintendent of Police said he had a warrant to search for two girls. He asked us if we were willing to go. He did not say we must go. He left it to us. I told the Commissioner's wife all that had taken place. We told her that the Khan had asked when he could come and do what he liked with us. We were then kept in charge of the police. A police sentry was stationed at our door the whole time we were there. We remained in police charge till we arrived at the Home in Bombay. Police took us to the Home from the railway station. We arrived here on the 15th of October. We were in the charge of the police from 11th to the 15th of October. We have been in frequent communication with the police since.

I have spoken to my employer, Dorosha King, about my experiences in Hoti Mardan. I never told him in detail everything. I did not tell him all that the Khan had done was to put his finger on my cheek.

I did not tell him that the Khan had asked us when he could come and do what he liked. I simply told him we left because the Chief was not a good man. Never said anything about the Khan's conduct except that I told him that he did not behave as he should have.

(Exhibit J: letter, dated 9th October.) This gives a correct description of what the Khan did. It is true we kept well on our guard. The letter might imply he did not touch us, but he did.

No one was present at any of our conversations with the Kings. When King told me the Chief had said, "Save yourself and save me," no one was present except our two selves and Mr. King. My pay was Rs. 130 out of which Rs. 30 were for messing. What Mrs. Parceller was to get I don't know. Miss Coutts went in place of the sick lady and she was to get Rs. 130 a month. I was to get Rs. 115 of which Rs. 15 was for messing. It was arranged that one was to get Rs. 130 and another Rs. 115. I get now Rs. 30. I got Rs. 25 at Whiteaway's. At Shilling Stores I got Rs. 35 a month.

It is true that we were anxious to stop on in the Khan's service because we were getting good pay.

King never said the Khan was going to keep us for a month because if he sent us up at once no one else would come there. King did not say that the Khan said we were not qualified as governesses and did not suit him.

The Kings were anxious that we should continue as governesses.

Mrs. King said she was to get 200 rupees for procuring two good governesses.

She said if we went back she would lose her two hundred rupees.

From the station the Khan went away in a dog-cart. He had a syce. I don't know if he drove himself. It was a one-horse dog-cart. I did not see him get in. I did not see him after he was in the dog-cart. I saw a dog-cart at the station.

When Mrs. King came and told me the Chief was coming I had just come out of my bathroom. I was fully dressed. I had a white cotton dress on.

I put on smart clothes to come here both to-day and yesterday. I did not put on anything very smart for the Khan. I put on a silk blouse and skirt. I would put on good clothes if I was receiving any one of importance. While in Bombay I have never lived anywhere except at the Home since I left school. Mrs. Palmer used to be at the Home. She was Miss DeSouza.

To the Court: I get board and residence for 10 rupees, and when not employed I am not charged anything.

Examined by Mr. Wadia: I never knew King till I met him at Nowshera. I did not know Mrs. King before I met her in Bombay at the Home. First time Mrs. King came to the Home was about the 12th of September. It may have been on the 15th. She was dressed dirtily. She had no hat on. She had a dressing gown on then. On the next occasion she came in European clothes. I did go to the race-course about two years ago from the Foundling Home, without the Sister Superior's knowledge. I was then employed at the Shilling Stores. I was not a constant visitor at the race-course. I went there with a gentleman friend, Cilento. Mr. King has been taking letters from my box and that is how he has come to know of things. He must have taken out some of Mr. Cilento's letters. I took letters with me in my trunk. I have not missed any. I have got those letters with me still. Cilento was engaged in a cinematograph, and I was latterly engaged to be married to him.

He left India on the 15th October 1910. I was engaged to him a year before he left. He was not a jockey. I went once or twice to the race-course. I went about with him frequently quite freely and all alone. I used to go out after my tiffin. I used to meet him very frequently. I don't know of any scandal.

In the evenings I never went with him except to the Band. I never went to Cornaglin or Morigin's. The Sister Superior knew I was keeping him company. I never lived at Parel. My name will be found in the register for the whole time I was in Bombay after I left school. I never got any letter care of the Post Office, Mazagon. I do not know Miss Annie DeGa. I knew one Rosie De Ga. She is no friend of mine. I did not tell King that I got my private letters addressed to the Mazagon Post Office which Rosie De Ga brought to me.

Rosie De Ga is an orphan. She teaches infants. I know Louis Buildings at Parel. Mrs. Palmer lives there. I don't know Clay. Nor any one of that name. I only know Mr. Palmer.

Thursday, the 15th February 1912.

C. W. KING & Co.

Elsie Swannell, further cross-examined by Mr. Wadia: Mrs. Palmer was Miss DeSouza. She was in the convent and we were friends.

Before she married she lived with her brother at Parel. I did not live with her at Parel. I did go to Poona for the races with Mr. Cilento on one occasion only—quite sure. I stayed nowhere. I returned the same day by the 8 A.M. Express. I have never been at Poona for a month. I broke journey at Poona for a day when going to Belgaum. Never lived longer than a day at Poona. Mrs. Crawford is my grandmother at Belgaum. She is still there. I don't know that Cilento was a trainer. I don't know if he wrote in the early mornings. I never accompanied him. He was convicted of cocaine importing and was sent to jail. That was in July 1910. Two months while at Hoti I never heard anything of him. I never mentioned his name to King. I never mentioned Rosie DeGa or Louis Buildings, Fergusson Road, to him.

(Shown X-4.) I read the letter Miss Coutts showed me.

All letters I received came through the Sister Superior. I cannot account for what is in the letter written by King. Mrs. Palmer told me she never said anything about what is in the letter. I have a brother. I don't know where he is at present. He used to be at Lanoni. I think I last saw him in August 1910. I have not heard from him, neither have I written to him. I did not fall out with my brother about Cilento. I don't get photographed often. I was photographed twice before this time. First time it may be two years ago. Second time was in 1908 when I was at the Telephone Company, with the staff. Recently I have been photographed again, that was in January last. I gave two or three sittings on two different occasions. That was on the 6th of January last. I paid nothing for the photos. I only had three copies. Demarre said he wanted them for his studio. He used to come to the shop.

(Four photos collectively—Exhibit No. 1). The dresses in which I am photographed are not expensive dresses. It is one of my good dresses. All are in one dress. Some of the drapery was the photographer's. I did not know any one of the name of Bob Alton. I knew on the day I went to Bori Bunder that Mrs. King's real name was not Henderson. That was at 11-30 or 12 noon. Mrs. King did not tell me that the Chief had asked for one young and one elderly lady. She said one was to be assistant out of the two ladies required.

I did not hear Mrs. King say at the station that she would not take Miss Coutts. I heard her ask if she was Miss Coutts. Mrs. King was busy booking our boxes. She travelled in another compartment. She had two children with her. There were some men in our compartment. At Hoti Mardan I heard the Chief speaking to Mr. King in a language I did not understand. I don't remember the Chief speaking to Mrs. King at that station. He was speaking to her in language different from ordinary Hindustani. Mr. King said Chief said my photo was all right, but the other lady's photo did not agree. I remember the exact words of the telegram from King to the Sister Superior, received on the 22nd of September. The words were:—

"Has Mrs. King left with Miss Elsie and Miss Dolly?"

I don't know who Miss Dolly was. It was arranged from the very beginning that Mrs. Schultz was to go. While at Hoti I did not go out during the daytime. We never went out during the daytime. Mrs. King, two boys and a girl were with her during the whole time we were at Hoti. I don't know if the doors of the museum were made of trellis work. I saw a door with wires something like doors at railway station, not heavy zinc but perforated.

I don't know if the house we lived in at Rawalpindi was next door to a police-station. Miss Coutts hired a sewing machine at Rawalpindi. I bought two articles of clothes. Miss Coutts bought some clothes.

Re-examined by the Advocate-General: Before I was photographed it was decided that some one should go in place of Mrs. Schultz. The Chief's hand was intentionally near my breast on the occasion he visited us at our quarters. His hand came right across to my left.

We went into the garden through a bower with vines growing over it. It was an arch with creepers growing over it. There were also oranges. There was garden all round the museum, and there was a road, not a very long one, leading to the museum. His conduct was not like that of a father. The ages of Mrs. King's children were 8 and 3, and the other was a baby.

On 20th November 1911 I went into the service of Dorosha. I told him no details. I told him when I was called out that I was to go in connection with the case of the Chief. With that exception the subject of my visit to Hoti never came up for discussion.

To the Court: The Police Superintendent told us at Rawalpindi there was no Rani. If there had been a Rani we would have stayed on. His statement that there was no Rani affected our desire, and we said we were willing to go to Bombay. Four policemen successively travelled down by the train we came by and saw us at each station.

Daisy Coutts, sworn, examined by the Advocate-General.

Note.—At this stage I asked the Advocate-General as to how this case was initiated in Bombay and under what process the two young ladies were taken charge of by the police and brought to Bombay. In the course of the discussion the Advocate-General admits that the statement of the Police Superintendent deposed to by Miss Swannell as the one which induced her and Miss Coutts to agree to come to Bombay was false.

He further admits that there were no criminal proceedings whatever taken against the third accused when he arrived in Bombay and that they were instituted against him after his arrival in Bombay.

The Advocate-General ask me to meet him and Mr. Inverarity and Mr. Raikes in the Judge's Library. I did so. There the Advocate-General informed me that he would end the proceedings if I expressed an opinion that this was not a case that should proceed any further.

I declined to express any such opinion.

The Advocate-General informs me that after very careful consideration he has come to the conclusion that he will withdraw this case, and he informs the Court on behalf of the Crown that he will not further prosecute the accused on the charges on which they are under trial.

P. C.—I direct that all the accused be discharged and that such discharge shall amount to an acquittal.

ENCLOSURE No. 8.

Order of the Honourable Sir Dinshaw D. Davar, Judge of the Bombay High Court.

CROWN SIDE.

CORAM. THE HON'BLE JUSTICE SIR DINSHAW DAVAR AND COMMON JURY.

In this case I was prepared, long though the trial threatened to be, to hear the evidence up to the end and leave the case entirely to the Jury for disposal. I have studiously refrained from expressing any opinion during the three days that this case has been going on. This morning's discussion has led to this being found that so far as the Bombay Police were concerned, they have throughout these proceedings acted in a perfectly proper and legal manner. When the Khan of Hoti Mardan was sent down by the Upper India Police to appear here, before the Chief Presidency Magistrate, they took cognizance of the affair and placed the evidence at their disposal before the Magistrate.

It seems to me that in Upper India, from where he comes, the third accused has been subjected to a great many indignities and the procedure followed seems to me to be ununderstandable. The two young ladies, Miss Swannell and Miss Coutts, were for eleven days at Rawalpindi; they made no complaint whatever to the Police or to anybody else. Even assuming that the third accused tried to take liberties with them, those were liberties they did not seem to resent in any way, except by saying that they were not that sort of people. While they were there, the Police took no action whatever, no complaint was made to them. On information received by them from Bombay, which does not appear to be of an alarming nature, without any justification whatever, the Magistrate there issued a search warrant under which the Police took possession of the girls and sent them down to Bombay. Miss Swannell's evidence is clear that if the Superintendent of Police who executed the warrant had not made a statement which has been proved and is admitted to be incorrect, these girls would never have desired to come back to Bombay. They were perfectly at peace and were quite content to live at Rawalpindi or return to Hoti Mardan when the police took possession of them, kept them in their custody and then sent them down to Bombay in police custody after representing to them that there was no Begum at Hoti, a statement which is admittedly untrue. The Khan is arrested on evidently nobody's complaint, and is asked to go down to Bombay to answer a charge when there was no charge whatever pending against him. The charge sheet was prepared after he arrived in Bombay. The whole procedure seems to me to be most irregular and arbitrary. I have heard with patience Miss Swannell's evidence for the last three days: and accepting every statement she had made to be true, the only impression that can be produced on one's mind is that there were certain acts of the third accused, which she apprehended to be the acts of familiarity, but they were acts of a most trifling nature. It must be remembered that the third accused, when the two girls were at Hoti, could have taken advantage of them, but beyond being a few minutes with them on three occasions he did not interfere with their liberty. He saw them first at the Railway station, where his behaviour is admitted to have been perfectly proper and kind. He saw them in the house for a few minutes, where he never even touched either of them. The next time he met them in the public garden, and what was said to be a museum turns out to be a summer house which is admitted by Miss Swannell to be surrounded by open trellis work, and the Khan could not have done anything improper there even if he had any desire to do so, either in the garden or in the museum house.

Under these circumstances, I can only say that the course adopted by the Advocate-General is an exceedingly proper one, and is in keeping with the usual fairness with which he has always conducted Crown cases. I direct that all the accused be discharged and that the discharge may amount to an acquittal.

I have no hesitation in saying that the third accused, as well as the humbler two, will leave this Court without a stain on their character. Nothing that has transpired in this case during the last three days has justified the smallest reflection being cast on the good character of the two young ladies.

ENCLOSURE No. 9.

Statement of Mr. A. H. Grant, C.I.E., I.C.S., late Deputy Commissioner of Peshawar.

In December 1911 I was Deputy Commissioner and District Magistrate of Peshwar, and had been so for more than a year. On the 17th December 1911 I received from the Chief Commissioner, North-West Frontier Province, the letter from the Bombay Government, No. 9833 B., dated 8th December 1911, enclosing a statement by Miss Swannell with the endorsement—

“Transferred in original to Deputy Commissioner, Peshawar, for necessary and early action and return. G. R. K.”

This letter from the Bombay Government stated that a complaint had been made to the Commissioner of Police, Bombay, that two girls, Miss L. C. Swannell, age 21, and Miss Coutts, age 22, had been abducted by a Mrs. King on the pretext that they were to be companions to the Rani of Hoti Mardan. On further enquiry, the Bombay Government had ordered that legal proceedings should be taken against Mr. King, chauffeur to Khan Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Khan of Hoti Mardan, and his wife Mrs. King under Section 366 of the Indian Penal Code. The Bombay Government further asked that the Chief Commissioner, North-West Frontier Province, would take such notice as he might consider necessary, of the Khan of Hoti Mardan's objectionable conduct.

2. After the most careful consideration I decided that the only course open to me was to issue a warrant for the arrest of Khan Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Khan, under Sections 366 and 109, Indian Penal Code, i.e., for the abetment of the abduction of the said two girls.

3. My reasons for taking this action were—

- (1) Miss Swannell's sworn statement* incriminated Khwaja Muhammad Khan as much as, if not more than Mr. and Mrs. King.

* Forwarded with the Bombay Government letter.

- (2) The Bombay Government had ordered the arrest and prosecution of the Kings under Section 366, Indian Penal Code.

- (3) The Bombay Government were obviously under the impression that the Khan was a Ruling Chief of sorts, and therefore not amenable to the ordinary law.

- (4) This was not so. The Khan is an ordinary rich land-owner. To accord differential treatment to the Khan merely on the ground of his wealth and position, would have been obviously a travesty of justice.

- (5) I had corroborative evidence that the girls in question had actually been to Hoti.

- (6) I had further corroborative evidence that the Khwaja had personally met and examined the girls at the Mardan railway station.

- (7) I had further evidence that the Khwaja had no wife living for whom a female European companion could be required, and no young children for whom a governess was wanted.

(8) I had evidence that Mr. King, the Khan's chauffeur, was not in a financial position to have obtained the girls for himself and that the natural inference, therefore, was that he had acted, as alleged, under the Khan's orders in obtaining them.

This action was taken by me under Section 190-C of the Criminal Procedure Code. I considered that the evidence detailed above was sufficient to justify the Khan's arrest, and that no other course was open to me. As regards the section under which I ordered this arrest, I was guided mainly by the fact that the Bombay Government had ordered the prosecution of the Kings under Section 366, and considered it logical, therefore, to issue a warrant against the Khan under the same Section, coupled with Section 109, abetment. I hold that the evidence before me left me no alternative but to act as I did, and this view is substantiated by the fact that it was on this evidence, mainly, that the Chief Presidency Magistrate, Bombay, subsequently committed the three accused to trial by the Bombay High Court.

5. The warrant was issued under my own hand and was given by me personally to the Superintendent of Police, with special instructions that the arrest should be effected in the most unostentatious manner by a British Police Officer, and that every consideration should be shown to the Khan. That these instructions were carried out is clear from the statement, dated 24th April 1912, of Mr. Woodhouse, Assistant Superintendent of Police, who effected the arrest on the 20th December 1911.

6. As regards bail, I very fully considered this question before issuing the warrant and came to the conclusion that I could not allow bail for the following reasons:—

- (1) The offence charged was non-bailable.
- (2) I considered that there were reasonable grounds for believing that the Khan had been guilty of the offence of which he was accused.
- (3) Peshawar is situated on the border and offers every facility for the escape of accused persons to the asylum of Afghanistan or the tribal hills. Indeed, so common is the habit of persons absconding from justice that bail is practically never allowed on the frontier in non-bailable offences. There are many instances of rich men flying from justice to Kabul, where they usually meet with a friendly reception.
- (4) The Khan was very rich and there was reason to believe that he might use his great wealth to tamper with the evidence.

The nature of the offence, the extent of the evidence, the peculiar conditions of the Peshawar border, the wealth of the accused, seemed to me to preclude the possibility of allowing bail in this case, and I would note that, although the peculiar border conditions did not exist in Bombay, the Chief Presidency Magistrate subsequently took a similar view and refused bail. I would also note that after the Khan's arrest applications for bail were duly submitted to my Court and to that of the Sessions Judge and were, after full consideration, disallowed. My reasons for disallowing bail were fully recorded in my orders of the 27th and 28th December.

7. Exception has been taken to the fact that I did not record the Khan's statement immediately after his arrest. When he was brought to my house on the evening of the 20th December I happened to be out, and after full consideration I did not think it desirable to subject him to the indignity of being brought to my Court the following day, unless it should appear that his statement would materially affect the case. To ascertain whether this could possibly be so, I deputed the Superintendent of Police to go to the jail and there record the Khan's statement. This statement, as recorded on the 22nd December by Mr. Tomkins, Assistant Superintendent of Police, showed that the Khan merely denied all connection with the matter. I, therefore, saw no object in subjecting him to further examination, and a few days later when I asked his Counsel, Mr. Grey, if he would like me to do so, he replied that this was unnecessary. As regards the Khan's treatment in jail, I would call attention to the statement by Captain Thorburn, I.M.S., then Superintendent of the Peshawar jail, which is on the file. It will be seen from this that the Khan was accorded most exceptional treatment, and given every comfort and facility for seeing his friends which was compatible with jail discipline. I issued very careful instructions to the Superintendent of the Jail on the subject, and saw him several times to ensure that these instructions were carried out.

8. As regards the minor point of the telegrams from the Khan to His Majesty the King, the Viceroy, etc., which were sent to me by the Telegraph Department for orders as to whether they should issue or not, I replied immediately that they should issue. If there was any irregularity in the matter I was not concerned in it, but I should mention that the Khan's son, Lieutenant Muhammad Akbar Khan, came to see me the next day and explained that he strongly disapproved of the telegrams and had himself withdrawn them. Whether this was so or not I cannot say, but I assured him that I had no objection whatever to his issuing any telegrams he liked to any authority he liked, on the subject of his father's arrest, which was in accordance with the law.

9. Finally, I would note that the action taken by me was taken entirely upon my own responsibility as District Magistrate and without consultation with higher authority; that I acted bona fide and without the smallest prejudice. Indeed, it was a painful duty to me to have to order the arrest of a man of high standing in my district whom I had known for many years, but one which, in the circumstances, appeared to me imperative.

SIMLA;

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department (late District Magistrate, Peshawar).

ENCLOSURE No. 10.

Statement of Mr. N. S. Woodhouse, Assistant Superintendent of Police.

On 20th December 1911 I received a warrant issued by Deputy Commissioner, Peshawar, for the arrest of Khwaja Muhammad Khan of Hoti under section 366, Indian Penal Code, to the Superintendent of Police, Peshawar, and by him endorsed to me. The warrant was non-bailable. I took it with me to the house of Khwaja Muhammad Khan and told his servants I wanted to see him. They said he was ill, but when I said my business was urgent they told him, and in a few minutes I was admitted to his room where he was lying in bed.

I told him that I had the unpleasant task to perform of arresting him and conveying him to the Deputy Commissioner, and produced the warrant. He at first replied that he was too ill to go but when I told him that if the Civil Surgeon, whom I should have to summon to examine him, certified him to be too ill to go to Peshawar, I should have to put a police guard on his house, he said that he thought he would rather go to Peshawar with me. I then said I had a tonga with me, but that if he had a phaeton and he liked to use it we would drive to the station in that. As he had no phaeton we drove in my tonga, his own dogcart followed with some servants and luggage.

We travelled to Peshawar in a first class carriage, Khwaja Muhammad Khan speaking about the case from time to time. On arrival at Peshawar Cantonment Station we were met by Superintendent of Police, Peshawar, who had a 1st class phaeton waiting for us. I drove off with Khwaja Muhammad Khan to the Deputy Commissioner's bungalow, where written orders were handed to me to the effect that Khwaja Muhammad Khan should be placed in the jail. We accordingly drove to the jail where he was handed over to the jailor.

From the moment of his arrest to the time of his entering the jail, there was no mention or thought of the use of handcuffs, and I treated Khwaja Muhammad Khan with all the courtesy and consideration possible.

N. S. WOODHOUSE,
Assistant Superintendent of Police.

Dated the 24th April 1912.

ENCLOSURE No. 11.

Statement by Captain H. Hay Thorburn. I. M. S., Civil Surgeon, Wana, dated the 23rd April 1912.

1. I have the honour to forward herewith a statement of the treatment accorded to Khwaja Muhammad Khan during his incarceration in Peshawar jail, of which I was in charge at the time.

2. I was Superintendent of Peshawar jail when Khwaja Muhammad Khan was admitted as an under-trial prisoner. Instead of putting him in the hawalat with the rest of the under-trial prisoners he was put alone in a separate ward in the jail hospital. He made certain requests, and I personally went to the Deputy Commissioner to find out what concessions, if any, I was authorized to make.

The points that were discussed were as follows:—

- (i) What interviews with friends were to be permitted, as the jail rule is to the effect that under-trial prisoners are allowed two interviews weekly for a quarter of an hour each for two friends, in the presence of a jailor or assistant jailor. The Deputy Commissioner directed that he should be allowed an interview daily for one hour for four friends, provided it did not interfere with the jail administration.
- (ii) He had asked for his private servant but, owing to difficulties in allowing this, I suggested that he should be allowed to choose any prisoner in the jail who would be told off to work for him. This was agreed to.
- (iii) The jail rule is that under-trial prisoners are not allowed to have food supplied to them by their friends. Was this to be insisted on in his case? and, if so, was he to be allowed to order what he liked? He had demanded an absurdly large amount of meat, cream, etc., more than one man could eat, which would have been most injurious to him as he was suffering from gout. It was arranged that he should tell his own cook to prepare what food he wanted outside the jail and that it should be brought in to him. Also that he could get soda water, etc., as he wanted.
- (iv) He asked for certain articles of furniture, bed, commode, fire, etc., which were allowed.

He had an attack of acute gout while in jail, so I examined him daily and prescribed for him and directed him about his diet. His general attitude was troublesome, and he refused to take the medicine prescribed for him and his food. He also made complaints about the watchmen calling to each other at night.

I explained to him that, while giving him as much law as possible, he could not be allowed to interfere with the jail administration, and I further explained that if he continued to give trouble by refusing to take his medicine and food, his interviews would be stopped, as I was afraid his health would suffer if he continued the obstinate course he had adopted.

This course had to be adopted for a day or two until he took a more reasonable point of view.

2. That your petitioner has never been brought before a Magistrate, nor has any evidence, so far as he is aware, been recorded before the District Magistrate or any other Magistrate of the Province.

Barrister-at-Law,

Counsel for petitioner.

In the Court of the Judicial Commissioner, North-West Frontier Province.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

CRIMINAL REVISION No. OF 1911.

Date of hearing December 27th, 1911.

Application by Mr. Arthur Grey, Barrister-at-Law, C.I.E., and by M. Saaduddin, Pleader.

Ex parte application.

READ—Application of this date, attached by Mr. Arthur Grey, for the applicant, Khwaja Muhammad Khan, Khan of Hoti, for the release of the applicant on bail.

Noted that an application for bail has been made to and refused by the District Magistrate, and, as is understood by learned Counsel for the applicant, to the Sessions Judge, Peshawar, also.

Noted also that learned Counsel represents that owing to the closing of the District Courts during the Christmas vacation he has not been able to obtain copies of the warrant or evidence or statements against the applicant. Mr. Grey has however seen these papers in the District Magistrate's office, by the courtesy of the District Magistrate.

Noted also that counsel for the applicant states that the applicant is willing to give bail in any sum considered reasonable by the court.

Ordered under section 498 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

That the record be sent to this court by the District Magistrate of Peshawar at his earliest convenience. The application will be taken into consideration by this court as soon as the record is received, when the District Magistrate should arrange that the Crown be represented if it is considered desirable that the application should be opposed. As Mr. Grey states that he is compelled to leave Peshawar to-night, this court will be obliged if the action directed can be taken this day, if this be possible. This court notes the contents of the second paragraph of the application before it to the effect that the applicant has not yet been produced before a Magistrate although he was arrested on December 20, 1911.

(Sd.) A. L. P. TUCKER,

Judicial Commissioner.

The 27th December 1911.

A copy of the foregoing proceeding, with the application, in original, to be returned, is forwarded to the District Magistrate, Peshawar, for favour of very early action.

(Sd.) A. L. P. TUCKER,

27th December 1911.

Judicial Commissioner.

I have seen the District Magistrate regarding these proceedings.

I learn that the application for bail will be opposed; that time is required for the instruction of Counsel; that the applicant will be placed before a Magistrate having jurisdiction to-morrow. In these circumstances I suspend my order calling for the record of the case. The application can be renewed when the proceedings are more complete.

(Sd.) A. L. P. TUCKER,

27th December 1911.

Judicial Commissioner.

Mr. Arthur Grey, Barister-at-law }
Mr. Saaduddin, Pleader } for applicant.

READ—Order by the District Magistrate, Peshwar, dated December 27, 1911.

Proceedings in the court of the Sub-Divisional Magistrate of Mardan of the 28th idem.

Order by the District Magistrate of the same date.

Copy of statement attached to the first mentioned order.

Ordered under section 498 of the Code of Criminal Procedure that the applicant, Khwaja Muhammad Khan, of Hoti, Khan Bahadur, be admitted to bail on his own bond for rupees fifteen thousand, with one surety for the same amount, to appear when called upon to answer the charge, before the court of the Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Mardan, or any other court by which cognizance may be lawfully taken of the case against him.

As to the order under section 185 which I have been moved to issue, learned Counsel for the applicant not objecting, I cannot take action at present. When copies of the Magisterial proceedings and evidence recorded in Bombay are available, this court should be applied to again. No doubt it may be an advantage if there be only one trial, more particularly if the co-accused King and Mrs. King should be European British subjects. But at the present stage the information before me is not sufficient to justify the issue of the order. The Sub-Divisional Magistrate of Mardan, before whom the case is now pending, should issue remand orders from time to time, as may be necessary, until the question of jurisdiction is settled.

(Sd.) A. L. P. TUCKER,

28th December 1911.

Judicial Commissioner.

A copy of the foregoing order is forwarded for information and necessary action to the District Magistrate, Peshawar. The record is returned, the original bail application to this court and the copy of the statement of Miss E. Swannell being retained.

A copy of the order is forwarded for information to M. Saaduddin Pleader, for applicant.

(Sd.) A. L. P. TUCKER,

Judicial Commissioner.

ENCLOSURE No. 13.

No. 83, dated the 1st March 1912.

From—The Revenue Secretary to Government, Punjab,
To—The Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay.

I AM desired by the Lieutenant-Governor to address you, with a view to the correction of certain statements of fact made recently in the Bombay

High Court with reference to the conduct of the Rawalpindi Police in connection with the case against the Khan of Hoti Mardan and others for abducting two girls from Bombay.

2. It will be seen from the copy of the telegram dated the 9th October 1911, from the Bombay Criminal Investigation Department to the Superintendent of Police, Rawalpindi, that the Bombay Police alleged that the two girls had been taken from the Foundling Home at Mazagaon, ostensibly to attend on the Rani of Hoti Mardan, but that it appeared from letters received that there was no Rani and that the girls had been taken away for immoral purposes. The Sister Superior expressed a wish that the girls might be interviewed. It was possible that they were being kept under restraint. If willing, they should be returned to Bombay.

3. On this information the Superintendent of Police, Rawalpindi, thinking it probable on the information received, that the girls were actually being kept under restraint, very properly obtained a search warrant from the District Magistrate under section 100, Criminal Procedure Code, and interviewed the two girls. The girls stated that they had, on one or two occasions, asked for the Rani but had not yet seen her, whereupon the Superintendent of Police informed them of the statement in the telegram from the Bombay Police to the effect that there was no Rani. The girls were then placed in a hotel under a police guard, to prevent their being molested, and the Bombay Criminal Investigation Department were informed of the facts.

From the telegram from the Bombay Criminal Investigation Department, dated the 11th October, it then appears that the Superintendent of Police was requested to entrain the girls for Bombay, the Railway Police being made responsible for their safe custody. The Superintendent of Police, Rawalpindi, complied with this request and his connection with the case ends here.

4. It will thus be seen that the action of the Superintendent of Police, Rawalpindi, was throughout correct. The Superintendent of Police merely complied with the wishes of the Bombay Police, and was thanked by them for the prompt action which he took in the matter.

5. The remarks made by the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Davar and by the Advocate General in the course of the trial, appear to Sir Louis Dane to have put an entirely different construction on the action of the Rawalpindi Police. It was not correct to say that the girls were arrested. The Railway Police were merely directed, at the request of the Bombay Criminal Investigation Department, to see them safely on their way. Nor was any complaint made by the Rawalpindi Police, who merely reported the circumstances of the discovery of the girls and repeated to them the allegations of the Bombay Police.

The Rawalpindi Police had nothing whatever to do with the sending of the Khan of Hoti Mardan to Bombay. His Honour further considers that it is a grave injustice to the Superintendent of the Rawalpindi Police, to say that he induced the girls to leave Rawalpindi by a statement which is proved and is admitted to be incorrect. The Superintendent of Police merely repeated the allegation of the Bombay Police that from letters received by them it appeared that there was no such lady as the Rani. If this allegation was incorrect, the fault surely lay with the Bombay Police who had made it.

6. I am now to request that, if His Excellency the Governor sees no objection, the Advocate General may be moved to mention the matter in the High Court with a view to the correction of what His Honour can only regard as a wrong presentation of the facts of case. His Honour considers that a public declaration of this nature in open court is the best of amends to meet the case. If this is not possible a communiqué by the Bombay Government, if His Excellency approves, might be sufficient.

ENCLOSURE No. 14.

Statement of Khwaja Muhammad Khan of Hoti, made before the Superintendent of Police, Peshawar, on 22nd December 1911.

I was informed at the "Id-ul-Zuha" fair that there were two European girls with Mr. King, my motor driver, and that they had come the night before. I sent for Mr. King and asked him who the girls were and why they had come. He said that the girls were related to him and had been called by him to look after his children. I told him to send them back because the bazar was not a good place for them to live. I also told him to send off his wife somewhere else. He said that he would send them that evening. On the same night I heard that they had left. On cross-examination:—I did not know about the arrival of the girls. I went to the railway station to receive Rai Ram Chand, who had to come to Mardan that night. At the railway station I received a wire from Rai Ram Chand that he would not come. The wire was first sent to my house for delivery and was brought to me at the railway station. I then returned home. The train had not then come. I was not present at the station at the arrival of the train. Two or three days after this I heard that there were two girls with Mr. King. King gets Rs. 150 per mensem and free food and lodging from me. In the days of Durbar when I was at Delhi, some police officer came and enquired about King. The policeman had a wire with him for the arrest of King and his wife, but but they were not arrested. I had informed King that the police were searching for him. I thought it was a matter about an assault on the two girls, but King told me that he had got letters from the girls (some there and some at home) asking him to send for them again. I have stated all that I remember. No money is due to King from me. He had long intended leaving my service and going over to some other Nawab. Bawa Prem Singh told me about this.

ENCLOSURE No. 15.

Extract from "The Tribune" dated Lahore, 15th March 1912.

THE KHAN OF HOTI AND THE PESHAWAR ISLAMIA COLLEGE.

Translation of a letter, dated 5th April 1911, from Sirsalar Mir Alam Khan Sahib, E.A.C., Peshawar, and Moulvi Ghulam Hassan Khan, Sub-Registrar and Honorary Magistrate, Peshawar, Members of the Deputation for collecting funds for the proposed Islamia College, Peshawar.

To Khan Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Khan of Hoti.

RESPECTED SIR—Greetings! Mr. Ghulam Samdani Khan came here to-day and related the facts. He will deliver to you personally message about the matter known to you already.

Sirsalar Mir Alam Khan and myself have given due consideration to the present state of affairs and have devised a plan for your benefit. First of all, we assure you that there is no other motive but that your reputation may be enhanced, and that the misunderstandings and the dark clouds which are hanging over your honour and position may be removed. The uppermost idea in the mind of the Chief Commissioner at present is that some one may come forward to help him in establishing the Islamia College and there are good many things about it which cannot be described at present. But this much is certain, that if any respectable and wealthy gentleman may come forward to give him his hearty support in this cause there is not a shadow of doubt that the Chief Commissioner will try his level best to raise the dignity and position of that gentleman. Although we know it very well that you are personally against the scheme of establishing this College, yet you should act in subjection to the present circumstances, keeping aside all your personal feelings at present.

Very little of your life is left and if in your lifetime you spend something by your own hand out of what God has granted you, in a cause by which your good name may remain behind you, it would be better than if your property falls to those hands whom you do not wish to spare a single pie at present. And if portion of your riches is spent by you in deeds of charity, it would affect you very little. Otherwise your accumulated wealth cannot be used to any noble purpose which may be the cause of your real happiness. If having made up your mind you send a letter to the Chief Commissioner promising therein that you would pay the cost of the plot of land required for the College premises, out of your own pocket, this would be the best prescription to remove many suspicions existing about your person. This act on your part will not only be advantageous to you, but even your descendants will continue to be benefited to a great extent. Good many wise and far-sighted gentlemen are spending lots of money in this manner, and though the sum which you shall have to spend will be nothing in comparison with your status and position, but as you will be the first man in the province to come forward for this call, therefore, your rank and position will be far preferable to that of the gentlemen who will only follow your suit. You may also bear in mind that though people know very little about this at present, many of them would be coming forward with such requests ultimately. In our opinion this will be the best chance for you. If you agree with us in the matter then please write to the Commissioner directly on the subject, losing no time and inform us only about your wish.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN THE CASE AGAINST THE CHIEF OF HOTI.

So far we have dealt with the proceedings in the Court of the District Magistrate of Peshawar, and we have seen the kind of law and procedure that is to be found in the Frontier Province. But the interest displaying in this case by the administration was quite exceptional. The Khan was admitted to bail by the Judicial Commissioner of the Frontier Province and he proceeded to Bombay to meet the charge which was not prepared until after his arrival there. As soon, however, as the case came up before the Chief Presidency Magistrate of Bombay the Khan came under the jurisdiction of that Court, and all connection between him and the Frontier Province Administration ceased. The warrant issued by the District Magistrate, Peshawar, became inoperative and mere waste paper and the Khan ceased to be answerable to the Courts of the Frontier Province. Instead of realising this and letting the Khan alone the Administration sent down three police officers, one Assistant Superintendent and two Inspectors, to Bombay to help the prosecution. It is impossible to conjecture what help these officers could have given. The charge was abduction and abetment of abduction, and the offence was alleged to have been committed in Bombay. It was not denied that the girls had gone to Mardan. What evidence could these Frontier police officers give, and how would their evidence be relevant? It was sheer waste of public money and displayed quite an extraordinary and unaccountable zeal in a case with which that Administration had no concern. At Peshawar no lawyer would take up the Khan's case, and he had to take Counsel from Lahore. The Khan was rightly anxious that the case should be tried at Bombay. When the case did come up in Bombay the Frontier police had nothing further to do with the case. In the Frontier Province there is not such an array of police force even in cases of murder, which are quite common, but in a case of abduction which had taken place at Bombay and with which the Bombay police were quite competent to deal, no less than three police officers including a European officer were sent down to watch and help the proceedings.

We have referred to the zeal displayed in this case as extraordinary and unaccountable. Extraordinary it certainly was but not accountable, for it seems that the authorities of the Frontier Province had not a good opinion of the Khan. On the 17th February the Indian Daily News wrote:—The Muhammadan community all over India has been watching the Hoti-Mardan case with intense anxiety because it was pretty generally known to them that it was a false charge, and the failure of the Khan to subscribe to the Islamia College, Peshawar, had a good deal to do with it. It should be mentioned here that the Khan had been acquitted by the Bombay High Court on the 15th February. What are the facts about this Islamia College business? It is a known fact that Sir George Roos Keppel, the Chief Commissioner of the Frontier Province, is very keen about the establishment of this College and his object is very laudable. For reasons into which we need not inquire, the Khan of Hoti holds a different view on this subject and he has not subscribed to the funds of the College. In April 1911 the Khan received a letter inviting him to subscribe to the College. The letter bears no date but the postal marks on the cover are April 5, Peshawar, and April 6, Hoti. It is signed by Mir Alam Khan, Extra Assistant Commissioner and Revenue Officer, Peshawar, and Moulvi Ghulam Hassan Khan, Sub-Registrar and Honorary Magistrate, Peshawar. The letter is in Urdu and a rough translation will be found in another place. In this letter it is distinctly hinted that the Khan is under a cloud and that this cloud will be removed if he subscribes to the College. Of course there is no suggestion that there is any connection between this matter and this case, but the Khan knew and others knew that he was not in favour with the authorities.

It must be remembered that, so far as we are concerned, it is quite immaterial whether the Khan is a rich or a poor man. All men are equal in the eyes of the law and the grievances of every man are entitled to ventilation, if they are of the nature of a public grievance. If therefore we mention the social or personal position of the Khan, it is not with the intention of investing him with an undue importance. But we think that every humane person will be disposed to sympathise with an old man of seventy, almost infirm and suffering from an incurable disease, who is thus harassed without cause and put to heavy expense to defend himself. A man of seventy is nearly at the end of his life, and it is not unreasonable to inquire what kind of character he has borne throughout his career. The Khan was never accused of any offence in his life, he belongs to one of the highest families in his district, he has taken measures to ensure the safety of his numerous tenants, Hindu and Muhammadan, and he holds the highest testimonials from numerous officials. He got a certificate from the Viceroy on the 1st January 1877, in recognition of his valuable services in political matters connected with the people of Swat. Sir Lewis Pelley acknowledged his assistance when he was conferring with the Envoy from Kabul in the same year. Every Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner gave him high credentials. Lieutenant A. H. MacMahon, now Sir Henry McMahon, Foreign Secretary to the Government of India, wrote in the highest terms of the Khan. He said:—'I look upon Khwaja Muhammed as a personal friend, and hope to hear nothing but good of him.' He was made a Khan Bahadur and an Honorary Magistrate. He received complimentary and congratulatory letters from Sir Mackworth Young, Sir Louis Dane (then Chief Secretary to the Punjab Government), and officials of the Frontier Province. He presented a number of horses to Lumsden's Horse when the troop went to South Africa for the Boer War.

How does it then happen that he lost all this favour? To this only one answer can be found, though it is a most startling answer. In 1901 Major G. Roos-Keppel, Political Officer, Khyber Pass, brought out a book called A Manual of Pushtu. Major Roos-Keppel is now Sir George Roos-Keppel. In this book there are lessons on colloquial Pushtu with English translations enabling the learner to sustain a conversation in Pushtu. To give a local colour, local subjects are introduced. And one of the persons mentioned in the course of the different conversations is unmistakably the Khan of Hoti. A little introductory explanation is necessary. The Khan of Hoti is not on good terms with Khan Bahadur Ibrahim Khan, another landholder in Mardan. This was known even to Sir Henry McMahon who, in the course of the letter already quoted, wrote:—"The unfortunate faction between him and Ibrahim Khan, Khan Bahadur, still exists, but I am happy to say I was not troubled by it in any way during my time at Mardan, and factional feelings, owing to the admirable self-control of Khwaja Mahomed Khan, have not been allowed to work up again." Now, in this Pushtu Manual (pages 202 and 302) there is high praise of Ibrahim Khan in the fragmentary colloquial sentences. Immediately below them comes the following:—"That fat man is the Khan's enemy. He has bribed all the police and Tahsil officials, who make up cases against the Khan." The Khan of Hoti is a stout man and the reference here is to him. But there are other sentences which do not admit of any doubt or equivocation. On page 213 is the following:—"Whose house is that? It is Khwaja's house, where his father fed guests. He would never give a piece of bread to any one. All the people dislike him very much. He is stout and a miser." Only one man in the Frontier Province is known as Khwaja, and that is Khwaja Muhammad Khan of Hoti. But the identity becomes clear and more unmistakable as we proceed to other passages. On page 217 occur the following passages:—"Who is that fat man? He is the Khan of Hoti. He is owner of ten thousand jaribs of irrigated and fifteen thousand of unirrigated land,.....His village is situated on the left bank of the stream. He has two water-mills, two mosques, and three guest-houses. But no one gets any food out of him." Finally, on page 231 :—" Who is that stout Khan? He comes from the Mardan Tahsil. His cultivators call him a great tyrant." The Khan himself knew nothing of these passages until the book was put in his hands by a European in Bombay while the trial was going on.

Here again of course there is no connection between the book and the case, but it is not difficult to imagine what an amount of prejudice the foregoing passages must have created against the Khan. Every officer in the Province has to read this book, and every officer must be believing what is set down against the Khan of Hoti. Sir George Roos-Keppel did not even know the Khan when the book was written. And of course he is safe from the law of libel in his own Province. But the effect that these passages have produced is that the Khan has advertised his property for sale, and has decided to leave the home of his ancestors and pass the few years of life left to him in peace somewhere in the Panjab.

ENCLOSURE No. 16.

Extract from a letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, to the Honourable the Chief Commissioner and Agent to the Governor-General, North-West Frontier Province, No. 662, dated 22nd April 1912.

I am directed to forward a copy of three questions in Parliament on the subject of the abduction charge against Khwaja Muhammad Khan of Hoti-Mardan.

ENCLOSURE No. 17.

No. 337-P., dated Peshawar, the 2nd May 1912.

From—The HONOURABLE LIEUTENANT-COLONEL SIR GEORGE ROOS-KEPPEL, K.C.I.E., Chief Commissioner, North-West Frontier Province.

To—V. DAWSON, Esq., Under-Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.

I have the honour, with reference to your letter No. 662 of the 22nd April, in which you ask for a report on the subject of the questions asked by Mr. MacCallum Scott in the House of Commons, to state that the charges raised by him appear to be—

- (1) that Khan Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Khan of Hoti was arrested and imprisoned without sufficient cause, that he was subjected to many indignities and that the procedure in the case was irregular and arbitrary;
- (2) that a letter was sent to Khwaja Muhammad Khan on the 5th of April 1911 by a Government servant and an Honorary Magistrate, asking him with menaces in the name of the Chief Commissioner to subscribe to a fund for the proposed Islamia College at Peshawar; also that Khwaja Muhammad Khan refused to subscribe to the scheme, and that shortly afterwards he was arrested, etc.;
- (3) that I had written a book called the "Manual of Pushtu" in which I made offensive personal allusions to Khwaja Muhammad Khan.

2. I have, I think, completely disposed of questions (1) and (3) in my letter No. 317-P of 25th April 1912, to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Home Department. There remains, therefore, only the question of the letter of Messrs. Mir Alam Khan and Maulvi Ghulam Hassan to the Khan.

My first information that such a letter had ever been written was derived from the Press and, when I saw in the English papers the questions asked by Mr. MacCallum Scott, I directed the Deputy Commissioner of Peshawar to call upon the two gentlemen who were supposed to have written the letter for an explanation, which I have now received and forward herewith. I also attach a copy* of The Tribune giving what purports to be a translation of the letter in question.

* Enclosure No. 15.

You will notice that the article in The Tribune, which is headed "The Khan of Hoti and the Peshawar Islamia College," begins with the words :—

"Translation of a letter, dated the 5th of April 1911, from Sirdar Mir Alam Khan Sahib, Extra Assistant Commissioner, Peshawar, and Maulvi Ghulam Hassan Khan, Sub-Registrar and Honorary Magistrate, Peshawar, members of the deputation for collecting funds for the proposed Islamia College, Peshawar, to Khan Bahadur Muhammad Khan of Hoti."

Although, in a leading article in the same newspaper on the subject of this letter, the words occur :—

"The letter bears no date, but the postal marks on the cover are April 5th, Peshawar, and April 6th, Hoti."

3. It now appears that the letter in question was written in the spring of 1910, and not in 1911, and that either the date has been erased or suppressed in order to suggest that the letter is connected with the recent case of King-Emperor versus Khan Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Khan, or else that the letter was really undated, which is possible, though not probable. The statements of the two signatories are corroborated by my own enquiries and by the sequence of events. Khwaja Muhammad Khan's possession of an envelope bearing a date of last year is accounted for by the fact that he was then in active correspondence with Maulvi Ghulam Hassan in the latter's capacity as a priest, on the subject of the marriage of one of his relatives. After careful enquiries I have no hesitation in accepting the statement of the writers that this letter was written in 1910.

4. It has been assumed throughout this correspondence that the inception of the Islamia College, Peshawar, was due to me, and I should be glad indeed could I claim the credit. This is, however, entirely due to the generosity, racial patriotism and public spirit of a small band of gentlemen of position, leaders of the Muslim community of this Province, who approached me in 1909 with a suggestion that something should be done to bring the education of Muslim boys of the frontier into line with that of other great communities in India. I received their suggestion with pleasure and assured them that I would encourage them in this good work in the same way as I have always encouraged education, whether conducted by Missionaries, Muhammadans, Hindus, Sikhs or by the Arya Samaj. I pointed out, however, that their proposals were very nebulous and that, before I could make any recommendation to the Government of India on their behalf, they must show, by preparing a definite scheme and by raising subscriptions, that they were really in earnest. At this stage I left for England in November 1909, after commending the cause of education in general and of this great project in particular to my successor, who I knew would sympathize with anything tending to increase the prosperity—material and moral—of the people.

In the spring of 1910 my successor received a deputation from the promoters of the Islamia College. He discussed the matter with them and answered them much in the same terms as I had, that is to say, he informed them that he could do little or nothing to help them until they had gone beyond the stage of discussion and could show something definite, either in the shape of land for a site or of subscriptions, as earnest of their desire to help themselves. I may add that Khwaja Muhammad Khan was a member of this deputation.

5. At that time no rules were in existence forbidding Government servants to collect subscriptions for philanthropic institutions; indeed, it had been quite common throughout India for even the highest officials to head such appeals. Maulvi Ghulam Hassan, who, I may remark, is not a Government servant, though he draws a small stipend as registrar, was a personal friend of Khwaja Muhammad Khan and was in constant correspondence with him through Ghulam Samdani Khan, the Khan's agent, on the subject of the marriage to which the first paragraph of the letter refers. I do not doubt that he wrote the letter in good faith and with the view of benefitting Khwaja Muhammad Khan in the eyes of the public and of the authorities. Sirdar Mir Alam Khan happened to be in Peshawar at the same time and, being a great personal friend of his, also signed the letter to strengthen his persuasions.

6. After my return from England on the 30th. October 1910, I was repeatedly visited by deputations regarding the college and their proposals showed signs of taking definite shape. It was not until April 1911 that a committee was formed to collect subscriptions and, although the scheme had no official origin or "imprimatur," I was careful to warn the committee to do nothing which could suggest to the people any kind of official pressure. In fact I foresaw and explained to the committee that any connection of Government with the scheme would doom it to failure, as this would arouse the ever ready suspicions of the priestly class, who always suspect Government of some ulterior motive. This the committee fully understood and they agreed that their first care should be to obtain the support of the Mullahs, as without it their scheme could not succeed. In this and in the collection of subscriptions they were extraordinarily successful. The committee sent deputations to different parts of the Frontier Province to collect subscriptions and in each place the Mullahs were at the head of the movement, a clear proof, if any were needed, that the local authorities had nothing to say to it. Only about two-thirds of the province has yet been visited, and amongst the remaining third is the subdivision of Yusufzai, in which is situated the home of Khwaja Muhammad Khan. Thus by a curious accident he has yet had no opportunity of refusing to subscribe towards the fund, of which he was one of the initiators, nor has he been addressed by any member of the committee since its formation. He did not reply to the letter sent him by Maulvi Ghulam Hassan and Mir Alam Khan two years ago.

7. There are in existence in this province, according to the closing statement of March 1912, 273 Government schools and 70 private schools and colleges, the latter of which are managed by committees and collect subscriptions. Of these, in a province which is 94 per cent Muhammadan, thirty-three Muhammadan schools receive in all Rs. 4,271 per annum as grants-in-aid from Government, while ten Hindu schools receive Rs. 8,377, two Arya Samaj schools Rs. 824, eight Sikh schools Rs. 453 and eight Christian Mission schools Rs. 17,313. So I do not think that it can be said that the cause of Muhammadan education has hitherto been unduly favoured.

I have the honour to request that the enclosures to this letter may be returned to me or may be carefully preserved as I have no duplicates.

We most respectfully beg to submit—

(1) So far as we can remember we did write some letter to Khap Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Khan, in which we made a mention about the Islamia College.

(2) We did not keep any copy, and unfortunately none can be produced.

(3) We have seen a version of this letter in The Tribune of Lahore, and in The Advocate of Mian Wali, and we are afraid that the letter as reproduced there has been misrepresented to a great extent.

(4) We will at once admit that we have never had any authority or even suggestion from the Honourable the Chief Commissioner or any person in position to use his name in any way in connection with Islamia College.

(5) So far as we can recall this matter to our memory, the real facts are somewhat as follows:—

That immediately after Mr. Merk had taken over charge of the Chief Commissionership of this Province, a deputation of the Moslem community had the honour to wait upon, and it was submitted to him that the community of the Province proposed to establish a college in Peshawar and earnestly looked for some encouragement and sympathy from the benign Government.

Mr. Merk received this proposal with the utmost sympathy and promised every help that was in his power legitimately to give.

After some proceedings in the matter, he directed the members of the deputation to select some suitable site for the proposed college. There were at that time three sites available, one being at Nowshera, which was being offered free of cost by Khan Bahadur Mian Rahim Shah, but after inspecting all these spots they were all considered to be unsuitable for one reason or other, and Mr. Merk was informed about this matter accordingly. On this occasion, he made certain remarks from which we gathered that if any liberal-minded member of the community came forward with an offer of either gifting a suitable site or paying for its cost, he would be very much pleased to hear it, as then there would be something tangible to go upon.

It would be observed that in those days the only question exercising the minds of the community was the finding of a suitable site and its cost. No attempt at collecting subscriptions was then in contemplation as the scheme had hardly assumed any definite shape.

While writing to the Khan about his private affairs we made mention about the college under the above circumstances and at the time the securing of a site being the uppermost thing in the mind of every true Muhammadan.

We understand from the newspaper reports that the letter itself is undated, but that the cover is said to bear Post Office marks of 5th and 6th April 1911. To the best of our memory this letter or a letter to this effect was not written in the year 1911; on the other hand, so far as we can recollect, it was written in the earlier part of 1910. What seems to have been done by Khan Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Khan is this:

He wanted to arrange for the second marriage of his son in Peshawar, and to that purpose there was a correspondence between him and one of us (Muhammad Ghulam Hassan) which continued up to probably the middle of 1911. Most probably, in order to work out his purpose, he has picked up an envelope out of this correspondence and connected it with the letter in question.

6. It is generally known among officials, and there is a universal impression among the community of this district, that Khan Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Khan is opposed to their religion, moral and social progress, even though he nominally belongs to it. Though we cannot remember exactly what were the words used by us, yet from the version of the letter given in the papers, we see that words like "tariki" (ignorance) and "badgomani" (wrong impression) are said to have been used by us. The second and succeeding paragraphs if carefully read would clearly show that we were trying to explain to him the position of the community according to the circumstances of the time, and that there were many wrong impressions about him as to his good will towards Moslems.

In other words what we meant to say was this; that by this benevolent act of his all those false rumours about his faith and ideas about communal matters would be dispelled. We never threatened him.

Though Khan Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Khan was himself a member of one of the deputation which waited upon the Honourable the Chief Commissioner (Mr. Merk), yet he in his private conversation expressed ideas from which we gathered that he was not very much in favour of the scheme, and this is one of the facts noted in the letter.

(7) This being a work of public utility, any gentleman showing liberality in such like scheme would be sure of his publicspiritedness being recognised by the Government, as we have already noted above that Mr. Merk was in complete sympathy with this scheme. Thus when we used the words if we used them at all, that if he would accept our proposal the Chief Commissioner would no doubt try to raise his position, we simply expressed our belief in the consequences of his generosity and the way in which it was sure to be received by the authorities. It had certainly never been our idea to impress upon him that we were speaking with any authority. We made this suggestion simply as members of the community and residents of this province; and above all as well-wishers of the scheme on the one hand and as his intimate and confident friends on the other.

(8) As Mr. Merk suggested that he would be glad to hear if some one among us would come forward with the offer of a site or defraying the cost of a site (and from Khan, considering where his estate was situated we could not ask for a site), we thought that in case the Khan agreed with us, it would shorten everything and would directly inform the Chief Commissioner about it, and this is what the concluding portion of the letter means.

(9) We need say nothing about the first paragraph of the letter, as it relates to an entirely different matter, viz., the proposed marriage of his son.

ENCLOSURE No. 18.

Extract from a letter from the Honourable the Agent to the Governor-General and Chief Commissioner, North-West Frontier Province, to the Secretary to the Government of India, No. 317-P.,—Confidential, dated the 25th April 1912.

The book called the "Manual of Pushtu" written by me in 1900 and published in 1901, of which I forward a copy herewith, consists of three parts, of which Part III consists of the whole of the papers of colloquial sentences set in the Higher Standard Pushtu Examination of the previous fifteen years, rendered into idiomatic Pushtu (vide page vii of the introduction) for the publication of which I explicitly acknowledged my obligation to the Punjab Government (vide page ix of the introduction). Of the passages referred to paragraphs 5 and 6 on pages 187 and 188 were published in the Examination paper for the Higher Standard Pushtu for April 1888. Paragraph 12 on page 203 was published in October 1889; paragraphs 2 and 3 on pages 211-12 and paragraph 8 on page 213 were published in the Examination Paper of October 1890; paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 on page 217 were published in the Examination Paper of April 1891; paragraph 6 on page 231 was published in the Examination Paper of October 1892.

I entered the Army as a Lieutenant in the Royal Scots Fusiliers in 1886, and at the time the abovementioned examination papers were set I was serving with that regiment and could of course have had no connection with the setting of the papers. In 1901 when I published my book I had recently been appointed Political Agent in the Khyber. All the examination papers are full of fictitious names, as the object of the colloquial sentences in a Pushtu Examination is to get as near a real conversation as possible. In 1901 I had not heard of Khwaja Muhammad Khan.

Complete copies of the proceedings before the Judicial Commissioner are attached.

I attach statements of the Police Officer who arrested Khwaja Muhammad Khan and of the Civil Surgeon, Peshawar, who was in charge of Peshawar Jail during the period of Khwaja Muhammad Khan's detention.

ENCLOSURE No. 20.

No. 187S.T., dated Simla, the 12th June 1912.

From—The HON'BLE SIR CHARLES STEWART-WILSON, K.C.I.E., Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs,

To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.

With reference to Government of India, Home Department letter No. 865, dated the 1st of June 1912, I have the honour to report that the multiple telegram in question addressed amongst others to His Imperial Majesty the King and His Excellency the Viceroy was tendered at the Peshawar Telegraph Office by a messenger from the Khan of Hoti or his Agent. The subject of the telegram was apparently the treatment of the Khan in jail and, as its language was considered by the Telegraph Master to be derogatory to the Head of the local Administration, he referred it to the Deputy Commissioner, Peshawar, who decided that it might be sent on. The telegram was received back at the Telegraph Office within half an hour, but, not having been paid for, it could not be transmitted. As the messenger had meanwhile left the office, the telegram was put aside and is now not to be found. On the return of the Deputy Commissioner to Peshawar—he is now on tour—possibly a copy of the telegram may be available, and, if so, it will be forwarded at once. The Telegraph Master concerned is on leave at present.

2. In referring the telegram to the Deputy Commissioner, the Telegraph Master, Peshawar, acted correctly under Rules 15 and 156 of the Telegraph Guide; but in raising this question prior to the booking of the telegram, his action was irregular and reprehensible and was contrary to the instructions given in Traffic Instructions, Article 114.

It is therefore unfortunately impossible to forward a copy of the telegram.

And We hereby further warn all Our loving Subjects, and all Persons whatsoever entitled to Our Protection, that if any of them shall presume, in contempt of this Our Royal Proclamation, to do any acts in derogation of their duty as Subjects of a Neutral Power in a War between other Powers, or in violation or contravention of the Law of Nations in that behalf, all Persons so offending will rightfully incur and be justly liable to the Penalties denounced by such Law.

And We do hereby give Notice that all Our Subjects and Persons entitled to Our Protection who may misconduct themselves in the Premises will do so at their peril, and of their own wrong; and that they will in no wise obtain any Protection from Us against such Penalties as aforesaid.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral, this Twenty-first day of October, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and in the Third year of Our reign.

No. 523-F.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Finance Department.

THE Government of India have had under their consideration the question of the value to the public and to the police of the system maintained in Currency Offices of registering the numbers of notes reported lost and stolen. Under present orders, "stopped note" lists are maintained in the case of currency notes of the denomination of Rs. 50 and upwards; in the case of notes for Rs. 50, Rs. 100 and Rs. 500, the numbers of the notes are removed from the list after the expiry of one year from the date of the stoppage, and in the case of notes of Rs. 1,000 the numbers are removed after three years.

2. The working of the system necessitates the maintenance of a detailed record of all transactions and the checking of the notes tendered with the list of stopped notes, and for this reason not only entails considerable expense and trouble in Currency Offices, but also materially hampers the prompt disposal of work at the public counters, thereby causing general inconvenience. The system is also open to criticism on account of the inconvenience and annoyance to which innocent holders of notes are liable to be subjected. The presenter of a "stopped" note is entitled by law to be paid, but if he is unknown to the officials in the Currency Office the result is generally that he finds himself in the hands of the police.

3. Looking at the matter from the police point of view, it is the general opinion that the present procedure is of very little use either as a preventive of crime or as a means of detection. As regards the prevention of crime, it is extremely doubtful if would-be thieves are to any considerable extent prevented from stealing notes merely by the knowledge that encashment will be attended by risks owing to stoppage. The utility of the procedure now followed depends in fact largely on the assumption that recourse must be had to a currency Office. There are ample facilities however for passing notes elsewhere and either for this reason or because the notes are presented before stoppage can be registered, it is a fact that a guilty person is very seldom discovered in a Currency Office. As regards detection, if a stolen note happens to be brought to a Currency Office by the thief himself, it is certain that he will give a false name or address. If the presenter has come by the note honestly, the "stopped note" system, it may be urged, enables the police to trace back possession to a guilty person. The prospects of success however in any such enquiry depend entirely on the practice of the public of registering the numbers of the notes passing through their hands, and there is evidence that this practice is being steadily abandoned, particularly since the universalisation of the Rs. 50 and Rs. 100 notes. It is clear further that the chain is likely to break down just at the point where evidence is most necessary, and a charge can be brought home to a guilty person only in those cases in which in disposing of the note he has been careless enough to frame evidence against himself.

4. The Government of India have come to the conclusion that the "stopped" note list does not afford adequate protection to the public, that it renders no material assistance to the police, that it tends to hamper in the case of currency notes that free and unquestioned interchangeability which is the desideratum of every medium of exchange, and, in any case, that the benefits secured are not commensurate with the expense and trouble to which the Currency Department is put, and the delay and inconvenience occasioned to the public. The Chambers of Commerce, who were consulted on the subject, are generally in favour of the abolition of the system and the Governor General in Council is therefore pleased to direct its abolition forthwith.

Ordered that this Resolution be published in the Gazette of India.

From the marks assigned to Candidates in each subject such deduction will be made as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary in order to secure that no credit be allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

Consistently with the limitation specified above, Candidates are at liberty to name any of the foregoing subjects, provided that the maximum number of marks that can be obtained from the subjects chosen is limited to 6,000. If this maximum is exceeded by a Candidate's selection, he will be required to indicate one of his subjects, the marks for which should, in his case, be reduced so as to bring his maximum marks within the prescribed limit. The marks so reduced will be subject to a correspondingly reduced deduction.

Moreover, if a Candidate's handwriting is not easily legible, a further deduction will, on that account, be made from the total marks otherwise accruing to him.*

6. A list of the competitors shall be made out in order of their proficiency as disclosed by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each competitor, and in that order so many competitors, up to the determined number of appointments, as are found by the Civil Service Commissioners to be qualified by examination, shall be designated to be Selected Candidates for the Civil Service of India, provided that they appear to be duly qualified in other respects. Should any Selected Candidate become disqualified, the Secretary of State for India will determine whether the vacancy thus created shall be filled or not. In the former case the Candidate next in order of merit, and in other respects duly qualified, shall be deemed to be a Selected Candidate.

* It is notified for general information that the number of marks deducted for bad handwriting may be considerable.

7. Selected Candidates, before proceeding to India, will be on probation for one year, at the end of which time they will be examined, with a view of testing their progress in the following subjects (a) :—

For Madras	Tamil or Telugu.
(at the option of the Candidate.)

In Hindustani the Candidate will be required to be acquainted with both the Persian and the Nagari character.

A Candidate assigned to Bengal or Assam, whose mother-tongue is Bengali, must offer for examination Hindustani; a Candidate assigned to Bombay, whose mother-tongue is Marathi, must offer for examination Hindustani; and a Candidate assigned to Madras, whose mother-tongue is either of the languages shown against his Province, must offer the other for examination.

† These subjects may not be offered by any Candidate who has offered them at the Open Competition.

In this Examination, as in the Open Competition, the merit of the Candidates examined will be estimated by marks (which will be subject to deductions in the same way as the marks assigned at the Open Competition), and the number set opposite to each subject denotes the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it. The Examination will be conducted on paper and vis à voce, as may be deemed necessary. This Examination will be held at the close of the year of probation, and will be called the "Final Examination".

If any Candidate is prevented by sickness or any other adequate cause from attending such examination, the Commissioners may, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State for India in Council, allow him to appear at the Final Examination to be held in the following year, or at a special examination.

8. The selected Candidates will also be tested during their probation as to their proficiency in Riding.

(a) Instructions, showing the extent of the examination, will be issued to Selected Candidates, as soon as possible after the result of the Open Competition is declared.

The examinations in riding will be held as follows :—

- (2) Again, at the time of the Final Examination. Candidates who may then fully satisfy the Commissioners of their ability to ride well and to perform journeys on horseback will be awarded from 100 to 200 marks, according to the degree of proficiency displayed, to be added to their marks in the Final Examination. Candidates who fail to obtain 100 marks, but are reported by the Civil Service Commissioners to have reached a minimum standard of proficiency in riding, and are certified by the said Commissioners to be entitled to be appointed to the Civil Service of India, will, on their arrival in India, be subjected to such further tests in riding as may be prescribed by their Government, and shall receive no increase to their initial salary until they have passed such tests to the satisfaction of that Government.

A Candidate, who fails at the end of the year of probation to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that he has reached the minimum standard of proficiency in riding, will be liable to have his name removed from the list of Selected Candidates.

9. The Selected Candidates who, on examination, shall be found to have a competent knowledge of the subjects specified in Regulation 7, and who shall have satisfied the Civil Service Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of nationality, age, health, character, conduct during the period of probation, and ability to ride, shall be certified by the said Commissioners to be entitled to be appointed to the Civil Service of India provided they shall comply with the regulations in force, at the time, for that Service.

10. Persons desirous to be admitted as Candidates must apply on Forms, which may be obtained from "The Secretary to the Civil Service Commissioners, London," at any time after the 1st December, in the year previous to that in which the Examination is to be held. No person will be admitted to the Examination from whom the Secretary to the Civil Service Commissioners has not received on or before the 1st June (or, if that date should fall on a Sunday or public holiday, then, on or before the first day thereafter on which their office is open) in the year in which the Examination is to be held, an application, in the handwriting of the Candidate, on the prescribed form.

The Civil Service Commissioners are authorized by the Secretary of State for India in Council to make the following announcements :—

(i) Selected Candidates will be allotted to the various provinces upon a consideration of all the circumstances, including their own wishes; but the requirements of the Public Service will rank before every other consideration.

(ii) An allowance amounting to £150 will be given to any Candidate who passes his probation at one of the Universities or College which have been approved by the Secretary of State, viz., the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, Dublin, Glasgow, Edinburgh, St. Andrews, Aberdeen and London (University College or King's College); Victoria University, Manchester.

This allowance will be paid to the selected Candidate in four instalments on the following dates respectively—December 24th, after his selection, March 25th, June 24th, and the date of his signing his covenant on being finally appointed to the Service.

With the final instalment an allowance on account of passage to India will be paid to each newly-appointed civilian to the amount £37 10s. 0d., for passage to Calcutta, Madras or Bombay, and £43 for passage to Rangoon, the Officer then making his own arrangements for his passage.

The payment of each of the first three instalments will be conditional on the receipt, by the Secretary of State, through the Civil Service Commissioners, of a Certificate that the Candidate has fulfilled up to date the requirements of the Authorities, and shown satisfactory conduct at the Authorized University or College; the fourth and final instalment will be paid as soon as the selected Candidate has signed his covenant, and for its payment no certificate from College Authorities will be required.

The whole probation must ordinarily be passed at the same Institution. Migration will not be permitted except for special reasons approved by the Secretary of State.

(iii) Each Candidate will be required before receiving the first instalment of his allowance to execute an agreement binding himself and one surety, jointly and severally, to refund all monies he may have received from the Secretary of State for India in the event of—

(1) his failure to pass the final Examination within the time prescribed by the Regulations, and to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners of his fitness for admission to the Civil Service of India, or

(2) his subsequent failure to execute the usual covenant, and to proceed to India, as and when he shall be directed by the Secretary of State for India.

(iv) All Candidates obtaining Certificates will be also required to enter into covenants, by which, amongst other things, they will bind themselves to make such payments as, under the rules and regulations for the time being in force, they may be required to make towards their own pensions or for the pensions of their families. The stamps payable on these covenants amount to £1.

(v) The seniority in the Civil Service of India of the Candidates obtaining Certificates will be determined according to the order in which they stand on the list resulting from the combined marks of the Open Competitive and Final Examinations.

(vi) Candidates obtaining Certificates will be required to report their arrival in India within such period after the grant of their Certificates of Qualification as the Secretary of State may in each case direct.

(vii) Candidates who fail to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners at the Final Examination held in any year will be definitely rejected, and will not be allowed to present themselves for re-examination, unless it shall appear to the Secretary of State in Council, after reference to the Civil Service Commissioners, that such failure is due to circumstances wholly exceptional and beyond the control of the Candidate.

In view of the importance of legible handwriting in the public service, Candidates are warned that the provision as to deductions for bad handwriting in these competitions will be strictly enforced.

A minute and detailed knowledge will not be looked for in this part of the Examination. But its aim will be to test how far the Candidates have studied at first hand the chief productions of the greatest English writers, and are acquainted with the leading characteristics of their thought and style, and with the place which each of them occupies in the history of English Literature.

The other part of the Examination will relate to one of the following periods, which will follow each other year by year in rotation :—

The Examination in this part will require from the Candidates a more minute acquaintance with the history of the English Language and Literature, as illustrated in the chief works produced in each period, and will be based to a considerable extent, but by no means exclusively, on certain books specified each year by the Commissioners. The names and other indications placed beside the dates are intended to suggest the general character of the literary development of the period, and, consequently, the natural limits of the Examination. 6. (1) The work required may at the option of the Commissioners, either be carried out by the Commissioners themselves at the expense of the owner or occupier of the building in respect of which the work is required, or may be carried out by a person or firm employed by such owner or occupier and approved by the Commissioners.

12. Aim of the courses.—As regards the intention with which these courses have been framed, the following quotation is made from paragraph 27 of the Government of India (Home Department) Resolution No. 600, dated the 11th August 1906:—

"It may be anticipated that these two examinations in teaching will serve a useful purpose and will become very popular. After a sufficient number of persons have passed them, it may be advisable for the University to rule that no school will be permitted to prepare candidates for the Matriculation Examination which has not on its staff one or more certificated teachers. Such teachers will doubtless be in great demand, and it may confidently be expected that they will regard education in the light of a serious profession to which they may properly devote their lives."

Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

Others are admitted, provided they satisfy the Education Department, by passing a preliminary test-examination of a similar standard, that they have sufficient general education to enable them to derive advantage from the teaching.

The Evening Course.

There are at present evening classes for the following subjects:—

BABU BRAJAMOHAN DUTT'S PRIZE ESSAY FOR INDIAN LADIES.

THE following subject has been selected for Babu Brajamohan Dutt's Prize Essay of Rs. 45 (forty-five) for the year 1912-13 :—

Ideals of Women in Domestic Life.

The conditions for the award of the prize are—

- (1) That the competition be open to all educated women being natives of Bengal, without regard to age.
- (2) That the prize be given for an essay, to be written in either Bengali or Sanskrit.
- (3) That the essays be sent to the Central Text-book Committee for adjudication within six months of the date of advertisement.
- (4) That each essay be accompanied by a written declaration of the husband, parent or guardian of the competitor that to the best of his belief she has received no assistance of any kind, direct or indirect, in writing the essay.

Candidates are requested to send their essays not later than the 28th February 1913, to the Secretary to the Central Text-book Committee, Office of the Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division, 285, Bowbazar Street, Calcutta. The envelope containing the essay should be superscribed "Brajamohan Dutt's Prize Essay." The name of the successful competitor will be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

A lady who wins the prize in any year is not debarred from subsequent competition, and if the essay submitted by a competitor who has been previously successful is adjudged to be the best, the name of such a competitor will be published in the Gazette as the winner of the competition. The actual prize will, however, in these circumstances be awarded to the competitor whose essay is adjudged to stand next in order of merit, provided that her essay comes up to the standard required by the next clause.

If none of the essays come up to a standard which is, in the opinion of the examiners, adequate, no prize will be awarded.

NOTIFICATION.

Calcutta, the 11th November 1912.

No. 65 D.—A special scholarship of Rs. 10 a month is granted to Miss Ushabala Bose, tenable at the Alexander Girls' School, Mymensingh, for one year in the first instance, with effect from the date on which she joins the institution, subject to the usual conditions of good conduct and satisfactory progress.

G. W. KÜCHLER.

*Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.*REGULATIONS FOR THE CONDUCT OF EXAMINATIONS FOR GIRLS' PRIMARY AND MIDDLE SCHOLARSHIPS.The 11th November 1912.

No. 66 D.—With reference to the Rules for the award of Girls' Primary and Middle Scholarships promulgated under Government Notification No. 5934, dated the 14th October 1912, the procedure for the conduct of examinations shall be as follows:—

I.—PRIMARY SCHOLARSHIPS.

(i) On the 31st July of each year, the Inspectresses shall send out a set of printed rolls to each Inspector for distribution to the inspecting staff. The rolls shall be as in appendix A. The Inspectresses shall fill in the subjects and marks to be assigned (or other indications of proficiency, if they consider these preferable) in each subject of the curriculum. They will also send specimens of questions, etc., indicating the standard of examination.

(ii) The Inspectors will distribute these documents to their subordinate staff, who will commence to examine on August 15 and complete the examinations by November 30. The examinations will be in situ and will be conducted as a part of the ordinary school inspection.

(iii) The Deputy or Sub-Inspector will give timely notice to the School Committee (if such exists, otherwise to the head teacher) of the approximate date of the examination. And such Committee (or teacher) will be entitled to present four candidates (whom they consider proficient and who are willing to pay a fee of two annas each) for examination. Their names will be placed on a slip signed by the Chairman of the Committee (or the teacher), which must be ready against the arrival of the Inspecting Officer.

(iv) The Inspecting Officer will examine the girls in the presence of any members of the Committee who can arrange to be at the school (in their absence or in the total absence of a Committee, in the presence of a teacher). The examination will be brief and as informal as possible. It should be largely oral, but short papers will be set in those subjects in which the Inspectresses have given instructions that written work is necessary. The subjects will be those of the curriculum, and the books those prescribed within the area. But the examination should aim, so far as possible, at testing the general knowledge of the girls. The papers should be examined on the spot, and the names of the two most successful girls will be entered in the roll along with their marks and the opinion of the examining officer. The examining officer will, so far as possible, take into consideration the opinion of the Committee members (or the teacher) in judging the girls' proficiency. But the decision as to success will rest solely with him; and there will be no appeal against this decision.

(v) When the examining officer has visited all the schools in his Circle, he will assign an order in column 7 of the roll, and submit the record (if he is below the rank of Deputy Inspector) to the District Deputy Inspector. The record will consist of—

(a) the slip signed by the President of the Committee (or head teacher) containing names of candidates;

(b) the roll (on which the Deputy Inspector may, if he thinks necessary, make footnote remarks);

(c) the answer papers of successful candidates.

(vi) At the same time, the examining officer will credit the fees to the Treasury.

(vii) The District Deputy Inspector will assign an order in column 8 and make any remarks in column 9 to explain reasons for differing with the examining officer. He will retain the record in his office for six months and will submit to the Inspectress of his Division a copy of the roll containing a number of the successful candidates (not less than 2 nor more than 15) fixed for each district by the Inspectress according to the number of schools in the district and its general needs.

(viii) The Inspectresses will make the award of scholarships within their own Divisions, choosing those who, after an examination of the record, appear to them most proficient, up to the number assigned for each district, with the exception of those awarded in the Eden High School.

(ix) In the case of the Eden High School, the Lady Principal will conduct the examination, and may, if she finds suitable candidates, award as many as three scholarships.

II.—MIDDLE SCHOLARSHIPS.

The rules for the conduct of the Middle Scholarship examination for girls will be the same, mutatis mutandis, as those for the conduct of Girls' Primary Scholarship examination, except that the fee will be 4 annas for the Middle Vernacular and 6 annas for the Middle English examination.

NOTIFICATION.

STATE SCHOLARSHIPS TENABLE IN ENGLAND BY EUROPEANS AND EURASIANS EDUCATED IN INDIA.

No. 15241.—The 26th November 1912.—In the year 1907 His Majesty's Secretary of State for India sanctioned the institution of one scholarship of £200 per annum tenable at a European University to be awarded in each year to a member of the domiciled European and Eurasian community in India on the understanding that candidates belonging to this community should no longer be regarded as eligible for the two University State Scholarships at present granted to natives of India. For the scholarship to be awarded in the year 1913 applications are now invited.

2. The scholarship will entitle the holder to an allowance not exceeding £200 per annum payable from the date of his arrival in England and will be tenable for three or four years, as circumstances may require, at any University in the United Kingdom or, with the special sanction of the Government of India, at a foreign University. The candidate to whom the scholarship is awarded will be required to proceed to England within a reasonable period from the date of his selection, and to reside there for a period of three or four years, as the case may be, unless compelled to return sooner by ill-health. He will be provided with a free second class passage to England, and also with a free return passage if he completes the full period of residence or is compelled by sickness to return within that period.

3. The two main principles which govern the grant of the scholarship are—

(i) that as the object in view is to assist a domiciled European or Eurasian to go through a University course in England the scholarship will ordinarily be awarded to a young man at the close of his school career in India so that he may join the University at practically the same age as boys educated in England: the Government of India place the age limits at 18 to 21, i.e., the candidate must have completed 18 years of age and not have completed 21 years on 31st March of the year in which the scholarship is awarded, and

(ii) the scholarship will be given to the candidate who is most likely to win distinction at the University.

4. The following rules are to be observed in regard to the form in which applications are to be submitted:—

(1) The application should ordinarily be in the handwriting of the applicant. In the exceptional case of his being out of India, the parent or guardian may submit an application.

(2) The application should give full details as to the applicant's age, family circumstances, the schools or colleges which he has attended, his studies, the distinctions he has gained, and the course of study he wishes to follow. Information should also be given as to—

(a) the University at which the candidate proposes to study and the reasons for selecting the particular University;

(b) the special aptitude, if any, which the candidate has shown for the kind of study which he proposes to pursue.

(3) The application should be accompanied by a birth certificate, a certificate from a commissioned officer of the Indian Medical Service testifying to the general health of the candidate and certifying that his physique is such that there is good prospect of the University course not being seriously interrupted by ill-health, and testimonials as to character and capacity. If original testimonials are not sent in, certified copies must be submitted. The testimonials should include—

(a) A certificate from the Principal of the institution last attended, stating that the applicant is of good moral character and of active habits, and in the event of his having left school or college more than six months before the date of application, a certificate by a person of recognised position well acquainted with him, stating how he has been employed since he left school and certifying to his moral integrity.

(b) A certificate from some person of recognised position well acquainted with the candidate and his family, to the effect that he is a native of India within the meaning of Statute 33 Vict. Cap. 3, section 6, and that his parents are not resident in India for temporary purposes only.

5. The Director of Public Instruction will personally interview those applicants whose names he thinks worthy of submission to Government. If a personal interview is impossible (e.g., owing to a candidate being absent from India), the fullest possible information should be given as to the physique and character of the candidate.

6. All applications for the scholarship to be awarded during the year 1913 should be submitted in the first instance to the Inspector of European Schools, Bengal, in time to reach the Director of Public Instruction on or before the 31st January 1913.

7. No application will be considered unless the applicant declares that the conditions of the scholarship as laid down in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this notification are known to him, and that he is prepared to abide by them.

8. The scholar will, on arrival in England, be required to bind himself by a written engagement to submit to the following rules, and to such other regulations as may from time to time be framed by His Majesty's Secretary of State for the guidance of scholars in England:—

(a) Every scholar shall, on reaching England, at once present himself to the Secretary, Judicial and Public Department, at the India Office, and report his arrival in writing.

(b) Every scholar shall, without any unnecessary delay, inform the Secretary of State to which University or College he is about to proceed, and shall at once take steps to enter himself thereat.

(c) Every scholar shall, at the end of each term of residence at a University, submit to the Secretary of State a certificate from the proper University or College authority showing that his residence, conduct and progress in study have been satisfactory during the term.

(d) Every scholar shall at all times obey such instructions as he may receive from the Secretary of State.

(e) Subject to a due compliance with the above conditions, the allowance, at the rate of £200 a year for three years, or four years, if so determined, will be paid quarterly, in advance, by the India Office, commencing from the date of the scholar's reporting his arrival in England.

(f) Every scholar will forfeit his scholarship who, not being disabled by illness or prevented by any other cause which the Secretary of State may consider sufficient, fails to complete the required terms of residence at a University or who is guilty of misconduct, persistent idleness, or disregard of the orders of the Secretary of State. If the scholarship be forfeited, the scholar will lose his claim to a free return passage to India and will further become liable to refund the cost of his free passage to England.

(g) The scholar will be under the supervision and charge of the Political A.-D.-C. to the Secretary of State, through whom the necessary orders will be given, and to whom all reports and other communications respecting him should be sent.

STATE SCHOLARSHIPS TENABLE IN ENGLAND BY EUROPEANS AND EURASIANS EDUCATED IN INDIA.

No. 15241.—The 26th Novem^r 1912.—In the year 1907 His Majesty's Secretary of State for India sanctioned the institution of one scholarship of £200 per annum tenable at a European University to be awarded in each year to a member of the domiciled European and Eurasian community in India on the understanding that candidates belonging to this community should no longer be regarded as eligible for the two University State Scholarships at present granted to natives of India. For the scholarship to be awarded in the year 1913 applications are now invited.

2. The scholarship will entitle the holder to an allowance not exceeding £200 per annum payable from the date of his arrival in England and will be tenable for three or four years, as circumstances may require, at any University in the United Kingdom or, with the special sanction of the Government of India, at a foreign University. The candidate to whom the scholarship is awarded will be required to proceed to England within a reasonable period from the date of his selection, and to reside there for a period of three or four years, as the case may be, unless compelled to return sooner by ill-health. He will be provided with a free second class passage to England, and also with a free return passage if he completes the full period of residence or is compelled by sickness to return within that period.

3. The two main principles which govern the grant of the scholarship are—

(i) that as the object in view is to assist a domiciled European or Eurasian to go through a University course in England the scholarship will ordinarily be awarded to a young man at the close of his school career in India so that he may join the University at practically the same age as boys educated in England: the Government of India place the age limits at 18 to 21, i.e., the candidate must have completed 18 years of age and not have completed 21 years on 31st March of the year in which the scholarship is awarded, and

(ii) the scholarship will be given to the candidate who is most likely to win distinction at the University.

4. The following rules are to be observed in regard to the form in which applications are to be submitted:—

(1) The application should ordinarily be in the handwriting of the applicant. In the exceptional case of his being out of India, the parent or guardian may submit an application.

(2) The application should give full details as to the applicant's age, family circumstances, the schools or colleges which he has attended, his studies, the distinctions he has gained, and the course of study he wishes to follow. Information should also be given as to—

(a) the University at which the candidate proposes to study and the reasons for selecting the particular University;

(b) the special aptitude, if any, which the candidate has shown for the kind of study which he proposes to pursue.

(3) The application should be accompanied by a birth certificate, a certificate from a commissioned officer of the Indian Medical Service testifying to the general health of the candidate and certifying that his physique is such that there is good prospect of the University course not being seriously interrupted by ill-health, and testimonials as to character and capacity. If original testimonials are not sent in, certified copies must be submitted. The testimonials should include—

(a) A certificate from the Principal of the institution last attended, stating that the applicant is of good moral character and of active habits, and in the event of his having left school or college more than six months before the date of application, a certificate by a person of recognised position well acquainted with him, stating how he has been employed since he left school and certifying to his moral integrity.

- (b) A certificate from some person of recognised position well acquainted with the candidate and his family, to the effect that he is a native of India within the meaning of Statute 33 Vict. Cap. 3, section 6, and that his parents are not resident in India for temporary purposes only.

5. The Director of Public Instruction will personally interview those applicants whose names he thinks worthy of submission to Government. If a personal interview is impossible (e.g., owing to a candidate being absent from India), the fullest possible information should be given as to the physique and character of the candidate.

6. All applications for the scholarship to be awarded during the year 1913 should be submitted in the first instance to the Inspector of European Schools, Bengal, in time to reach the Director of Public Instruction on or before the 31st January 1913.

7. No application will be considered unless the applicant declares that the conditions of the scholarship as laid down in paragraphs 2 and 8 of this notification are known to him, and that he is prepared to abide by them.

8. The scholar will, on arrival in England, be required to bind himself by a written engagement to submit to the following rules, and to such other regulations as may from time to time be framed by His Majesty's Secretary of State for the guidance of scholars in England:—

- (a) Every scholar shall, on reaching England, at once present himself to the Secretary, Judicial and Public Department, at the India Office, and report his arrival in writing.

- (b) Every scholar shall, without any unnecessary delay, inform the Secretary of State to which University or College he is about to proceed, and shall at once take steps to enter himself thereat.

- (c) Every scholar shall, at the end of each term of residence at a University, submit to the Secretary of State a certificate from the proper University or College authority showing that his residence, conduct and progress in study have been satisfactory during the term.

- (d) Every scholar shall at all times obey such instructions as he may receive from the Secretary of State.

- (e) Subject to a due compliance with the above conditions, the allowance, at the rate of £200 a year for three years, or four years, if so determined, will be paid quarterly, in advance, by the India Office, commencing from the date of the scholar's reporting his arrival in England.

- (f) Every scholar will forfeit his scholarship who, not being disabled by illness or prevented by any other cause which the Secretary of State may consider sufficient, fails to complete the required terms of residence at a University or who is guilty of misconduct, persistent idleness, or disregard of the orders of the Secretary of State. If the scholarship be forfeited, the scholar will lose his claim to a free return passage to India and will further become liable to refund the cost of his free passage to England.

- (g) The scholar will be under the supervision and charge of the Political A.-D.-C. to the Secretary of State, through whom the necessary orders will be given, and to whom all reports and other communications respecting him should be sent.

Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.

EUROPEANS AND EURASIANS EDUCATED IN INDIA.

No. 15241.—The 26th November 1912.—In the year 1907 His Majesty's Secretary of State for India sanctioned the institution of one scholarship of £200 per annum tenable at a European University to be awarded in each year to a member of the domiciled European and Eurasian community in India on the understanding that candidates belonging to this community should no longer be regarded as eligible for the two University State Scholarships at present granted to natives of India. For the scholarship to be awarded in the year 1913 applications are now invited.

2. The scholarship will entitle the holder to an allowance not exceeding £200 per annum payable from the date of his arrival in England and will be tenable for three or four years, as circumstances may require, at any University in the United Kingdom or, with the special sanction of the Government of India, at a foreign University. The candidate to whom the scholarship is awarded will be required to proceed to England within a reasonable period from the date of his selection, and to reside there for a period of three or four years, as the case may be, unless compelled to return sooner by ill-health. He will be provided with a free second class passage to England, and also with a free return passage if he completes the full period of residence or is compelled by sickness to return within that period.

3. The two main principles which govern the grant of the scholarship are—

(i) that as the object in view is to assist a domiciled European or Eurasian to go through a University course in England the scholarship will ordinarily be awarded to a young man at the close of his school career in India so that he may join the University at practically the same age as boys educated in England: the Government of India place the age limits at 18 to 21, i.e., the candidate must have completed 18 years of age and not have completed 21 years on 31st March of the year in which the scholarship is awarded, and

(ii) the scholarship will be given to the candidate who is most likely to win distinction at the University.

4. The following rules are to be observed in regard to the form in which applications are to be submitted:—

(1) The application should ordinarily be in the handwriting of the applicant. In the exceptional case of his being out of India, the parent or guardian may submit an application.

(2) The application should give full details as to the applicant's age, family circumstances, the schools or colleges which he has attended, his studies, the distinctions he has gained, and the course of study he wishes to follow. Information should also be given as to—

(a) the University at which the candidate proposes to study and the reasons for selecting the particular University;

(b) the special aptitude, if any, which the candidate has shown for the kind of study which he proposes to pursue.

(3) The application should be accompanied by a birth certificate, a certificate from a commissioned officer of the Indian Medical Service testifying to the general health of the candidate and certifying that his physique is such that there is good prospect of the University course not being seriously interrupted by ill-health, and testimonials as to character and capacity. If original testimonials are not sent in, certified copies must be submitted. The testimonials should include—

(a) A certificate from the Principal of the institution last attended, stating that the applicant is of good moral character and of active habits, and in the event of his having left school or college more than six months before the date of application, a certificate by a person of recognised position well acquainted with him, stating how he has been employed since he left school and certifying to his moral integrity.

- (b) A certificate from some person of recognised position well acquainted with the candidate and his family, to the effect that he is a native of India within the meaning of Statute 33 Vict. Cap. 3, section 6, and that his parents are not resident in India for temporary purposes only.

5. The Director of Public Instruction will personally interview those applicants whose names he thinks worthy of submission to Government. If a personal interview is impossible (e.g., owing to a candidate being absent from India), the fullest possible information should be given as to the physique and character of the candidate.

6. All applications for the scholarship to be awarded during the year 1913 should be submitted in the first instance to the Inspector of European Schools, Bengal, in time to reach the Director of Public Instruction on or before the 31st January 1913.

7. No application will be considered unless the applicant declares that the conditions of the scholarship as laid down in paragraphs 2 and 8 of this notification are known to him, and that he is prepared to abide by them.

8. The scholar will, on arrival in England, be required to bind himself by a written engagement to submit to the following rules, and to such other regulations as may from time to time be framed by His Majesty's Secretary of State for the guidance of scholars in England:—

- (a) Every scholar shall, on reaching England, at once present himself to the Secretary, Judicial and Public Department, at the India Office, and report his arrival in writing.

- (b) Every scholar shall, without any unnecessary delay, inform the Secretary of State to which University or College he is about to proceed, and shall at once take steps to enter himself thereat.

- (c) Every scholar shall, at the end of each term of residence at a University, submit to the Secretary of State a certificate from the proper University or College authority showing that his residence, conduct and progress in study have been satisfactory during the term.

- (d) Every scholar shall at all times obey such instructions as he may receive from the Secretary of State.

- (e) Subject to a due compliance with the above conditions, the allowance, at the rate of £200 a year for three years, or four years, if so determined, will be paid quarterly, in advance, by the India Office, commencing from the date of the scholar's reporting his arrival in England.

- (f) Every scholar will forfeit his scholarship who, not being disabled by illness or prevented by any other cause which the Secretary of State may consider sufficient, fails to complete the required terms of residence at a University or who is guilty of misconduct, persistent idleness, or disregard of the orders of the Secretary of State. If the scholarship be forfeited, the scholar will lose his claim to a free return passage to India and will further become liable to refund the cost of his free passage to England.

- (g) The scholar will be under the supervision and charge of the Political A.-D.-C. to the Secretary of State, through whom the necessary orders will be given, and to whom all reports and other communications respecting him should be sent.
